HOME AND ABROAD

Pay Perry Conn.

Wheat is 50 cents in Salem.

Please pay Perry Conn what you owe him.

A Shakespere Club has been organized in Corvallis.

Three boys were to give an exhibition this afternoon on the streets with a trick pony.

Some one left at the DEMOCRAT office four varities of fine looking prunes.

$84,451.20 in cash was distributed among the people of Oregon yesterday.

Mr I D Miller, of Millers, threshed 2502 bushels of wheat from between ninety and one hundred acres.

A number of immigrants bound for Linn and Lane counties passed through Oconoco last week. They are from Nebraska, Colorado and Missouri.

Salem and Eugene are both kicking about the city water. In Salem they catch fish in the hydrants, and in Eugene the water is green and contains frogs.

A brother of Conductor Guthrie, while hunting pheasants near Junction last Wednesday evening, was shot by a companion accidentally and will probably die.

Several wagons arrived here today with Yaquina freight from San Francisco for our merchants. Our merchants intend staying with the Yaquina route and the teamsters.—Eugene Guard.

David Coleman now claims he was loser $750, instead of $250, as he had won $500 and that the bunco men not only refused to pay the money back but also stole $250. —Eugene Guard.

It is estimated that the Sladden fruit farm, near Eugene, will produce 200,000 pounds of green fruit this year, principally prunes. It will require quite an amount of help to place the product in proper condition for the market.

There will be services at the Congregational Church Sabbath morning and evening Rev H V Rominger of Portland former pastor will preach at 11 o'clock and Rev J W Bushong D D pastor of Centenniary M E church Portland will occupy the pulpit in the evening.

Some fine window signs and decorations have just been made for E L Power, at his Second street shop, near the DEMOCRAT office, that speak for the skill of the workmen, Collins, Young & Walker, recently of Ogden. They are in gold bronze, a fashionable color.

The citizens of The Dalles are making ing preparations for the firemen's tournament on September 4th. The prizes for two races will be $250. There will be, in addition, a big parade, a big dinner and a grand ball free to firemen. Transportation rates have been made low and Lotels at The Dalles will entertain visitors at from $1 to $2 a day.

The closing down of sawmills along the line of the Oregon Pacific has caused a large number of men to seek other employment, and not a few of them have taken gold pans and gone up the South Santiam to work, and it would seem that they were making a success of it, as from 75 cents to $4.00 a man is being taken out each day. This, considering the present hard times, is not bad.—Lumberman.

Frank Hughes of Salem and Sam Goldsmith of Portland were in the Waldo hills hunting yesterday. They didn't get much game but their team ran away three times. Defective harness caused the animals to run and the buggy was once overturned and considerably damaged The last time it was necessary to run the team into a fence to stop it, and as the fence was barbed wire the horses were considerably cut.

THEOSOPHY IN ALBANY.—Dr Allen Griffiths, Pacific Coast lecturer on Theosophy, is now in Albany and stopping at the Revere House. He is just finishing a tour of the whole coast, and has everywhere been well received by both public and press. Intelligent audiences have attended his lectures elsewhere.

Theosophy, as presented by Dr Griffiths, is claimed to be a broad, comprehensive philosophy that deals with every day affairs and the deeper questions that concern students and thinkers. Common ethics and the philosophy of life and human existence are alike considered. The former, as it appears to the masses; the latter, as problems which command the attention of philosophers. Dr Griffiths will deliver one lecture only while in this city, which will take place in the Universalist church on Friday evening, Aug. 25th, 8 p m. Subject, "Theosophy, Karma and Reincarnation. Have we lived before, shall we live again, on this earth." Lecture will be free, and all are cordially invited.

Is Marriage a Failure

Who shall decide it? We have concluded long ago that it is a success every time with Simmons Liver Regulator in the house. It promotes harmony and good nature by prevention of any attack of the blues, sour stomach, indigestion and dyspepsia, which make misery of the brightest home. You will find it a good remedy for biliousness and sick headache. It is the household friend.

M. E. CONFERENCE

The anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was held Thursday afternoon, with Mrs Rev Abbett in the chair.

Reports show 20 auxiliaries in the conference, 6 young women's societies, 4 childrens' bands. Membership, 756; amount raised, $1292.06. The department of bureau of supplies was presented by the chairman, Mrs Grannis. Miss Eva Foster, who will go as a missionary to Singapore, was introduced and spoke on "The Universal Desire for Immortality." Mrs M C Wire, secretary of the Columbia River Branch, spoke feelingly on the work of giving to missions. Dr Charles E Locke, of Portland, spoke with great feeling on women's work.

In the evening fully 800 people listened to Dr C H Payne, of New York City, on the educational side of Methodism. There was a general expression afterwards that it was one of the best if not the best ever heard in Albany. Solid with argument, sparkling with pointed illustrations, it made very plain the necessity of preparation for the ministry. There is an opinion that a man jumps into the garment of a Methodist preacher in a day; but after hearing Dr Payne one could appreciate how much the leaders in the church wish to place the standard high, so that the coming ministers in the church will be educated, bright men, who thoroughly understand their business. He did not forget the fact, though, that an uneducated Bengal tiger was better than an educated monkey, and that the golden calf was made of the material presented.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Myrtle McBride went to Salem yesterday.

J E Knox, with E Hughes, of Portland, is in the city today.

Mr Harry Craw returned yesterday from his trip east. He saw nearly everything to be seen.

E C McClain, of Athena, is in the city the guest of his son, Policeman A W McClain.

Mr and Mr F W Blumberg returned on yesterday from a several weeks sojourn at Yaquina Bay.

The Misses Gard, of Albany, and Ernest Lee, of Junction, are visiting the family of C H Ralston.—Lebanon Advance.

