A LIVE JUSTICE CASE.—Last evening a complaint of J J Dubrille, W H Shields was arrested on the charge of cruelty to animals. He was tried before Justice Humphrey this afternoon. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Wyatt appeared for the state, and Hon J K Weatherford for the defense. The evidence of the prosecution, several neighbors testifying, was to the effect that five or six cows kept at the place of the mother of the defendant, and tended to by the defendant, seem to be very poor, being kept in a filthy yard where the mud is up to the knees of the cows. The evidence of the defense was to the effect that four of the cattle had been out at pasturage, but had broken out and about three weeks ago came into the city, and since have been kept at the Shields place; that the cows and property belong to Mrs Shields, and that William only acted under instructions from his mother; that the cows were given plenty of feed, such as a bale of hay a day, bran, chops and potatoes, and that while the lot was muddy there was a shed for them to go into nights and when they pleased. The case attracted considerable attention. The DEMOCRAT saves the case to the public for comment. The Justice after hearing the evidence found the defendant guilty and fined him $20 and costs. The case will be appealed to the Circuit Court.

A RUNAWAY BOY.—There seems to be a craze among Willamette Valley boys lately to run away, numerous cases having been reported of youngsters with visions starting out to seek their fortunes. Albany had such a case yesterday. Harry Pollock, a thirteen year old boy, took the noon train for the north fields green and pastures new. His mother learned of the affair and telegraphed to Salem, where the boy was stopped and returned to Albany on the 5 o'clock local.

The Salem Statesman speaks of the case as follows. His reason for leaving home was a poor one. His parents are poor people, and it is probable Harry has no more of a whipping than most boys get and deserve every few weeks: One of the passengers on afternoon train yesterday was a little 13-year old boy who ran away from his home in Albany. Before the boy's arrival Marshal Minto had received a telegram from his father, asking the marshal to hold the runaway until evening and then to send him back. The boy was a bright little fellow, and presented a better appearance than the usual fugitive small boy. He gave the name as Harry Pollock, and said his mother abused him and that he was going to Portland. When asked what he could do there, he said he had worked in a grocery store and expected to get work at the same kind in Portland. Harry had his little bundle of clothing, done up in a shawl strap, were put in charge of the baggage master of the train last night and sent home.

THE WASTE BASKET.—An editor once said that if newspapers should one day print the contents of their waste-baskets there would be a riot. There would certainly be trouble in many homes, arrests in many directions, shotguns in some places, trouble all around. But the subscriber never sees the waste basket. Some day the DEMOCRAT may conclude to make a live paper by saving up the cream of several waste-baskets, as well as private instructions and give for once a live column.

AN ASTORIA CASE.—The D H Gotshall trial in Astoria, of interest to Albany because Mrs Gotshall was a resident of Albany, at one time, being married here Nov. 13, 1889, attracted great attention there, a local paper taking up three or four columns to it. An eight header reads as follows, and somewhat explains the situation: D H Gotshall. The charge of larceny is dismissed. The books were examined in open court, nothing found in them but his own property. The whole affair a put up job. An outrage only equaled by the Norris case. Treated worse than a slave while in jail. Gotshall tells his own story in plain words.

THOSE FINE Christmas slippers at Klein Bros. are so tasty and neat that Jay said would be proud to wear them. Remember about that piano. When Christmas you find out that some one has really become the possessor of the piano for only a few dollars you will never forgive yourself. But ask Klein about it. Don't wait now.

THE LADIES BAZAAR.—Do not buy for Christmas presents without calling at the Ladies Bazaar, where there is a large and elegant stock of novelties suitable for the holiday trade. Some one will receive a Christmas present of an elegant French clock, one of the prettiest ever seen in Albany, now on exhibition at the Bazaar.

AFTER SOME CELESTIALS.—At Stewart's switch, one mile this side of Sherwood, there are several camps of Chinese wood-choppers. Sunday night last, between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock, one of these camps, where there were five Chinamen sleeping soundly in a tent, was attacked by two men with rifles. The assailants fired through the tent from 40 to 40 shots from a short distance away. The Mongolians dared not stire until the firing ceased, when they peeped out and saw two forms disappearing. They also perceived a burning fuse, and with suspicion at once aroused ran to the spot. They found two bags each containing about four pounds of giant powder, which had been enclosed by pieces of overall. They then got out of the vicinity, but returned on the following day. They are building a high fence around their camp and are armed to the teeth. It is a miracle that they escaped death Sunday night. The tent was riddled by bullets. The parties are supposed to be known.—Oswego Iron Worker.

FREE PASTURAGE.—A third ward man has a fine lot, containing a big crop of grass, which he was saving for his own cow. Some neighbor, it was learned, from appearances, was in the habit of staking out a cow on the lot after dark and taking her away before day light. Last night the owner of the lot watched operations and going to the place found the cow peacefully grazing the coveted grass. She was taken to the man's barn where she has since been stabled. Will the owner call for her and admit his guilt, that is the question.

P. S.—We learn this afternoon that the owner of the cow appeared and claimed his property, laying it to a boy. The owner of the lot simply got the morning's milk for pasturage.

A RELIC.—There is some talk of getting up a subscription to buy a new clock for the W U T company. The old clock which cost $1.75 cents in '62 gave out about two weeks ago. Its constitution broke down fourteen years ago, but it has been running on its by-laws ever since. Manager Henderson turned it upside down and for the last month it has been keeping time after a fashion, but one has to stand on his head to tell what time it is by it, which at times is embarrassing. Pass the hat and buy a new clock for Jay Gould's poverty stricken corporation.—Astorian.

