GOOD EVENING

AN INSTRUCTIVE ENTERTAINMENT.—Last evening the W. C. T. U. reproduced some of the main features of the World's convention held in Boston in November to a good sized audience. It proved one of their best efforts. A Bible reading was conducted by Mrs M A St John, when the President, Mrs E F Sox, delivered a short opening address full of W C T U instruction. It is an encouraging fact that the Union has grown from a membership of about 4,000 in 1875 to 153,000 in 1891. Some excellent vocal music followed by the Apollo Club. Mrs C H Dalrymple read extracts from Miss Willard's annual address, Miss M Laughlin a synopsis of the report on Sabbath observation; the Apollo Club were heard again; Miss Hettie Miller recited an incident narrated in Mrs Mary A Livermore's address; Mrs C W Cobb recited Mary T Lathrop's beautiful poem, A Woman's Hour; a ladies quartet, Mmes. John Althouse, C O Lee and A M Hammer and Miss Lib Irvine were heard in in the song of blessing; a collection followed, and the very profitable exercises closed with a benediction by Rev Hill.

DAN MORRIS AGAIN.—Constable Green came to Albany from Sweet Home last evening, bringing Dan Morris, with a commitment issued out of Justice Watkin's court, holding him for the action of the grand jury under $200 bonds. Morris will be remembered as the husband of the daughter of the wife of Warm Spring Johnny, who has heretofore appeared in several scrapes in connection with his wife and child who refused to live with him. The present trouble arose from Morris going to his wife's fathers house, and where another man was then paying attentions to Mrs Morris and demanding that he come out and settle the matter with him. They went out together when the man stepped back into the house and locked the door. On Morris starting to tear the house down, his father-in-law came out and remonstrated, when Morris hit him a severe blow with a club, resulting in his arrest. This is a family feud that should be settled in some form.

PROBATE MATTERS.—Fourth annual account in estate of Rosa and Henry Mack, by J A Bilyeu, guardian.

Inventory and appraisement filed in estate of Moses Burg. Sale of property ordered Petition for construction of codicil filed in estate of Robert Johns. Also petition to sell certain personal property, which was granted.

Inventory filed in estate of Wm M Davis: real property $600; personal property 124.85. C F George appointed administrator.

WEATHERFORD HIS CHOICE.—The West Side says: Chas E Wolverton, a prominent lawyer of Albany, was in town this week on a visit to his father. His name has been mentioned in connection with the nomination for congress on the republican ticket for this district, but we believe he has no very ardent aspirations in that direction, but is willing to again accord that honor to Binger Hermann. We, ourselves, though a democrat, think that if the republicans have a majority in the district, no better man among them than Binger Hermann can be selected. Our own individual preference as a democrat for the nomination is J K Weatherford, of Albany.

A R R SOLD.—The Astoria & South Coast railroad was sold at sheriff's sale this afternoon for $52,550 to Frank Patton and H C Thompson, of this city. Hon J C Trullinger started the bidding at $45,000. Mr Thompson informed a Talk reporter that the road would be run in good shape next summer. The road will be put in first-class order for the sandy trade.—Town Talk.

TABERNACLE.—Another good audience greeted the Beeks Barlour company last night in their presentation of Shadows of a Blockaded, which received generally most favorable comment. This afternoon Peck's Bad Boy was presented at a matinee to a pleased audience. Tonight will be the famous She, and there promises to be a big house.

COST HIM $17.—The following from the Salem Journal tells about another Albany man getting in trouble: "Last evening, Ed Anderson, of the Anderson & Johnson saloon, was fined with costs, $16 for resisting a policeman. James Fennel paid $17 for smashing furniture in a house of ill fame."

STRUCK A VEIN.—A correspondent to the Scio Press says: Messrs Smith, Lewis, McCleary, Clark and Stafford have struck a valuable vein in their Quartzville mine. They bonded it at one time for $12,000 and are glad the bargain fell through.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.—Every man is the farmer of his own fortune and the harvest he reaps is entirely due to his own perseverence and industry. If properly sown, there is not one seed that promises him better returns than saving a dollar by buying groceries where you can always depend on the best goods and lowest prices. This you can do by dealing with Parker Bros, who always have on hand a large and select stock of groceries and baked goods. Try them.

A. B. MCILWAIN has just received direct from the manufactories, new designs in carpets, oil cloths, linoleums and window shades, which will be sold at reduced prices. He is also receiving a fine line of men's shoes, in late styles, at 25 to 75 cents per pair less than regular prices.

Decidedly the largest and choicest variety of tea in town is at C E Brownell's. Sun dried, basket fired, green, black, English breakfast, &c

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Wm Wright, the artist, of Salem, is in the city.

