LOCAL BREVITIES.

Haying is about at hand. Everybody is ready for a clear up.

Nearly every one will go to Lebanon to hear Bryan on July 12.

For Sale—8 to 10 first class dairy cows. Inquire of J. S. Morris.

On account of continued showers we hear reports of damaged hay crops.

It is estimated that 4000 people attended the Lebanon and 6000 the Albany celebrations.

Nice fresh eggs, brought to the creamery in first-class condition, will be paid for with cash.

It is not often that we have a months' rain in June and July, yet such has been the case this year.

Wild blackberries, which are said to be quite plentiful this year, have made their appearance in our market.

Quite a good many of our people will take advantage of the cheap rates and visit the county seat next Saturday.

E. J. Daley has about the finest garden that we have seen this year. For a mess of string beans and cabbage, the PRESS family makes its politest bow.

Doctor Prill having located in Scio, can be found at his Office, in the building formerly occupied by Dr. Hyde. Calls promptly attended, day or night.

S. C. Browne, M. D. Physician & Surgeon. Calls answered town and country, day or night. Office in residence next door to SCIO PRESS office, Scio Ore.

In order to place the latest news before our readers, yet reach the mails in time for them to have the PRESS on Saturday, we this week change publication day to Friday.

The barn of R. F. Baker, near Brownsville, caught fire recently by spontaneous combustion in a manure pile adjoining the building. The fire was put out before much damage was done.

You may hunt the world over and you will not find another medicine equal to Chamberlaine's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by EWING & PEERY.

Republican aspirants for the Scio post office had quite a missunderstanding last Tuesday. We are told that they indulged in impressive language. Go in boys it is your funeral. After 1900 you will be simply idle spectators having no part in the scramble for office that will exist then as it does today.

Perhaps the largest and most elegant collection of Alaskan curios in Oregon is that owned by Hon. O. T. Porter, collected by him during his four years' residence in Alaska as United States marshal, says the Albany Democrat. It includes all the odd freaks of workmanship of the natives of that country, unique in construction, yet neat and attractive in appearance. The collection is worth a good many hundred dollars.

PERSONAL MENTION

Oscar and Miss Myrtle Johnson of Salem, came upon Tuesday.

Virgil Johnson went down to Salem last Saturday for a few days visit with the old folks at home.

E. E. McKinney and Mr. Frost, of the Silverton Flouring mills were in this city on Tuesday night.

John Goins and family of Corvallis, were visiting relatives and friends in this city the first of the week.

A. J. Johnson and wife went to Salem Monday afternoon. A. J. is a witness in a suit before Judge Hewitt.

R. A. McCully has been engaged to teach a term of school in his home district, No. 89. He has taught one term there before.

J. S. Morris, superintendent of our creamery went to Portland Wednesday to look after creamery interests in that city.

N T. and Russell Higgins will within a few days start for a trip into Eastern Oregon. They contemplate visiting Baker City before returning.

Beecher Higgins moved to Shelburn the first of the week in order to be conveniently situated to his work—the erection of a new two-room schoolhouse at that place.

Samuel Ewing and family of Lafayette came up last Friday for a few days visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Ewing is the father of Mayor W. A. Ewing. of this city.

We see the genial countenance of our young friend Everett Parish in our city quite frequently of late. If it occurs Annamore we will begin to surmise that something is going to happen.

Thursday Johnny Goins sold his billiard parlor to Roy Hazelton, of Scio. Johnny will go to Albany today and see about working in the employ of his father who runs the Red Crown Flouring mills of that city. After about a week Johnny will come home and take his family out into the mountains for an outing, after which he will move to Albany to reside.—Corvallis Times.

Every body is ready for the weather to clear up.

The county seat is again safe from invasion of a foreign foe. Company F, O. N. G. is at home from a brief bout at soldiering.

Lebanon is to have a 16 to 1 team of horses in the parade next Monday. 16 white and 1 yellow horses will compose the team.

Two members of Albany's famous quartette of singers are to remove to Eastern Oregon. They serenaded many of the residents of Albany Monday night not forgetting the Herald and Democrat.

Thos. Townsend, one of the members of the Marion county grand jury, as soon as the jury finished its work, got drunk and was arrested by Salem's marshal. A poor example for a grand juryman. Townsend was one of the three who whitewashed Judged Terrell.

Everybody in this locality is expecting to go to Lebanon to hear Bryan next Monday. Lebanon will probably have more people within her corporate limits than at any previous time in her history. Some means should be adopted by which the actual number could be counted.

John Myers of Crabtree station, is erecting a fine large Fleckenstein fruit dryer. It will have a capacity of 170 bushels per day, and will be large enough to dry much of the fruit in his neighborhood. It is said to be one of the best dryers in the market, and is capable of drying prunes and other fruit in fine shape.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan will not be the only attraction at this place on July 12. There will be a number of speeches by prominent Democrats, a baseball game, a hub and hub race by hose teams, a balloon ascension, etc. Two steam merry-go-rounds will be on hand to accommodate those who wish to take a whirl.—Advance.

Students of the University of Oregon will still be able to gaze at the stars and wander among the planets in the manner prescribed in the college curriculum. The transit instrument which a month ago was stolen from the University was found yesterday morning by G. W. Cochran at the corner of Lawrence and Clark streets. It was placed in the gutter under the cross walk, with about a foot of the instrment showing.—Guard.

