RYDERWOOD FORFEITS GAME TO BEAVERTON

Washington Coach Wants to Put In University Player on Eleven

NOTICE

Save your Ryderwood tickets for the Forest Grove Game Armistice Day, November 11, at Beaverton. Outsiders, unable to attend this game may redeem their money by presentation of tickets at Superintendent's office.

The football game scheduled for Friday, October 18, at Beaverton was forfeited by Ryderwood giving Beaverton a score of 2-0. The reason was two-fold.

First, at three o'clock, the time scheduled for the game to begin only eight Ryderwood players had arrived in Beaverton, five of which were substitutes. The game was delayed in hopes that the rest of the team would arrive. They had left their home city in two cars ahead of the Ryderwood coach who accompanthe first eight players. Finally Halloway, the Ryderwood coach, forfeited the game to Beaverton, and borrowed two Pacific University players who happened to be present and John York from Beaverton, in order to start a scrimmage to satisfy the spectators, who had become impatient. One quarter was played during which time Beaverton pushed over a touchdown and was leading 6 to 0. At this time the delayed Ryderwood players arrived, all in one car, reporting that the other car had broken down enroute. Halloway reported to Warren that he had enough players to continue the game now as a real one. However, he wanted to let one of the P. U. players, who so far had been the star of the game, continue playing. The request was refused by Beaverton and Ryderwood wolked off the field.
