Dever Notes

DEVER, June 26.—Special.—Many Deverites went to Albany last week to see "The Heart of Humanity."

Mrs. Hanchett, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Leder and baby and Mr. Summers and family motored over from Corvallis Sunday to spend the day at the home of Carl Ede.

R. V. Foreman and family and Mrs. Mary Scarborough spent the week-end at Amity visiting C. C. Foreman and wife.

Ernest Bernard and family drove up from Donald to spend Sunday at the J. H. Batdorf home. Beth and Wilfred Batdorf returned home with them.

Roy Batdorf motored from Salem Sunday morning to visit relatives in Dever.

Elmer Wooldridge of North Albany visited in Dever Sunday.

Ted and Frank Jones spent Sunday in Portland attending a union meeting.

Chas. Jones of Portland visited his parents here Sunday and returned to Portland Sunday evening.

Clem Sarff spent a few hours here Sunday. The remainder of the day was spent in Salem as his father is quite ill. Mrs. Sarff stopped off at Dever and visited her parents.

J. A. Jones bought a Fordson last Saturday.

Quite a number of Deverites spent the day at Talbot Sunday at the Sunday school rally.

D. T. Butler is getting to be champion croquet player. He has a close rival in his son, Rexter.

Miss Effie Asche went to Woodburn Sunday evening.

The Salvation Army drive was a great success in this community as most all were willing to help what they could.

Sodaville Sparklets

SODAVILLE, June 26.—Special.—Vern Morgan and wife of Albany spent the weekend with relatives here.

Miss Grace Bridges of Portland arrived last Friday for a short visit with her parents.

Charley Snider, who has contracted to cut 300 cords of white fir wood for the Lebanon paper mill, has about half of the wood cut and is now having it hauled by truck to the mill from the hills south of this place.

Several Tangent people enjoyed an outing here last Sunday. Among them were the following citizens and their families: Rev. Mr. Turner, Chas. and Wm. Jenks.

H. D. Klum returned today from Ellensburg, Wash., where he went last Friday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Eliza Longmire, who died at her home there June 19.

A representative of the Hazelwood Creamery Co. was here Monday making arrangements to send an auto to this community twice a week to get the farmers' cream and eggs and supply them with groceries, fresh meats, etc., for their tables.

T. J. Coyle, road supervisor for this district, was in town Monday trying to hire hands to work on the roads west of town. On account of the busy time among the farmers and the higher wages paid by private individuals than is paid by the county for road work, Mr. Coyle is experiencing no small difficulty in hiring the necessary road workers and is considering resigning his office.

Lebanon Locals

LEBANON, June 26.—Special.—Dr. J. R. N. Bell of Corvallis preached here at the Presbyterian church Sunday both morning and evening. Rev. J. J. Canoles is representing the Lebanon church at the annual meeting of the world's reconstruction congress which has been in session at Seabeck, Wash., for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Laura Dotson and her daughter, Mrs. Floy Cox of Portland, arrived here Wednesday for a visit with the Rev. Alfred Connett family. Mrs. Dotson is a cousin of Mrs. Connett and the two ladies had not seen each other for more than 50 years when their homes were in Cynthianna, Ind.

Misses Beuna and Mabel Temple left a few days ago for a trip to British Columbia and other points of interest in the Northwest. On their return Miss Beuna will enter the normal school at Ellensburg, Wash., for a six weeks' teachers' training course. Miss Mabel is a Salem teacher and Miss Benna will have charge of the third grade in the North Lebanon school.

Miss Grace Fitts, who has had charge of the domestic science department and chemistry department in the high school during the past year, left Wednesday for her home in Corvallis. She has been engaged to teach again next year.

Superintendent James E. Dunton, who has been at the head of the Lebanon schools for the past three years, shipped his household goods yesterday to Molalla, where he and his family will reside.

Miss Susie Frye and Miss Florence Schnedaker went to Monmouth today to enter school for the regular six weeks summer course.

Visiting Brother—
S. S. Rohrbough of Portland is here visiting his brother, G. W. Rohrbough.

Diamond Performance Raises Diamond Adjustments to Fabrics 6,000 Miles
Cords 8,000 Miles

Diamond Tires have been rolling up such big mileage that we have marked up our adjustment figures to be fair and square with what our tires are doing.

Diamond users, old and new, share in this plus adjustment mileage. It extends to all Diamond Tires on cars, or in the hands of dealers.

Fix the new adjustment figures in your mind. They are another proof of this famous tire fact: Diamonds are the User's tires.
