THE CORSET

department is having an extra boom. The 50c corset in black and drab is excellent value for the money and shows it at first sight.

The 75c and $1,00 lines are extra value too.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

G. W. Simpson. of Albany, was in this city last week.

Get your pretty face on—the photographers will be here on February 18.

An effort is being made to again start the Brownsville tannery. It is well equipped for work.

An effort is being made to establish a skimming station in Crawfordsville for the Albany creamery.

By some means Nels Morgan had his shoulder dislocated last week. Dr. Cole was called and reduced the fracture.

Y. P. S. C. E. copy came in too late this week for publication as all the space on our local page had been provided for.

George Phillips who has been at home for a couple of weeks on account of sickness, returned to hi school duties in Portland Monday.

Our county court will soon let the contract to replace a bridge across the North Santiam at Gates, that was taken away by the November freshet.

Doctor Prill having located in Scio, can be found at his Office, in the building formerly occupied by Dr. Hyde. Calls promptly attended, day or night.

Mrs. Chas Johnson and daughter Pearl, who have been spending several months with relatives in this city, returned to their home in Salem on Monday.

Mr. George Sherriff, of San Jose Cal. arrived in this city on Thursday. He purposes remaining in this vicinity about one month, visiting friends and relatives.

There are some indications of spring in this locality. Early vegetation is putting forth very tiny leaves. The weather, it is hoped will soon change for the better.

Dr. Hill, of Albany, was in town on Tuesday. He was called in consultation for the second time with Dr. Prill at the bedside of Lawson Griggs. The doctors regard Mr. Griggs as being in a very critical condition.

Crawford & Harnish, the Albany photographers, will be at the Scio Art Gallery on February 18, and remain two weeks. The gallery will be open all day Saturday and Sunday and during the afternoons of Tuesdays and Thursdays.

There is great interest being manifested at the series of meetings now in progress at the M. E. church. The plain, practicable way in which Rev. Lindsey expounds the scriptures, is having effect. We notice young men talking these matters on the streets.

Mr. P. Alspaugh, of R. G. Dunn & Co's commercial agency of Portland visited our city the first of the week endeavoring to find some McKinley prosperity. Well, he left us loaded with it, we guess. As there is none to be found here now, he must have taken it all away with him.

Should the legislature effect organization after Tuesday of this week, the usual time of forty days will have elapsed before the second Tuesday after the organization of both houses. Should adjournment be taken at the end of the said forty days, a vote for United States senator cannot be constitutionally taken. This may have been one of the objects in preventing organization so long.

Live bird shooting contests have become a fad with Albany sportsmen of late. Nearly every week a match is reported in which a number of innocent pidgeons are sacrificed to demonstrate who is the better marksman and incidentally give an opportunity to gamblers and betting men to hazzard their money. The laws of our country prohibit bull, dog and cock fights and all states excepting Nevada will not allow prize fighting by men. Yet, in the estimation of nearly all, the shooting of pidgeons for mere sport is more heartlessly cruel than any of the various fights or contests mentioned. And, too, we claim to be a consistent people. Sportsmen should find some other less cruel method in which to decide who is the better markeman.

Miss Della Bilyeu, of Jefferson, is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Doc Turner has been quite sick with a spell of congestion of the lungs, but is now reported to be much better.

Dr. J. L. Hill, of Albany, called in consultation at the bedside of Lawson Griggs, was in this city a short time last Thursday morning.

Mrs. Palmer, of Albany, and mother of H. E. Palmer, of this city, came over last week and was a guest of Mrs. Dr. Prill for a few days.

T. W. Dilley is closing up his business affairs here preparatory to his removal to Corvallis where he purposes establishing a general repair business.

Charley Young spent a few days with the old folks at home last week and this. His laborious duties as a committee clerk in the state senate requiring some rest.

Considerable interest is manifested in the series of meetings now in progress at the M. E. church, under the ministrations of the Rev. Lindsey. The congregations are limited only by the capacity of the building.

The tax levy for city purposes is in Halsey 1½ mills; in Sodaville 4; in Brownsville 3; in Lebanon 4½ and in Albany 8 mills. Our levy, in Scio, is 5 mills. But while Scio owns her own light and water plants, such is not the case in any of the above mentioned cities.

C. H. Foster, of Upper Soda, is in Lebanon visiting friends. He says there is no snow at all between his place and Lebanon, and very little in the mountains. He says that a person can cross the mountains on horseback, and could have done so at any time during the winter with the exception of about two weeks in November.—Lebanon Express.

Sodaville Items.

Sodaville is all right.

President Wilkins, of the new railroad is in town.

Prof. E. C. Peery has returned from Yamhill county and has been engaged as instructor at the college.

The college has as able faculty as can be found in any similar institution, of which the following is a list: J. R. Geddes, A. M. president and instructor in languages and the science of teaching.

J. E. Love, A. M. ancient languages and geometry.

D. M. Jones, M. D., Physiology and hygiene.

Herschel Mack, B. E. L., mathematics and English branches.

J. C. Foulie, M. A., principal of the business college, commercial law and science of accounts.

J. G. McCully, B. A., bookeeping and arithmetic.

Miss Pearl Hobson, typewriting and stenograpy.

