Henry A. Leonard Confesses Bond Robbery and Gives Strange Motive.

RETURNS ALL HIS PLUNDER

Young Wall-Street Clerk Tells Astonishing Story of How Study of Crime Led Him to

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.-By the confer sion of Henry A. Leonard, a young clerk in the employ of Halle & Stieglitz, brokers at 30 Broad street, the mystery of the robbery on Wednesday last of $259,000 worth of securities from the National City Bank was cleared up today. Leonard who lives with his parents at 556 East 136th street, was arrested yesterday and kept in close confinement while the de-tectives continued their search for the missing securities, every dollar of which was recovered today.

The prisoner, who is only 24 years old and who has previously borne the reputan of an industrious and thoroughly reliable clerk, made the astounding state ment in his confession lanned and carried out his scheme of forgery not from a criminal motive, but solely to show by what a simple device the elaborate safeguards of New York banks could be set at naught. That this statement is in a measure correct is shown by the facts in the case and is the be-lief of the young man's employers by whom he was highly esteemed.

Mailed Securities to Owner.

Soon after the theft Leonard mailed a package containing $300,000 in securities to the residence of Dyer Pearl, senior member of the firm of Pearl & Co., by whom they were owned. The package was received by Mr. Pesri yesterday. To-day Leonard's father turned over to the police the remaining $59,000 in stocks and bonds, which, he said, had been found in a wardrobe in his house, where his son had said after his arrest he had se-

The culprit has for several years been transfer clerk for Halle & Stelglitz His position was one of responsibility and trust. His engagement to a young woman well known in society of this city was recently announced, and he was soon to have been married.

After he had completed and signed his confession, he said that until the moment of his arrest he did not deem it possible he could be detected.

Show Ease of Stealing.

The ambitions of the young man have been great. They led him to devote the greater part of his time not given to busi-ness to the study of law, and he would in a short time have been graduated from the Columbia Law School. He told Captain McCauley yesterday that his crime first found germination in his mind when he began to study how to make it imposfor just such a theft to be commit-He was present when Pearl hypothecated the securities u which they obtained a loan of $300,000. He Right then he determined to take advantage of his knowledge of the banking routine and obtain possession of the stock shares and the bonds which had been used as collateral. After having seen the transaction completed he went to the Hanover National Bank, where from a desk be picked up a pad of ordinary blank

Instead of using a stamp for the purpose of numbering the forged check he used an ordinary pen and red ink.

Betrayed by Rubber-Stamp.

It was not any of his crude methods, however, that brought about the arrest of the young forger. He knew that no check would be accepted by the teller of tue National City Bank unless it were properly certified. Accordingly he went to an obscure stampmaker, from whom he obtained a die such as is used by the banks in preparing for the certification of checks. It was this die which led to

After all other clues had been exhausted the detectives made a search of the city, visiting every stampmaker in each of the several boroughs. It thus came about that the description of the forger was obtained. That description was taken to Wall street and an attempt was made to fit it to some one there employed. The right clue was discovered and the man who made the stamp was taken to Wall street and identified his customer.

When the young forger gave the order for the certification stamp he directed that it should be sent to him in care of one of the local branches of the Young Men's Christian Association. The clerk who delivered the stamp to him made the identification complete. The arrest fol-

After he questioned his prisoner for some time Captain McCauley had almost concluded that it would be impossible to persuade him to make any confession. when suddenly the entire attitude of the young man changed.

"It is true, Captain," he said, "you have me right. I am the man. I got the securities from the National City Bank.

None of them has been disposed of. I will return them all. I am giad that have been captured. I have been a fool. He then made a complete statement which was taken down in writing and which he signed. To captain McCauley he said it had not been his desire at any impelled to show the fallacy of the present surface methods of banking.

His Story of the Theft Leonard told the police today that he conceived the idea of the theft some three or four months ago, and had been planning during that time to exscheme could be practiced on the banks of New York. On the 26th of September, he said, he found four blank checks on the Hanover National Bank. That was in the forenoon. Later in the same day he said he was in the corridor of the National City. in the corridor of the National City Bank, and among the men waiting in line he saw a man holding in his hand an envelope marked $300,000, 4% per cent on the envelope. He said he heard the loan clerk tell the messenthat the interest was 4°, not 414 cent. Then he said the messenger he did not.

