GOOD EVENING

Read Locals on 4th page.

ALBANY NIMRODS READY.—At the annual meeting of the Salem Rod and Gun club, held last night, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: C B Gabrielson, president; F A Turner, vice-president; W W Brooks, secretary; H P McNary, treasury. A diamond medal to be shot for will be one of the features of the club during 1892. This organization is growing in membership and the interest is increasing. It seems the Albany "shootists" are not going to accept the challenge issued to them by the Salem club, but it is said the Jefferson boys will challenge the home team for a shoot at no distant.—Statesman. The Albany club will be glad to shoot at any time under reasonable conditions. A match can easily be made with ten men on a side.

THE BANNOCK WAR.—The DEMOCRAT is informed that desiring to see a correct version of the Bannock war, which occurred in 1878, published the veterans of the same, have appointed D S Smith, Mack Monteith, Dr E L Irvine and Frank Wheeler, all in the midst of the fight, as a committee to compile a history of the same. All published versions have been very incomplete. The onion incident and several other vital matters have been omitted. Information in reference to the forthcoming production can be obtained of any of the committee.

SALEM'S B & L A.—The directors of the Salem Building and Loan association met at the office of the secretary last night and loaned $600 at seventy-four months, and $700 at eighty-two months interest in advance. All the withdrawals were also paid, with half the earnings shown by the annual statement, according to the by-laws. Those in the first series realized 14½ per cent on their investments, although they left with the association for the benefit of the stockholders who remain, the same amount of earnings they drew out. Pretty good investment.—Statesman.

MANY CANDIDATES.—The council will elect city officers under their jurisdiction next Tuesday evening. For police officers the DEMOCRAT hears of only the present incumbents; but for street commissioner there is an army of candidates, among the number being the following: J W Anderson, the present official, B F Tabler, A B Woodin, O W Warren, J E Miller, Jacob A Fox, George Burkhart, Geo Hughes, I C Dickey, Ed Carter, Cal Burkhart, W E Kelley, Robert Brown and Robert Crosby.

ARRESTS DURING 1891.—Albany is a very peaceable city. The police record of the year shows this. Though we have an alert police force only 61 arrests were made as follows: January, 9; February, 5; March, 1; April, 9; May, 14; June, 1; July, 2; August, 5; September, 3; October, 8; November, 4; December 0. They were for the following purposes: Vagrancy, 25; drunk and disorderly, 22; fighting, 4; assault and battery, 5; carrying concealed weapon, 1; boarding cars outside of station, 1; obscene language, 3.

PAVEMENT.—First street should be paved from Calapooia street to Montgomery street. As nearly as can be learned most of the property owners are said to be in favor of the movement. Gravel is a decided failure on so important a business street. Let pavement be the coming issue until secured. Albany is on the up grade, and pavement is a big thing in keeping the ball rolling. The spirit of the mayor's address is the spirit of the public, that we go ahead.

FINE WORK.—Recently Walt Mead, the jeweler, received a new lathe. Desiring to test it he drilled a hole into a pin running it almost through. Making a screw of a smaller pin he put this into the larger one, and a DEMOCRAT man now has the arrangement, one, according to jewelry journals, is not often successfully made. It is a fine piece of work, and is certainly a curiosity in this line.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH SERVICE.—There will be morning and evening service in the Episcopal church next Sunday, Jan 10th, at the usual hour. Rev Geo F Plummer will officiate. There will be an Epiphany sermon in the morning on "The star which led the wise men." In the evening the subject will be "Turning Points." The public is cordially invited to attend. Seats free.

GOING SOUTHWARD.—A large number of tramps are following the geese south. Our vigilant police are having their hands full keeping them on their journey. None are allowed to stop here if possible to prevent it. Occasionally, though they get into the city limits. This morning a couple were steered into the calaboose.

MARK TWAIN is writing some letters from Europe for a syndicate of papers, of which the Oregonian and Examiner are in the list. Good judges declare the two letters already published to be the worst kind of slush, and not in keeping with Mark's old reputation.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I am now well and in my office for business. Those desiring early appointments please call at once.

Respectfully,
O C AWBREY.

OUR INSURANCE CO.—The annual meeting of stockholders of the Farmers and Merchants Insurance Co., of Albany, was held this afternoon. The reports of the officers showed a safe, conservative business, with a net income of about $15,000 for the past year and $58,281 net assets. It is in a good condition, every cent of coast losses has been paid, and is entitled to the best support and confidence of the people of Oregon, who wish to insure in a prompt, reliable company.

CHATTEL MORTGAGE SALE.