Mayor Cowan went to Portland this noon on business.

Wm M Hoag came from Corvallis last night on a special train and went south.

Prof Letcher, president pro tem of the agricultural college of Corvallis, was in the city today.

Hon Henry Cyrus, of the Scio flouring mills, was in the city today. He reports the mill up and enclosed.

This office acknowledges a very pleasant call from Mr A R Read, editor of the Portland Dispatch.

W W Davis, of this city, has a class of forty in vocal music at Jefferson. It meets Tuesday evenings.

Miss M Colby, who has been teaching in Linn county, left for Independence today, where she will reside.

Prof C H Schmidt, of Albany, is in the city, says the Salem Journal. He came to visit Governor Moody's Jersey cattle ranch. The professor is the leading dairy expert in Oregon. A movement is on foot to hold a grand institute at Salem during the state fair week.

Rev I F Stewart, of Albany, brought over the plans of the contemplated Christian church edifice to be erected in this city. The plans were drawn by D C Schell, an architect of Albany. The building will be of handsome design, and will cost about $3000.

Mr D M Walters and wife, who for a number of years have resided in this place and been employed in the woolen mills, moved to Albany on Wednesday morning, where they will make their future home. Mr and Mrs Walters have many friends here who regret to lose them, but what is Brownsville's loss will be Albany's gain.—Times.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.—No services at the M E Church South on account of improvements in progress.

You are invited to attend a meeting of the Y P S C E of the U P church at 6:30 p m. Come. It might do you good.

Services at the First M E church both morning and evening. Preaching by the pastor. Sabbath school at 2:30 p m and Epworth League at 6:30 p m. All will be made welcome.

Y P S C E at Congregational church Sunday evening at 6:30. Subject, "A Good Man in Trouble. Why?" Jer. 27, 18-21; Job 23:10. Leader, Gene Larimore. All young people cordially invited.

The subject for gospel meeting to-morrow at the W C T U Hall at 4 p m, is "Life or Death" surplus reference Deut. 30 and John 6. Good music will be a feature of the service.

DR. ALEXANDER AFFECTED BY IT.—Among those unjustly affected by the new medical law is Albany's former fellow citizen, Dr W F Alexander. The Oregonian says: Dr Alexander, in his letter dated January 25th last, asks Dr Edward P Jones for advice on the license question. He says he has practiced medicine for forty-four years, thirty-six years in Linn county, and was honored many years since by Willamette University of Salem, which conferred on him an honorary degree, with diploma. He continues: I am frank to say that I have long since forgotten the anatomical rubbish that all must begin their reading with. I have always kept up with the advance of medical practice; have always been successful as a practitioner, and yet I have no idea that I could stand such an examination as I am informed they put a man through. Will you kindly forward to me a copy of your by-laws and other matter that may be of use to me in my case. I am old, have lost my fortune, and have no other means of supporting my family than my practice, which is fairly good.

QUITE A puff.—A traveling man direct from Chicago, paid Mueller's candy and refreshment parlors a visit last evening, and after enjoying oysters, etc, said this is one of the best and neatest places of the kind I have ever run across. Your prices, according to the surroundings and manner in which things are served, are very reasonable, more so than they would be in a larger city. This puff is very flattering, but is nothing compared to the elegant cream puffs and other fine cake fresh every day on sale at Mueller's candy and refreshment parlors.

MINING MATTERS.—A Strong and C Marsh, of Marion county, claim exclusive right of way for constructing a flume or ditch from Dry Gulch to a mill site.

C Marsh by H W White, has filed a claim to the White Bear claim Santiam district.

A Strong by W H White, to the Red Bear claim, same district.

A Strong by H W White, to Red Cow claim, Santiam district.

A Strong by White, to the White Cow claim, Santiam district.

A CABIN BLOWN UP.—The people near Breitenbush are somewhat excited over a small, or rather big, case of claim jumping. T P Medill possesses a claim in tp 10 R 5 E and has been residing on it. Louis Dyer, the Linn's first baseman, claiming part of it was outside Medill's 160 acres jumped that part and built a cabin. The cabin dropped to the ground one night. A stronger one was built and a few nights ago it was blown up. The denizens there declare that no claim jumping will be allowed.

OUR ability in CATERING to wants should not be LOST sight of when you need the best stoves in the market, as well as tinware and hardware generally. We can furnish them at bottom prices.

HOME AND ABROAD

Sandy Olds was released from the penitentiary yesterday.

Two more car loads of bridge material arrived yesterday evening.

Conn & Hendrickson today were selling three dozen oranges for 25 cents. Albany is a city now for sure.

The bottom has dropped completely out of the potato market in San Francisco, 20 cents per 100 lbs is all they are worth.

