LOCAL BREVITIES.

A mask ball will be given at M. V. Bilyeu's hop yard on February 13.

Mayor Ewing is considerably under the weather now-a-days. An abcess on the breast is the trouble.

F. M. French, the jewler of Albany has something new in engagement and wedding rings, make a note of this, boys.

Hon. T. T. Geer, official messenger of the Oregon Electoral college, left Salem, last Saturday for the Washington, D. C.

WANTED—Any one having Early Rose or Beauty of Hebron seed potatoes for sale, can find a buyer by writing to S. W. Gains, Scio, Oregon.

The course of Representatives Smith and Munkers is generally applauded by populists in this locality and also in other parts of the county.

A great many hop contracts are being made by Marion and Polk county growers. 9 and 10 cents per pound are the prices generally mentioned.

G. W. Neal of North Salem, died at his home, last Sunday morning, aged about 80 years. Mr. Neal came to Oregon in 1844. He was one of Salem's prominent citizens and was highly esteemed.

Hon. W. S. Vanderburg is at the capital city, consulting his political friends relative to his congressional contest. He will go to the national capital in a few days to prosecute his claims to that office.

Articles of agreement have been entered into by a number of our citizens, binding themselves to operate the creamery. This will insure the farmers prompt payment for their milk and place the creamery on a paying basis, at least to the farmers.

The Albany Democrat has information of a character to indicate that there is a good deal in it, that the O. C. & E. will be extended to the Deschutes river this year. Preliminary steps are being taken that make this report very plausible, and of a character to satisfy one that the road is to be extended.

The progressive ladies of Westfield, Ind., issued a "Woman's Edition" of the Westfield News, bearing date of April 3, 1896. The paper is filled with matter of interest to women, and we notice the following from a correspondent, which the editors printed, realizing that it treats upon a matter of vital importance to their sex: "The best remedy for croup, colds and bronchitis that I have been able to find is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For family use it has no equal. I gladly recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by

The stockholders of the Albany, Lebanon, Sodaville & Waterloo Railroad Company held a meeting Saturday, Jan. 16th, and elected M. W. Wilkins, as president, W. B. Gould, vice-president, A. H. Freerksen, Secretary and S. W. Gould as treasurer. A code of by laws was adopted, and other business was transacted. It is the intention of the company to press forward the completion of a railroad between Albany and Waterloo, via Tangent, Lebanon and Sodaville. Considerable grading has already been done, a force of men are constantly at work on the same and the work is rapidly moving forward.

About 3 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, says the Oregon City News, Albert Gantenbein, who is employed in the dyeing room of the Oregon City woolen mills, was putting some wool into one of the dye vats, when he accidentally slipped and fell into the large caldron and was immersed up to his waist. Joe Brunner, the boss dyer, at once went to the boy's aid, and in doing so was badly scalded about the arms. The water in the vat contained all the acids used in dying and was heated to 175 degrees. In falling in the vat young Gantenbein's head became entangled in some of the wool in such a manner as to partially screen his face from the boiling dye. The scalding was so serious that he died at 2 A. M. Friday morning. The funeral was held to day Rev. Rugg officiating.

The body of the watchman of the steamer "Gypsy" who disappeared from the boat several weeks ago at Corvallis, has been discovered.

Mrs. J. S. Morris went up to Sodaville last Saturday, to visit with the girls for a spell and imbibe the health giving mineral spring water.

It is announced that President Elect McKinley's policy towards the Cubans will not differ materially from that now pursued by President Cleveland.

Deputy Sheriff Munkers went over to Albany last Thursday evening to make returns on the tax executions he has been quite busy lately in serving.

The body of George Jorgenson, drowned in the Santiam Sunday, was recovered on Tuesday. The remains were embalmed and sent to California for burial.

Several tramps have been in and around town for several days. Scio is seldom visited by these knights of the road, on account of being a little remote from the regular lines of travel.

There will be a K. of P. excursion from Albany to Corvallis and return, next Saturday evening. A good number will go from this place if the train will return as far as Munkers on the following morning.

Ed. Catterline went down to Salem, last Saturday, to assist in organizing the legislature. Ed thinks it wont do to allow a few crazy pops to run things in such a high handed manner, as was the case last week.

Senator Johnson came up from his legislative duties at Salem last Friday, to spend a day or two in cultivating the acquaintance of the new boy and incidentally to give his business affairs some attention.

Camp No 211, Woodman of the World is making elaborate preparation for its installation on the 28th inst. Quite a lengthy program will be rendered followed by a supper etc. We will publish the program in full next week.

The Free Methodist church of Lacomb, Linn county has incorporated. The church will purchase land and other property, erect church buildings and make any other necessary improvements. The value of the property on hand is placed at $750. John M. Flaugher, David S. Myers and Herman Preever are the trustees of the church.