Leonard said he told him: 'Take this check to No. 52 Wall street and hand it to the loan clerk.'
Leonard then stood opposite the CustomHouse and saw the boy take the package and come out with the securities.
Leonard said he took the securities to his Leonard said he took the securities to his house and with no delay put them in a wrapper, affixed the necessary stamp and took it to a mailbox in the neighborhood of West Ninety-second street, and mailed them to Dyer Pearl. There were, however, only $300,000 worth of securities in the package which was received safely the next day by Mr. Pearl. There was $59,000 worth of securities missing, and Leonard explained that by saying to have inclosed them all in a package by have inclosed them all in a package by mail would have made the package too bulky, and he therefore kept them out, and mailed only $360,000 worth. In this connection, it was noted by the police that only about $50,000 worth of the securities was negotiable.

It was reported today that Leonard was engaged to Miss Lulu Schrader, daughter of Park Commissioner Schrader of the Bronx Botough, Mr. Schrader said that Leonard had called at his home frequently, but that there was no engagement be-tween the young people, so far as he knew. He declared that he believed Lonard was honest, and he would aid him in any way he could.

STOCKHOLDERS DIVIDE THEIR PROFITS WITH DEPOSITORS.

Chicago People Seize Eagerly at New Opportunity to Make Money on Savings.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.-Chicago capitalists today gave to the financial world something claimed to be distinctly novel, when they opened a new insti-tution to be known as the Mutual Bank. The new institution is asserted to be the first of its kind in the counto be the first of its kind in the country, and was organized under existing laws as a bank and, owned and operated by stockholders, divides its profits equally with its depositors.

The mutual profit-sharing plan under which the new bank is to be operited contemplates sharing profits equally between stockholders and savings depositors after the usual guaranteed 3 per cent semi-annual divi-dend has been paid to savings depositors and I per cent has been distrib-uted to stockholders. This profit-sharing goes to the point where, if at any time the management of the bank desires to carry any surplus out of earnings to the profit and loss ac-count, it must be done out of the stockholders' share of profits and not from that of the depositors.

The first day's business suggests that the new departure in banking will be popular. Over 500 accounts were opened, which, it is claimed, breaks the record for one day's busi-ness in any of the local banks. The Mutual Bank is located in the center of the shopping district.

HILL ATTACKS THE JUDGE

Roasted for Accusing Gray of Partiality in Patrick Case.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 2.—The case of Albert T. Patrick, who since March 26, 1902, has been under conviction for the murder of the aged milliomaire, William Marsh Rice, in New York City, in 1900. came again before the Court of Appeals today in an aspect as remarkable as any of the previous phases of this case, which throughout has been one of the most ex-traordinary in the criminal history of this

Patrick's counsel, ex-United States Sensupport of his motion for a reargument of the case, which was decided against Patrick by the court last June by a vote of 4 to 2. In the course of this brief he points out that a son of Judge John Clayton Gray, one of the Judges of the Cou of Appeals and one of those who veted against the reversal of Patrick's convic-tion, was an Assistant District Attorney of New York County and participated in the prosecution of Patrick. On account of this relation, Mr. Hill argues that Gray should not have sat in the case, and calls attention to the fact that with-out Gray's vote the court would have stood evenly divided.

The statute provides that no Jedge shall sit in a case in which he is "interested." Mr. Hill argued that the pres-ent circumstances came at least within the spirit of the law, and that in a mat-important one.

The opposition brief of District Attorney Jerome, drawn, it is said, by the late Justice Judson S. Landon a short time before his death and filed by Assistant District Attorney Howard Gane, char-acterizes Senator Hill's comment upon Judge Gray's participation in the judgment of the court as being such as "no degree of eminence in counsel could render respectable."

"The suggestion that Judge Gray violated the proprieties in taking part in the case is as contemptible as it is impudent," the District Attorney's brief says

GOOD IDEALS THE THING

President Hadley Distinguishes Between Kinds of Success.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 2 .- Dr. Arthur Hadley, president of Yale University, in his address at the first Sunday divine service of the academic year, yesterday warned students against purposes that lead to "fraudulent ideals, bad politics and un-Christian civilization." He said: "If a man's purposes and ideals are such that he is seeking to attain them for himself at the expense of his fellow-men, they are pagan ideals. If his ideals are such that each step toward their realization means the advancement of those about him, his purposes are Chris-tian. Let us look at its application in various fields. What is the pagan ideal of sport? To win, whether you play fair or not. What is the Christian ideal? To play the game fairly for all that it is worth, and win if you can. "If we hold the former ideal, every game that we play is a training for fraudulent business, bad politics and un-Christian Purpose of the New Charges Against Rosenfeld.