The Mill City florist, Mr Horrow, has sold out. He has several hundred varieties of flowers and plants. Among them being twenty kinds of cactus and sixty varieties of pansies.

Mr Carl Karr made a proposition to Brownsville to put a shoe factory in at that city employing 20 men for a $2000 bonus and lard for the building. It will probably be accepted. Mr Karr is the man who was to start a factory at Crawfordsville.

Mr Haley has sold his claim at the switch above Brown's mill, for $6000. An eastern firm is the purchaser. The same firm may buy the Green Basin Lumbering company's property.—Cor. Scio Press.

On Tuesday lumber was received by Green Colley for the erection of the water works tower, and work on the erection of the same commenced immediately. The tower is to be 70 feet in height, on top of which will be placed a tank of about 6,000 gallons capacity. —Scio Press.

J H Richards, aged 57 years, was brought from Roseburg yesterday and placed in the asylum for treatment. The cause of his insanity was a severe jolting he received some time ago while lying unconscious in the bottom of a wagon hitched to a runaway team, so that now he becomes excited and as violent as his strength will admit.—Statesman.

A congregation of the United Presbyterian church was organized at Shedd, the 26th, by Rev A M Acheson, assisted by T J Wilson, with 30 members. A Sutherland and O B Watson were elected Elders, and all the other officers necessary to carry on church work were chosen. A S S will be organized tomorrow with W A Robb as Superintendent and W H Latts, Assistant. This new congregation starts off with good prospects.

MISCELLANEOUS.

All the recent failures in Eugene are due to the fact that the parties did not invest their surplus in real estate.—Guard.

Mr Wm Ohlemacher's directory census has been completed from the eastern limits to Sidworth street, and shows a population of between 2200 and 2300. This is about half the city and indicates quite an increase over the census figures of 1890.

Mr J R Wyatt, of Albany, paid Harrisburg a visit last Saturday. Mr Wyatt is fast becoming one of the brightest young lawyers of the state, and is mentioned quite prominently for representative, from Linn county.—Harrisburg Courier.

Two Olympia women caught a big gray rat in a trap the other morning, but as there was no man about the house, the rat was suffered to live in the trap several days, while he was carefully fed and cherished by his captors. While the ladies were waiting for a man to come and kill the rat, he died through sheer kindness and high living.

Davis' Union Farmers' Alliance No 77 of Lane county have passed resolutions condemning the Eugene Register for refusing to publish a reply to an article that had already appeared, and declared it an act of hostility on the part of the paper. A newspaper should publish any reasonable communication whether believing in it or not.

Here is an opportunity for some sympathy from Jack Young, the Oregon Pacific news superintendent: A Blosser, an old Salem business man had the misfortune to slip on a cement walk Friday morning and break his leg off badly at the knee. He picked himself up as well as he could with only one sound limb to perambulate on, and some carpenters near by came to his rescue and drove some nails through it where it was broken to hold it together for him until he could get to his office. It was Mr B's wooden leg.

MANUFACTORING CANDIES.—At Mueller's candy and refreshment parlors can be seen a fine line of their own manufacture. Don't fail to give them a trial. Fresh every day.

A BIG FRUIT ORCHARD.—An important thing in the future growth of this country will be our fruit orchards. The following from the Gazette is the kind of manner in which it must be pushed: "M Schmidt, proprietor of the Occidental hotel, was over at Nashville this week where he has large interests. He informs us that a syndicate of ten people, of which he is a member, have sixteen men engaged in setting out an orchard to contain 160 acres, seventy acres of which will be planted in Italian prunes, ten in bartlet pears, ten in peaches and ten in apples. Mr Schmidt has also had a town site laid off at Nashville and already disposed of several lots. That section of the country is becoming noted for its fine fruit raising.

"NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS."—Why are we the most successful firm in the dry goods trade?

Because we have the largest and best selected stock to choose from.

We are now receiving new and seasonable good bargains in winter goods.

Cloaks at less than cost.

We are sole agents for Butterick patterns.

A full line of ladies and children's shoes.

Give us a call. W. F. READ.

AN OLD SAYING is, "Spend not all you have, believe not all you hear; tell not all you know; and do not all you can." Do not look for blood in a turnip or stoves in a confectionary store; but go to Matthews & Washburn's stove, tinware and hardware store and examine their stock of goods, if this is the line you want. If you buy you will not spend all you have; you will believe what you hear because you can also see; you will know too much to tell it all and you will not do all you can because the stove you get will do the work and save many a savage expression and extra step.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT.—But words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think. The object of this is to make you think about the subject of groceries. Conn & Hendrickson keep a first-class stock, at bottom prices, and as well have a fine line of crockery ware. Think about it and call on them.