Miss Dora Altermatt, vocal and instrumental music, voice culture and German language.

J. Frederick Altermatt, drawing and landscape painting.

E. C. Peery, English branches.

B. Chesire business department.

Mrs. J. R. Geddes, principal of preparatory department—grammar, history, orthography, geography, etc. Normal students assist in the preparatory department.

Charles Newland, B. E. L., assistant in Normal Department.

Rev. M. C. Aleridge has just closed a successful meeting here. Thirty-two accessions to the church at the present writing and more for next Sunday.

Sodaville has one of the best bands in the state.

State Superintendent Irwin lectured before the college students recently. He is a favorite.

The course that Uncle Tom Munkers has pursued since he entered the legislature is approved by his constituents here. Uncle Tom cannot be bought. Let the legislature pass a reasonable appropriation bill and go home and leave out the senator business.

Mrs. Morris of Scio has been visiting us.

City Council.

City council met in its regular monthly session at the Firemen's hall last Thursday night and was called to order by Mayor Ewing. Councilmen Barnes, Gill, Daniel, Goin, Peery, Irvine and Ray (a full board) were present. Communication from A. W. Hagey applying for the position of superintendent of the electric light and water plants read and placed on file.

The committee on lights and water reported that it would cost the city about $25, to extend the light system to the residence of Dr. Prill. No action was taken on the report.

A resolution by Councilmen Daniel fixing the salary of the superintendent of the L. and W. plants at $25 per month was voted down.

Bills allowed—I. A. Munkers, filling dog $1.00; Gill & Ray repairing reel for fire department, $1.50; A. W. Hagey, salary for January $30

Sued for Settlement.

Scio had a real live genuine lawsuit Monday each side of which was represented by one of Albany's leading attorneys, all of which drew quite a crowd to the city hall. Up in the neighborhood of the Richardson bridge, T. J. Hannah owns and operates a first class flouring mill. In the same vicinity A. J. Jarnigan has a blacksmith shop. Now it transpires that each one of these gentleman has accounts running back to 1893, the one against the other. Failing to reach a settlement between themselves, Mr. Hannah commenced suit, last week against Mr. Jarnigan the trial being set for Monday in Judge Shelton's court. Witnesses for each side was called and the account books of each was submitted in evidence. It was pretty well established that each of the contestants were but indifferent and careless bookkeepers as inaccuracies were established on either side the case as submitted to Squire Shelton. He was placed in the position of arbiter with the books of each as about his only evidence. Of course the reliability of the books of either was questioned by the attorneys. as to the reliability of the account books was about equal and Justice Shelton could have rendred about as complete a verdict before as after the cause was tried. He simply had to take the accounts of each and render his decision according to that evidence. Justice Shelton balanced accounts between the contestants requiring each to pay his own costs.

The Legislature.

Another week has passed and without the legislative problem at Salem being solved. Yet it is expected that organization will be reached this week. Considerable stir was created on Monday when Representatives Bilyeu of Lane and Lee of Polk, answered to their names at rollcall in the joint convention Bilyeu as spokesman, stated that while they considered the Benson house not legally organized, he did consider the joint convention legal whenever a majority of the members (46) were present. He considered that there was important legislation to be enacted and that he for one was willing to help make a quorum in joint assembly so that the election of United States senator could be got out of the way and the house legally organized. With the aid of Bilyeu and Lee the number in joint convention could not be strained above 40, with one member not present but accounted for.

Not a bill has passed its third reading in the senate as yet, though a great many, some of which are very meritorious, are ready for the third reading and final vote, as soon as the house announces a legal organization.

The Benson house meets daily and makes a pretense of enacting legislation; which action not one of the members believe would be legal even if recognized by senate and governor. The temporary organization under Speaker Davis meets every morning and adjourns for want of a quorum, thus complying with constitutional requirements to the letter.

From latest reports, there is a prospect that organization will be reached this week; otherwise it may be the last week of the session say some of the members.

Accused Of Stealing Wheat.

On Sunday Marion county's deputy sheriff passed through town on his way to the Beaver creek neighborhood where he arrested Newt Curl and Chas Vaughn at the residence of John Foster. All returned to this city, taking dinner here, and went to Salem in the afternoon. Curl and Vaughn are accused by the grand jury of taking 12 bushels of wheat and two bushels of beans from the barn of Joseph Bilyeu, near Turner. They took the wheat to the Stayton mills and had it converted to flour. They were tracked up so closely that the flour and beans were returned to Bilyeu; but the attention of the grand jury was called to the matter and the arrest was the result.

S. M. DANIEL.

Mr. Ward L. Smith, of Fredrickstown, Mo., was troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over thirty years. He had become fully satisfied that it was only a question of a short time until he would have to give up. He had been treated by some of the best physicians in Europe and America but got no permanent relief. One day he picked up a newspaper and chanced to read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He got a bottle of it, the first dose helped him and its continued use cured him. For sale by

J. S. MORRIS & CO.

I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.—GEO. E. WOLFE, Clerk of the Circuit Court, Fernandina, Fla.