POLICY-HOLDERS WANT HIM

They Ask to Have Manager of Western Life Indemnity Declared Bankrupt-Forbidden to Move Assets.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1-Individual bankruptcy proceedings were begun today against E. I. Rosenfeld, manager of the Western Life Indemnity Company, which is already the subject of much investigation on the part of the several policy-holders, and, if the new move meets with success. Rosenfeld will be compelled to testify concerning his interests in the ompany.

The involuntary bankruptcy petition against Rosenfeld individually was filed in the United States District Court by S. O. Levinson, attorney for the complainants, while Judge Kohlsatt, in the United States Circuit Court, was hearing arguments by Isaac Mayer, defending Rosenfeld, General Moulton and the insurance company against the petition for an accounting, the appointment of a receiver for the insur-ance company, and the reference of the entire difficulty to a Master in Chancery. A restraining order was issued by Judge Bethea, of the United States District Court, enjoining Rosenfeld from moving any of his assets, including his alleged contract with the defendant company, from the jurisdiction of the court. was a complete surprise to the officials of the insurance company, but was not the only one, as another bill was filed asking for an injunction restraining the officials of the company from using any of the reserve funds of the company at the proposed meeting tomorrow to pay the directors and other officials of the pany for their work in reinsuring the

It is charged in the bankruptcy petition that Rosenfeld owes more than $2,000 in judgments, held by Harriet Russell Dewey, of Brady's Bend, Pa.; Elizabeth Bock, of Brunswick, Germany, and Kate Clark, of Washington, D. C. The petition is based on an alleged act of bankruptcy which Rosenfeld is said to have commit-ted when, in September of this year, he transferred a large portion of his assets to William H. Gray, former manager of the Western Life Indemnity Company, thus preferring Gray over other creditors The petition alleges that Rosenfeld has an interest in the Safety Banking & Trus Company, of Philadelphia; that he has contracts with the Security Life & Annuity Company and the Western Life Indemnity; that he has an interest in the Mount Vernon Bank, of Boston, and that he has further secret interests in the Everett Hotel or apartment-house, in Washington, D. Tull Says Hyde Could Not Transfer Equitable Stock.

NEW YORK, Oct. I .- Transfer of the stock of the Equitable Life Assurance Society from James H. Hyde to Thomas F. Ryan was attacked in an amended plea filed Saturday with the attorneys of the society by counsel representing Her-bert G. Tull, of Philadelphia. Mr. Tull's suit was to determine the ownership of the surplus of the Equitable Society.

The amended plea states that Mr. Hyde could not give a good title of the 50 shares of stock to Mr. Ryan, because it was merely held in trust for him until he was 30 years old, which age he has not be stated of the state of the yet attained. Harold Bauer uses the Mason & Hamlin, Boston's best make, and the plano that was selected for use in our own Oregon building at for use in our own Oregon building at the Exposition, as well as other public buildings. When it comes to pianos of the highest artistic standing our house is invariably consulted, as it is a recognized fact that no house in the United States carries so many of the high-grade planos as we do. Having the only plano pianos as we do. Having the only plano exhibit at the Exposition, and our pianos having been selected by the Fair management for most of the public and state buildings, has brought us more prominently than ever before the people of the great Northwest, and this, together with the special inducements we are offering on high-grade pianos, has been the means of our placing an enormous sight of pianos throughout the territory. Two weeks remain in which you are entitled to our big cut in prices, and if you are contemplating purchasing a plano you should not fail to see us, as it means a big saving to you.

Used and Second-Hand Pianos

Our extensive sale in high-grade pianos made it necessary for us to take in exchange quite a number of second-hand planos that we have put in fine condition, and are offering them now at about one-half their real value. We also have a number of slightly used pianos that are included with the others, and you will find them ranging in price from $160 up, and every one worth twice the amount you pay for it. No one can afford to be without a piano now, and if you will call and look through our stock we are sure you will find something to please you. Easy payments if desired.