In the estimation of the Albany Herald, a legislative minority has no rights the majority ought to respect. What a pity it is that the Herald's quill driver was not the maker of the Oregon constitution. If that was the case, every mothers son of these crazy pops would be placed in durance vile, for daring to oppose the ring methods of the majority party.

Our city fathers should amend the ordinance relating to the taking up and the posting of estrays. A country horse, cow or hog, that enters within the city limits is liable to be taken up and sold before the farmer is aware that his animal or animals are not within his enclosure as usual. Farmers would no doubt willingly pay the trifle that it would cost to publish the estray notice in the coulums of the PRESS, rather than have their stock sold on a five days only notice, posted in an obscure locality, and a larger bill of costs attached in consequence. By all means give the owners a reasonable opportunity to recover their stock, before disposal at public sale is made. It is but what in justice they should have.

As Firm As Rocks.

The lock up of the Oregon legislature still continues. As we go to press there are no indications that organization will be effected, as both sides appear to be stubbornly determined and not willing to concede any thing demanded by their opponents. Each side appears to think that it has the whip hand of the other and so long as this feeling prevails, no organization will be effected. Rumors are rife that there is an attempt to break the ranks of the combine, with the use of money.

Albany and vicinity populists have at a public meeting, passed resolutions endorsing the course of Representatives Smith and Munkers.

Social Entertainment.

The young people of the Devaney neighborhood have been for some time preparing and rehearsing the drama "Better than Gold" and on next Saturday evening will produce the same at the Devaney school house. The drama will be followed by the exceedingly laughable farce "Jumbo Jum." A small admittance fee will be charged, with which to pay the necessary expenses. The play is given just for the enjoyment of those who attend. Everybody is cordially invited.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Surprise parties as a rule are productive of much enjoyment to both the surpri ers and the surprised, and the surprise tendered to the K. of P. last week by the mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of the members of this chivlric order, of this city, proved to not have been an exception to the rule. On Tuesday evening of the 12th instant, was installation night of Leonidas lodge. At about 8:30 o'clock the lodge became aware that there were strangers at the outerdoor in great numbers, none of whom appeared to have the necessary password to gain admittance. Chancellor Commander Shelton ordered the goat secreted so that the visitors might not become frightened at the grotesque appearance of his goatship and then declared the lodge at ease and the visitors admitted.

The ladies and invited guests were greeted by the clapping of hands by the Knights. The column advanced to the C. C's, station, when Miss May Myers in a few well chosen words after paying a tribute to the order, disclosed their plans and intentions in making the visit. Chancellor Commander Shelton replied in an eloquent and happy manner in the following words: "Ladies take seats."

Miss Myers in stating the object of the visit said that they had a short programme prepared, which was now called for and was as follows:

Music,—solo and chorus "Silver Bells of Memory," guitar accompanyment.

Instrumental music,—K. O. T. M. mandolin club.

Recitation, "Nobody's child"—Miss Frankie Claxton.

Music, solo—Miss Ella Smith.

Recitation—Miss Rose Mespelt. Her selection was received with a prolonged encore and she responded with another in which she exhibited considerable elocutionary ability.

Music, chorus—"Good Night."

Tables were now placed in the hall and were soon decorated with a most elegant lunch, with a hot coffee accompanyment. The way in which the Knights sailed into the good things, would indicate that they knew full well what to do when invited to "lay to."

When the tables had been cleared away, a short season of social enjoyments were introduced with a grand march, in which all participated, after which games, plays, etc., were indulged in till a late hour. The occasion was a very enjoyable one and Leonidas Lodge No. 95, would gladly have the dose repeated whenever the ladies feel disposed to do so.

A Pleasant Affair

One of the pleasant events of last week was the celebration of the twenty fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mespelt, at their home three and one-half miles Southwest of Scio. Many relatives and invited guests were present; also their entire family, with the exception of Miss Anna, who is a student at the Chicago Theological University. The day was spent in social converse, interspersed with music and elocution, until 4, P. M., when a bountiful dinner was served in Mrs. Mespelt's hospitable way, of which all feasted sumptuously.

The guests remained until the shades of eve began to gather, when they departed, wishing their host and hostess many happy returns of their wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Mespelt were the recipients of a number of silver pieces.

(CORRESPONDENT.)

Drowned In The Santiam.

George Jorgenson, who resides with his brother near the Santiam beyond Knox's Butte, was drowned yesterday in the river opposite the farm of C. C. Harmon. His elder brother Charles, was on the bank as George rowed the boat towards the shore. A snag was struck and the boat upset. At the place the water is deep and there is a whirling current. He was thrown under the water and sinking out of sight after a short struggle was swept down stream and out of sight. The brother on the bank was unable to do anything to assist the drowning man and had to see his brother go to a watery grave. An effort was made to recover the body, but it had not been found when the scene of the drowning was last heard from.

