Coming Events.

Dec 22 —Nevada, by local talent.
Dec 25 to 30—Carnival of Nations

THE O P.—Matters seem to be working in the interest of the laborers on the Oregon Pacific. Mr Mulcahy has resigned as superindent and Mr Hadley will resign as receiver provided the sale is not confirmed, and it will not be. This was the situation as given Mr Earnes last evening. Charles Clark is the choice of the employes for receiver and will probably be appointed by Judge Fullerton. An examination of the books and accounts of the receiver was made yesterday and a report will be made at a mass meeting of employes in the city tomorrow.

The investigation made by the employes committee and attorney have revealed some pieces of extravagance that were outrageous in a business sense. The items in Mulcahey's bills for expenses are ridiculous as well as serious. For entertainment and such matters they run about $300 per month. He charged for nearly everything even the daily creasing of his pants may be hidden in some of the items. "Entertainment" is the prevailing squib, and it is possible the road under these heads paid for the balls the fellow was constantly attending through the valley. One interesting item is $285 for private detective services. No wonder he resigned, and the sooner he leaves this part of the U S, the better it will be for him as well as the community. He was quite a meteor while he lasted; but what a sizzle there is now. The bills of Hadley and others are as extravagant, and shows that they were playing the game for all that was in sight. The books only show that Hadley drew $2,000 on salary, that in the first eleven weeks, and Gest $900 and $1,000 for expenses, but the general expense account of the former was sufficient to keep the wolf from the door.

There is considerable doubt as to the responsibility of purchasers obtaining a confirmation of settling the current debts. The public are getting tired of speculation anyway.

WELL PRESENTED.—The popular comedy Nevada was presented last night to a fair audience in perhaps the best manner by any amateur play for some time. The actors were all well sustained. If the DEMOCRAT were to offer any criticism it would be that the parts of Jube and Win were made too conspicious at two or three epochs in the play when they should have been in the background. Both though were well taken. Mr Herman Swart Dale rarely having an equal among amateurs in the darkey role. He was "immense" Mr A Chamberlin filled the difficult part of Rook with a splendid conception of it; Mr Blodgett as Vermont, Hugh Fisher as Garew, Percy R Kelley as Dandy Dick, Jr Swart as Silas Steel and Fred Fisher Helen, displayed excellent talent. Miss McFarland excelled as Mozelle and Miss Risley as Agnes Fairlee and Laura Dumont as Mother Merton were good. The play will be repeated tonight and serves a good house. A five round boxing contest between Jube and Win Kye will be the entertainment.

LINN COUNTY COUNCIL.—At a meeting here, on last Wednesday the Linn county council passed resolutions asking that a dividend be declared by the Linn County National Bank and that the school superintendent make an apportionment. The resolutions have already been answered. Dividend has been declared and an apportionment made. The council elected the following officers: John Bryant president; J Lewelling, vice president; J B Smith, secretary; J G Holf, treasurer; B H Irvine, chaplain; E H Denton, lecturer; J Clem, sergeant; E R Bilyeu, doorkeeper; B H Irvine, asst. doorkeeper; Delegates to Alliance, J Clem and T M Holt.

PROBATE MATTERS.—In the estate of J McCulloch, final account was filed and hearing set for Feb 5, 1894.

In the estate of Alexander Downing, final account was filed and hearing set for Feb 5th.

In the estate of L A Sorfling, inventory and appraisement filed: real estate, $1,000; personal property $20. Citation ordered issued.

In the estate of Andrew Vail, will admitted to probate. Alva E Vail executrix.

In the estate of Jos L Dickson, will was admitted to probate, with Frank Propst as executor. Bond $4,000.

Monday will be Christmas, one of the two holidays the DEMOCRAT always observes; hence there will be no paper on the evening of that day.

A couple of years ago a suit was brought on a quo warranto to dissolve the charter of the Oregon Pacific. It is said this will now be revived by the certificate holders.

Geo Caldwell, aged about 19 years, was yesterday taken to the penitentiary for life, having murdered a man last June. His father, Chris H Caldwell, was sent up for life in 1887, for killing a man

The regular meetings of Safety Lodge No. 13 A O U W, coming on Christmas and New Years nights, through a dispensation granted by the D G M will be held on the Tuesday nights following.

The DEMOCRAT was right. The Albany dispatch of Wednesday to the Oregonian causing so much indignation, was sent by the O P Management Mulcahy did it himself, so the Oregonian says.

An Albany man who advertised for a hired girl in the DEMOCRAT received an answer from a Salem girl, who demanded his geneology before she would come here. Fortunately the ad had recently secured one.

Oregon is to be heard from in aereal navigation. A C Speer of Josephine county, has a ship made of aluminum that is to carry 1000 pounds. Fans at each end will be propelled by electricity, from storage batteries.

In the Chinese conspiracy trial the taking of testimony was completed yesterday and argument begun. Judge Bellinger announced from the bench that in the case of defendant Glen G Holman he would set any other verdict than "not guilty" aside.

The usual Christmas exercises of the Baptist Sunday school will be observed on Monday evening, the 25th, and will be preceded at 7:30 by a most unique and impressive program, to be rendered by members of the primary and intermediate departments assisted by others, in which a Tom Thumb Santa and his cheery little wife will bear a prominent part. Principal features of decoration will consist of an evergreen pyramid overhung by an arch.