Miss Strahan, daughter of Hon R S Strahan, came over from Albany today to visit with Miss Lella Purdy.—Corvallis News.

Prof Lee is tenting on S N Steele's place between Albany and Millers, a delightful place for that purpose. Prof Howland is spending today with him.

Senator Alley, of Lane county, was in the city yesterday on his way to Eugene from Florence, coming by way of Yaquina. He is opposed to an extra session of the legislature.

Mrs W F Cody and daughter, of North Platte, Neb., are in Portland. Mrs Cody is the wife of (Buffalo Bill) and is making a tour of the Pacific coast. She has relatives in that city and vicinity.

Rev Hawes and wife of Portland, Miss Lillie Robertson, of Tacoma, and Miss Ina Robertson, of Waitsburg, returned yesterday from their mountain trip, greatly benefitted by their many pleasant experiences.

On a Conservative Basis.

OWING to the present monetary stringency and during the existing condition of the financial market, I find it compulsory to run my business on a very conservative basis. Sugar, as you are aware, is handled on a very small margin of profit; so small in fact to scarcely pay for the handling of it, and the terms upon which it is bought are very strict (cash only.) While money was plentiful and collections good, I was able to allow sugar bills to run 60 days; but conditions at present are such that I will sell sugar for cash only. I assure you I was very reluctant to make a rule of this kind, but the conditions of the market are such as to make it imperative. Trusting you will look at this in the proper light and also understand that this rule applies generally.

NEW YORK LETTER.

NEW YORK, August 18th, 1893.

Congress is looked upon as the Good Samaritan, to lead us out of the present critical position, and the repeal of the Sherman law is demanded by the people of the industrial parts of the union.

It looks very much as though, Tammany Hall would lose the support of the ever active, New York World. The arrival of Colonel Jones of Missouri, with authority from the proprietors of the World, giving him full management of the paper, caused quite a murmer among the politicians of the city. It is a well known fact, that Colonel Jones is a bitter enemy of Hill, Murphy, and the rest of the machine, and it is probable that the Cleveland wing of the democracy, may have the World as its champion, in the near future. Should the World antagonize the state machine, it will be a great loss to the Hill-Tammany wing of the democratic party. Those who know Colonel Jones, either personally, or from his connection with the well known St Louis Republic, say that when he organized a fight against a political combination, he is a "sticker" and cannot be freightened from his position by threat or bluster.

One of the oldest localities in New York is known as the old "Ninth Ward," formerly called Greenwich Village. Some of the oldest and best citizens of the city, have, and still reside within the boraders of the Ninth. Of course it is not unusual for a wedding to be celebrated in this ward, but last week, society in old Greenwich village turned out in force to attend the event of the happy marriage of John Seebeck and his first love, Tillie Ducker. Neither party in this contract, is an ex-Mayor or even an alderman, but the importance of the happy event is demonstrated in the fact, that the happy pair have contemplated the momentous move for thirty-five years. The affectionate groom is in the sixth decade of his existence, and his buxom bride's age runs the sum total up to 105 years. A large and joyous gathering of Ninth warders, found their way to the home of the couple, and extended their congratulations to the newly wedded but almost forever courted bride. The groom is a prosperous business man, and is building a house for his bonny bride, and after a short honeymoon he will join the married men of the old American Ward. Although it took them almost half a century to solve the problem, "is marriage a failure," they have courted faithfully, during the long wait for the happy day on which the knot was to be tied.

It is very unusual for the thriving citizens of the metropolis, to witness the desent of a balloon in the streets of the city. The other evening as the working people were on their way home from their daily toil, a large and seemingly unmanageable balloon was seen flying through the air overhead. Thousands of people gathered in the streets and on the house tops, to witness this most novel sight. The balloon is one in which Professor Carton, the French military aeronaut, has been making ascensions and parachute descents from Eldorado. Unusually when these feats are performed the balloon is anchored to the ground, but the cable connected with the anchor snapped and the gallant Professor found himself floating high over towards the New York side of the Hudson river. When about midstream he unfastened his parachute and droped 1000 feet into the waters of the Hudson. Small boats were waiting for the Frenchman and he was landed not any the worse after his rough experience. The balloon however, met with a very different accident. After blowing across the river it started rapidly to descend and finally landed on the roof of the New York Skin and Cancer Hospital. With much difficulty it was removed to the police station, where it was claimed by the famous French aeronaut.

As was predicted the New York ball team has passed their rivals from Brooklyn, and Johnny Ward's gallant boys are making a lively fight for supremacy.

MISFITS.

The overland now has its hands full attending to business. It really cannot keep up with the procession.

The press of Oregon almost to a unit opposed the extra session, and they did it in the interest of the people and because they love Oregon.

Talk about times being hard. At least $2500 was spent here yesterday at the circus and their gambling games.—Eugene Guard

Last evening on First street about sixty men discussed, or listened to a discussion on the subject of Spiritualism. At times the contest became decidedly hot.

A good many farmers say that notwithstanding the low price of wheat they will sell at least enough to pay their current debts. This will put considerable money in circulation, and with hop and other money should be the means of enlivening matters considerably. The Oregon City Express says: In spite of the stringency in the money market and the uncertainty which exists concerning the future it is not without its bright side, since the soil and climate of the Willamette valley have again redeemed their promise and returned a bountiful harvest to the tiller of the soil who, now that he is gathering his crop, finds that in most cases it is one calculated to make the owner glad.

THE VERDICT is unanimous that Will & Stark carry the best line of silver ware in the valley. They have the variety and quality, a combination that counts in buying goods. An inspection always carries conviction.

A WATCH is a necessity nowadays. If you want one call on Will & Stark, whose stock is large and varied, and prices the the most reasonable. They can give you a bargain in this line as well as in jewelry generally