TAKE NOTICE.—The delivery wagons of the city will not run on Christmas day. Parties interested should make all preparations the day preceding Christmas.
JOE MEYERS & Co.

THE KEY TO SUCCESS.—That is what we all want. It is'nt luck, for there is no such thing. It is principally being careful about small things, for instance, the buying of the best quality of groceries, fruits and produce for family use, at the smallest cost. This counts in the long run. Those who deal with Conn & Hendricson report bargains both in quality and price. They also have a fine line of crockery ware, toys, etc, suitable for the holiday trade, which it will pay the public to call and see before buying.

Old People.

J. V. S. is the only Sarsaparilla that old or feeble people should take, as its mineral rivals which is in every other Sarsaparilla you know of, is under certain conditions known to be emaciating. J. V. S. on the contrary is purely vegetable and stimulates digestion and creates new blood, the very thing for old, delicate or broken down people. It builds them up and prolongs their lives. A case in point:

Mrs. Belden an estimable and elderly lady of 519 Mason St., S. F., was for [illegible] the declining so rapidly as to seriously alarm her family. It got so bad that she was finally afflicted with fainting spells. She writes: "While in that dangerous condition I saw some of the testimonials concerning J. V. S. and sent for a bottle. That marked the turning point. I regained my lost flesh and strength and have not felt so well in years." That was two years ago and Mrs. Belden is well and hearty to-day, and still taking J. V. S.

If you are old or feeble and want to be built up. Ask for

BROWNSVILLE.

December 21st, 1891.

There is no improvement in the weather of late and webfoot appears to be in her element, plenty of rain and mud.

The E W M Co have four new looms on their way to this place. They will be put to work as soon as they arrive.

We see JP Galbraith in our city. Looks like old times to see Joe here.

We see our dear friends at Salem are sending their compliments to Governor-elect McKinley in the way of some good blankets, and in November next the democrats will send their's when headed by old Grover or some other good democrat we march in solid phalanx on to tariff reform and democratic supremacy.

We see by reports from the 11th census Brownsville has gained 447 in her population in ten years. Now we will wager our old hat we have no such gains, and yet we know we have at least 900 population. Verily the way of the census taker is past finding out.

On last Friday night Linn Chapter No 19, R A M, elected J M Swank, High Priest; C Sperry, King; W R Kirk, Scribe.

C C Jackson, of Halsey, was in the city today.

Cheap Confectionary.

Isom sells mixed candy, 2 lbs for 25 cents, 5 lbs or more at 10 cents per lb; French mixed 20 cents or 3 lbs for 50 cents; choice French cream candy, 35 cents per lb or 3 lbs for a dollar. Closing out a fine assortment of French briar and meerschaum pipes at less than cost, and all smoker's goods at prime cost.

THE PROPER WAY.—The assessment roll of Lane county contains a complete description of every piece of property assessed. The Yamhill roll does the same thing. These rolls are virtually abstracts of the real estate in their respective counties. It is a great expense to compile them and as many assessors read the law such abstracts are not required in giving the description of the property assessed. These descriptions are copied from the "present ownership" lists, of which the Marion county court will soon have one for Marion county. A deed could be made from the Lane or Yamhill rolls.—Statesman.

GAME LAW VIOLATED.—This noon a DEMOCRAT man noticed at the depot a fine lowing doe, being shipped to Barnes, of Portland. It had from appearances been killed with young. Our game laws should be enforced, and the person who slays doe after the close season, particularly when they are in the condition this one was in, should be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Our gun clubs should unite in protecting the game of this country in close seasons.

HOLIDAY GOODS.—A fine line of holiday goods may be seen at G L Blackman's. His plush goods particularly are fine, embracing a variety of handsome articles, which should be seen by all buying holiday goods. After a prosperous season the citizens of Linn county will desire to present their friends with the best to be obtained. Mr Blackman can accommodate them with as fine a line of holiday goods as is to be seen anywhere.

A shortage of over $200 has been reported in the accounts of City Marshal Thompson, of Athena, taxes collected by him, which have not yet been turned over to the city. His bondsmen have been notified of the fact and the matter will probably be straightened up soon. The exact amount of shortage is not yet known but it will not fall short of $300.—Pendleton E. O.

Here is a society item from the Pendleton East Oregonian: "Wm. Little led his horses into the Schooner saloon at the corner of Webb and Garden street Thursday night, ordering a drink of water for the animal and a stronger beverage for himself. These were promptly furnished, as it was thought best to humor the customer, who had things his own way until he saw fit to leave, when he rode his horse along the sidewalk. The police tried to corral him but he escaped their clutches and got out of town."

TWO CAR LOADS

Of the Finest Furniture Ever Brought to Albany.

Furniture cars are bigger than other cars, and hold an immense quantity of "knocked down" furniture. One car load will fill some furniture stores. Fortmiller & Irving have just received two of these cars full of the finest stock of goods in their line ever brought to the central Willamette Valley, their increasing trade demanding extra goods. They already had a big stock on hand. Among the new goods are many fine things for the holiday trade. Give your relatives and friends something substantial as well as ornamental. Among these new pieces of furniture are elegant bed room sets, parlor furniture in beautiful and latest designs, music cabinets and stands, Reed's rattan rockers, many novelties too numerous to mention, and fully two hundred new patterns in mouldings for pictures, very artistic in makeup. They were bought in eastern factories and will be marked so low as to justify new picture frames for everybody.