A traveling man from the east yesterday afternoon, after seeing the large collection made by the students of the public schools for the poor, said he was thinking of removing to this coast, and if he did, he would certainly locate here. He was quite enthusiastic on the subject and remarked that the right kind of people resided in Eugene. He bought three dollars worth of groceries and ordered them delivered to the room.—Guard.

PORTLAND, Ore, Dec. 23.—After being out sixteen hours jury in conspiracy cases report disagreement judge ordered further deliberation.

WONDERFUL CAVE.—There is a cave in Josephine county which is more wonderful than many of the readers of the DEMOCRAT are aware of. 600 chambers have already been explored, the largest being 300 feet in diameter. In the "Lord's Supper chamber" there is an almost perfect fac-simile in limestone of the famous painting. "The fairy chamber" is in a stratta of California diamonds. The "tornado chamber" is visited by a wind storm every 24 hours. In the "rain chamber" there is a perpetual drizzle, and the "steam chamber" is constantly filled with steam from an undiscovered source. A coffin resting on stalagmites is the feature of the "death chamber," and the "bridal chamber" is ornamented with a solid stone four-post bedstead—unoccupied. Then there is "Sullivan's chamber," so called because of a mighty arm and fist pendant from the ceiling (this chamber is quite near the mysterious wind orifice,) and others too numerous to mention, much less to describe. An effort is being made to have one of the chambers reproduced at the midwinter fair.

HOLIDAY CROCKERY.—I am closing out my stock of fancy crockery. I do not intend to carry such goods longer and have put a price on my stock to sell it. S E Young.

PERSONAL

Mrs C O Lee went to Corvallis this noon.

Geo Fish and wife came over from Corvallis today to spend Christmas.

W B Scott, of Lane county, a former Chief engineer and City councilman, is in the city.

Hugh Bellinger, a son of Judge Bellinger, of Portland, is in the city the guest of Mrs Dana Burmester.

F B Vaughn, the deposed O P agent at San Francisco, is in the city. He is after Mulcahey's scalp.

Mr and Mrs W Chandler will occupy one of the residences belonging to Chas House, on 4th street, which is now being put in readiness.

W R Blain went to Lebanon this afternoon, and will preach in the M E Church South tomorrow morning.

Mrs S S Train and little daughter, of Albany, are visiting at the residence of G M Whitney.—Eugene Guard.

Dr G A Whitney is lying dangerously ill at the Bay. The grip is very prevalent and quite severe on the Bay this winter.

Mat Stanley, formerly of the Albany base ball club, is also playing with the San Francisco club. He caught on Monday in the game against Boston.

Mr Chester Skeels returned this noon from near Portland where he had been on account of the death of his brother, Harvey Skeels, who died from a paralytic stroke on the 13th.

J W Rayburn, formerly of Corvallis, has just been elected city attorney of Whatcom, on a salary of $1800 per annum and polled more votes in the race than both of the opposing candidates combined.

Wm Stields, Albany's lapidary recently cut a large water agate with as much skill and precision as is done by the by the best metropolitan lapidaries. This is something few can do well.

Ed Long, who has been acting as janitor for the Y M C A for several weeks was examined last evening by Dr Ellis and declared insane. He was taken to the asylum today by Marshal McFeron. Long has been there twice before. His insanity is of a temporary nature.

Speaking of the wedding of Alex Rennie and Miss Cecil Taylor, of Corvallis, in this city, the Times says: It was not a conventional affair, in that the parents of the bride were not awire that the expected event was to happen so soon; but for all that they extended the popular couple a warm welcome on the latter's arrival in town early Saturday morning.

Percy A Young and Carlton Sox arrived in Albany this morning from Stanford University, and will spend their vacation here. There were about thirty other Stanford Students on the train, among others being the famous Stanford foot ball team, eighteen in number. They will play with Tacoma on Monday, with Port Townsend during the week and with Portland on New Years, and will probably win every contest.

An interesting social event of the week was a progressive hearts party given by Mr George Washburn at the home of his parents on Wednesday evening. The first prize was won by Orsena McFarland and the booby prize by Miss Alita Arrick. The lunch was also a hearty one. Those present were Misses Mary Cundiff, Nona Irvine, Ora Flinn, May Pollock, Mollie Luper, Pearl Vance, Josie Laselle, Stella Porter, Maud Crosby, Marguerite Hopkins and Alita Arrick, and Messrs Emil Ewert, Walter Peacock, Claud Yunk, O McFarland, Realto Weatherford, Roma McCulloch, Orville Dinwiddie, Will Campbell and George Washburn.

MISFITS

"The Turn of the Tide" is the title of a drama to be produced at Toledo by local talent during the holidays. "I'll tear your quivering heart from your bosom and cast it to the fishes of the sea," is a powerful passage hurled at the leading lady by the villian.

The cat with nine lives is hardly surpassed by a boy at the Dalles. His name is Clemens Wetle. He commenced by breaking his leg in three places. Shortly afterward a horse stepped on his foot, cutting off his big toe as neatly as a biscuit cutter cou'd have done it. Last summer he was badly powderburned, while investigating its explosive power, with other children. A few days ago a mule kicked him in the abdomen. Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock he was shot in the stomach with a 32 caliber bullet, and still lives. The bullet went in and came out again without lacerating the internal organs.
