Victory Comes by Manager's Bringing in Van Buren.

SEALS CAN'T BREAK 3 TO 2 ONLY ONE FAVORITE WINS.

Umpire Davis is Hooted for Decision, and Because He Files Joking Pitches Jones and Puts Him Off the Field.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Scores.

Table with 2 columns: Team, Score. Rows include Portland 3, San Francisco 2, Los Angeles 2, Tacoma 1, Oakland 2, Seattle 0.

By Will G. MacRae. SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—(Staff Correspondence)—Portland, 3; San Francisco, 2.

That must sound different to you fans up home. If you could have seen the name you would say so twice over.

This afternoon's engagement at Recreation Park was a single ball affair, the kind that first threw a chill into the couple of Portland fans in the grandstand, and then warmed the cookies of their hearts.

The Lewis and Clark city giants had to come from behind in order to win, and it was not until the eighth inning that they were able to do so.

McCrede pitched a gem, and the decision of Davis was so hot that he was hooted and howled at during the rest of the game by the home fans.

Wheeler had reached first on Schaly's error, made second on Walter's out, and negotiated third on Runkle's fumble.

Bert Jones was pitching, and he caught Wheeler napping off the bag. He whipped the ball to Runkle, who was in the center, and Wheeler was fairly caught, but Davis signalled him safe.

Jones' fopsum trick costily. Wheeler had reached first on Schaly's error, made second on Walter's out, and negotiated third on Runkle's fumble.

The Knox College boy, who on Tuesday pitched ten innings, did not do so well as the Seals buffaloes. He hopped into the game practically stone cold with two men out, a man on third and a man on second, and struck Spencer out in four pitches.

GIANTS ON THE TIE

Portland Players Loom Up Tall on the Diamond.

AVERAGE WEIGHT 180 POUNDS

Heavy Stickers Among Them, Too—Fans Well Impressed With Garvin—Story of McLean and Los Angeles Team.

By Will G. MacRae. SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—(Special)—At last Portland has a ball team that can be proud of. Manager McCrede has surrounded himself with a set of men who know and play the game.

McCrede's team this year will average in weight over 180 pounds. They are mostly big, quiet fellows who will be giants when it comes to slugging the ball.

Baseball critics, after looking the team over on paper, have had a great deal to say about the new outfit.

Garvin lost his first game, but it was not his fault. He pitched a much better game than did Dilly Gray and the other pitchers.

McCrede pitched a gem, and the decision of Davis was so hot that he was hooted and howled at during the rest of the game by the home fans.

ALASKA NATIVES STARVE

CONGRESS NEGLECTS TO PROVIDE ANY REMEDY.

Deprived of Land and Game by Advance of White Men, Indians of North Are in Pitiful Plight.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, April 8.—It is in the very things that Congress often fails to do its duty. Alaska is long way off and it is hard to convince Senators and Representatives who are not in proximity to that great territory, or who do not come in direct touch with the people from Alaska that the territory needs any legislation whatever.

President Roosevelt became convinced that the distress of the Alaska natives and the situation in Alaska, to make a thorough investigation and report to him, and also to submit recommendations. Lieutenant Emmons made a very painstaking investigation and his report contained much information that had never before been presented on the subject of the natives, their wants and actual necessities.

The President's report was presented to Congress and sent to Congress with a message strongly recommending that an appropriation be made this year to relieve the distress of the Alaska natives and to give them such care in the future as would meet conditions which caused so much suffering among them.

Government inspectors of Hulla and Boilers Edwards and Fuller arrived in the city today and will remain until tomorrow evening to inspect the ships St. Nicholas and Bellin and the steamers Sea Gull, Vanguard, Colwell and North Star.