The deceased was about twenty years of age and was a sturdy, hard working young man.—Democrat.

A Cure For Lame Back.

"My daughter, when recovering from an attack of fever, was a great sufferer from pain in the back and hips," writes Louden Grover, of Sardis, Ky. "After using quite a number of remedies without any benefit she tried one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and it has given entire relief." Chamberlain's Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. Sold by A Not Bad Scheme For Ab.

I read in the Christian Standard that Miss A. M. Fritz, Station A, St. Louis, Mo., would give an elegant dinner book worth 25 cents to any one sending her ten 2 cent stamps. I am forty-seven years old, I guess that I choose it for my friends, and can be ready in two hours, taking all recipes for the season. The book seems to be universally necessary. It could also be sold in the club for cooking school, being held in place by a hook on the back. The agent is selling one that housekeepers have made for over about seven years, first introduced. Any one can get a sample spoon by sending ten 2 cent stamps to Miss Fritz. This is a splendid way to make money, and honest.

Mary This Girl Quick.

I saw in your paper that a 12 year old girl made $5 a day the first day he worked selling the Perfection Metal Tin Lamnwick. I ordered a sample and went to work and the first week I cleared $18, the second week I cleared $15. I expect to run on to $25 a week in the near future as the Perfection Metal Tip Lamnwick makes such a beautiful white light and does away with smoke, chimneys and bad odor as I supposed, it is easy to sell. If you want to try it send 15 cts and stamps to Miss A. M. Fritz, station A, St. Louis, Mo., and she will send you sample outfit. This is a good way to make money around home.

Your house is incomplete without it, and the price is within reach of all. I ordered one for myself and found it so handy and convenient I went to taking orders for them and cost $1 to one day making over $5 clear. It gives a beautiful white light, shines a never ending from coal, is lighter than oil and cheaper than candles. Sample lantern, with coal oil can for 50 cts, cost a sample, for one time my start from home.

How the Dipper Saved the Farm

Father was sick and the mortgage on the farm was coming due. I saw in the Intelligencer Advocate where Miss A. M. Fritz of Station A, St. Louis, Mo., would send a sample combination dipper for 10 two cent stamps, and I ordered one. I saw the dipper could be used as a fruit jar filler, a skim dipper, a tin strainer, a funnel, a strainer funnel, a sick room warming pan and a pint measure. These eight different uses make the dipper such a necessary article that I went to work with it and I sold at very near every house. And in four months I paid off the mortgage. I think I can clear as much as $200 a month. If you want work you can do well by selling the dipper. Miss A. M. Fritz, Station A, St. Louis, Mo., will send you a sample for 10 two cent stamps—write at once.

A Dandy Windmill, Make It Yourself.

I have a neighbor that made one of the Dempsey Windmills, and I have been watching it closely; it is the best mill I have ever seen and anyone can make one for less 5 to $10. I am going to make two home-made mills. And I see why every farmer should have a windmill when he can make it himself for so little money. The mill is durable, powerful and runs easily. Any person can get the cranks and complete directions by sending 1. Wescott & Co., 1 Dempsey St., St. Louis, Mo., and any active man can make money make more and where outfits, those not in the business, and I see no use of paying $20 to $50 for a mill, when you can make one just as good for $10.

That Wonderful Churn.

I want to add my testimony to the list of those that have used the Lightning Churn. It does all that is claimed for it; you can churn easily in one minute and get a large percentage more butter than with the common churns. I never took the agency for anything before, but so many of my neighbors wanted churns that I ordered 20 and they are all gone. I think in a year every farmer will have a Lightning churn. In fact they can't afford to be without one as they make much more butter and a good little bit of money can be made in every township selling these churns. By writing to J. F. Cisney & Co., St. Louis, Mo., you can get circulars and full particulars about the churn.

A Reader.

Marry This Girl, somebody.

I have been reading in your paper about several men and women that have been very successful selling self-heating flat irons, and I concluded I would see what a girl could do. I have worked 12 days and have sold 131 irons and I have 75 to deliver after coming all over town. Everybody is delighted with the iron and I sell one almost every place I show it, as people think they can't afford to be without one as they save so much fuel and time and don't burn the clothes. I know I can clear five thousand dollars in a year. How is that for a girl?

A GIRL.

Splendid, my girl, splendid; you are a true American girl. Anyone can get complete information about the self-heating iron by addressing J. F. Cisney & Co., St. Louis, Mo. It seems to be a winner, as everybody seems to want to be polite.