The conditions of that certain chattel mortgage, executed and delivered by Walker, Walden & Co., per John Walker, to Price & Robson, (a partnership firm composed of H J Price and John Robson,) dated the 20th day of May, 1891, to secure a promissory note therein mentioned, in the sum of seven hundred and seventy-one and 75-100 dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from May 20th, 1891, until paid, together with reasonable counsel fees in case of action being taken to collect said note or any portion thereof, in and upon the personal property hereinafter described, having been broken, and the conditions thereof violated, we, the undersigned mortgagees, have as provided by said mortgage taken possession of the following described personal property, covered by said chattel mortgage, and now being near what is known as Ceder Flat, in Linn county, Oregon, and consisting of one Clipper engine, eight horse power, and one shingle mill complete; one buncher, and belts and tools used in manufacturing shingles; one sorrel horse about 8 years old; one gray horse about 9 years old; one set of harness and wagon; one yoke of cattle and logging truck; and on Friday, the 15th day of January, 1892, at the hour of 11 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at what is known as Walker, Walden & Co's shingle mill, situated near what is known as Cedar Flat, about 14 miles northeast from Lebanon, in Linn county, Oregon, we will sell the above described personal property to the highest bidder for cash, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to satisfy the said sum of $771.75 now due said firm of Price & Robson, together with interest thereon at 10 per cent per annum from May 20th, 1891, and an additional sum of $75 as a reasonable counsel or attorney's fee for instituting and prosecuting this proceeding for the collection of said note, and the costs of this action to be taxed, and the overplus if any there be, either of money or property, left after satisfying the said claims of Price & Robson, will be turned over to said Walker, Walden & Co., or their personal representatives.

Dated this the 2nd day of January, 1892.

MISFITS

WHEAT, 85 CENTS.

There were ninety-five weddings in Umatilla county in 1891.

The county court in session this week will have a long siege appointing road supervisors and dividing voting districts.

A Roseburg dog a few days ago broke some specimen jars belonging to a physician, lapped up the alcohol and ended with the delirium tremens.

General views of cities as a rule do not show off well for the size of a city. One of Roseburg, in the Review, though good so far as the general scenery is concerned, makes the city look as if it had a population of about two or three hundred.

New Year's editions of the Pendleton E O., Salem Statesman, Journal, Oregon City Express and Roseburg Review, may be seen at the DEMOCRAT office by our readers.

An exchange learns that the Salem and Albany girls marry very young. So far as Albany is concerned this is not true. In fact they marry old here, and sometimes not at all. There are more old maids in Albany than should be allowed in one city.

They may talk about the editors
And say that they are poor,
With very few good creditors
And little earthly store.
But there is one thing certain:
You cannot keep them down,
For when they can't support themselves,
They still support the town.—Ex.

The camera can be made, an instrument of torture, as witness the case of Yee Yick, the first Chinamen to be subjected at Lockport, N. Y., to the treasury department's order to have all Chinamen charged with unlawfully entering the United States protographed for identification. He thought that he was about to be executed when the camera was pointed at him, and nearly cracked the lens with howls.

A big fight is made in the Roseburg Plaindealer against assessing mortgages at their full value as decreed by the state board of equalization, it being alleged that it drives capital out of the state. All the same there seems to be plenty of money to loan on first-class security in Linn county, where mortgages have been assessed at full value right along. The injustice is assessing one kind of property at full value and another at half or third, and differently in different parts of the state. Equality is what is wanted.

John Nolan, the well known contractor, who resides at 1020 North L street returned yesterday from a 10 weeks' trip throughout the East. Accompanied by Mrs Nolan, he visited New York, Chicago, Kansas and Nebraska. The most important thing about his trip is that Mr Nolan has returned home a reformed man as far as the use of liquor goes. He spent three weeks in a Keeley institute for the cure of drunkenness, at Leavenworth, Kansas, and came out cured.—Tacoma News. A cure is a big thing, but a preventive is better than a cure any day.

The board of R R commissioners yesterday visited Marion to investigate the death of J E Brazier, the brakeman who was run over and killed there Saturday. After hearing the evidence of J O Johnson, roadmaster, E H Briston, conductor and M Hoult, brakeman, the board came to the conclusion that Brazier came to his death through his own negligence, and that it was no fault of the Southern Pacific or any of its employes.

MARRIED.

DAY—WESTFALL.—On Wednesday forenoon, Jan. 6th, 1892, at the home of the bride's parents, in Albany, by Rev. S. E. Meminger, Mr. Harry Day, of Portland, and Miss Carrie Westfall, of Albany. The wedding ceremony was performed in the presence of several relatives and invited guests, and was followed by a nice repast, when the happy couple left for their new home in Albina, Portland, taking with them the best wishes of many friends.

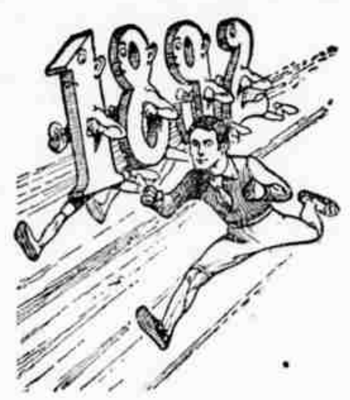
'92 IS HERE AT LAST!



With the lightning speed of a fiery steed, down the track past the goal flies '92.

The New Year is now upon us — laden with things good, bad and indifferent to us all. Those who will get the largest share of the good out of it will be those who take advantage of our offerings.

So "Get ahead of the new year" while we clear up for stock taking.

We have made a reduction on all lines of winter clothing, and on overcoats especially, of which we have still a large stock.

Just received some late style hats and latest shades in neckwear.