The PRESS commences its ninth year with this issue. We have constantly endeavored to improve its columns, editorially and locally that its weekly visits may be welcome. How well we have succeeded our patrons must be the judges. Our readers can favor us if they will mention to their merchant having read the merchants ad in our columns. If the ad does not appear, just ask him why it does not? Also suggest to your merchant that an ad in a news paper is an invitation for you to come and trade with him and that if your trade is not worth asking for it is not worth having, etc.

Found Guilty.

In the case of the State vs J. W. Patterson, formerly of this city, who was indicted for rape on the person of a 11-year old girl, the jury found him guilty and he was sentenced to serve seven years in the penitentiary. He was defended by Attorneys Wyatt and Bilyeu. He was taken to Salem to begin serving his time on last Friday morning getting there in time to take breakfast with his fellow prisoners.

The Bryan Excursion.

The O. C. & E. railroad will run an excursion train from this city to Albany next Monday, there to connect with a train to Lebanon arriving there in time to hear the Bryan speaking. The fare to Albany, for the round trip will be 50cents. To Lebanon and return $1.20. Tickets for sale at this office. The returning train at or about 10 A. M will be the train that Mr. Bryan will come back to Albany on, where he will probably deliver a short speech.

The Fourth.

The national birthday passed off remarkably quiet in Scio. Indeed the city wore the most deserted appearance that it has on any day since we have been a resident. From 80 to 100 of our people went to Albany on the excursion on the O. C. & E. and report a most pleasant time. Others went to Lebanon, Waterloo, Stayton and other points and report pleasant times. The day was an ideal one, without rain, cool enough to be pleasant and free from dust. Albany probably made the eagle scream louder than at any point in this part of the valley, and every one who was there from this city report the pleasantest of times. Our base ball boys though they have had no practice at all this summer, have not forgotten how to handle the sphere and won off the Philomath team in the Albany match by a score of 8 to 4. Scionns feel greatful to the O. C. & E. R. R. for running its train into town and hope that this is but the beginning of many excursions too and from the city.

A Scrap.

From appearances on last Friday afternoon in the way in which festivites were begun, we supposed that we had started in to have a real genuine old fashioned celebration, but the festivities were brought to a close too quickly to have much of a time. E. J. Daley and Wm. Young met at the Scio Reller Mills and a dispute arose between them over an old time account. As each disputatant waxed warmer abusive words were used, it is claimed by both parties and a fight resulted. As reported to us by an eye witness Daley struck at Young with a pocket knife but failed to land at the first attempt. At or about the same instant Young delivered a telling blow in Daley's face about the eye and followed it up by another one in the face and one on the ear. Daley succeeded in cutting a slight gash in Young's right arm about two inches long and a half inch deep. Hostilities were here brought to a close.

On the following morning Daley was placed under arrest and on Monday paid his fine to Recorder Shelton.

We hear good reports from Will South, he who was dragged by a wild horse last week. He is getting along as favorably as could be expected.

When Billie Savage awoke Wednesday morning, he found a fine specimen of flying squirrel in his house, which he succeeded in capturing without it being injured. He gave it to Oscar Johnson later in the day, who will take it down to the capital city.

It is getting near the time for a change of postmasters in our city. Some four years ago, next month we believe, W. A. Ewing was appointed. He serve but a few months and resigned, when our present efficient incumbent was appointed. If Mr. Shelton should hold office for the full term of four years it will be a year hence before he will step down and out; but if he was but serving out the unexpired term of Ewing, we may expect a change. Whosoever may succeed him cannot possibly be any more obliging or efficient than Riley has been and we would not be sorry to see him continue to hold the office indefinitely. But we suppose that some of our republican brethren are hankering to handle Uncle Sam's mail bags and Riley will have to give way. W. E. Savage was circulating a petition the first of the week which was being signed by nearly all of our business men and a large number of patrons of the office. Billie would undoubtedly make a first-class officer and we would not be sorry to see him secure the place.

We hear that hop lice are infesting a number of our hop yards; but with sun shine they will probably not do any great damage.

$1 For The Round Trip.

Just as we go to press we received a telegram from Agent H. L. Walden, of the O. C. & E. railroad, stating that the fare from Scio to Lebanon and return will be $1. The train will leave the foot of main street at 6 A. M.

An Official Visit.

Grand Chancellor Commander Turner Oliver of the grand lodge of Oregon, K. of P. will pay Leonidas Lodge No. 36, of this city, an official visit on Friday evening of this week. Every Knight is expected to be in attendance at the Castle Hall on that evening, as business of importance is on hand. By order of the chancellor commander.

G. A. R. Reunion.

The fourth Annual Reunion of the John A. Logan Veteran Reunion Association, will be held at Mehama commencing July 12, and lasting one week. The grounds will be open to campers from July 1. Eminent speakers have been engaged and a 6[illegible] time will be had. All old soldiers and their families should be present.

Bryan at Lebanon.

For the information of the public I wish to announce that arrangements have been completed whereby the Hon. Wm. J. Bryan will speak at Lebanon on Monday morning, July 12th at 8 A. M.

Every effort is being made by the people of Lebanon to make it pleasant and agreeable for those desiring to come and hear the great orator.

We have plenty of good camping grounds which will be free to any one desiring to use them.

Lebanon extends a cordial invitation to all.

M. A. MILLER.

[illegible] County Sup't.

Gypsies.

On M[illegible]vening some eight or ten vehi[illegible]n which were loaded he muc[illegible]alked of Gypsies and their belongings, passed through town. Upon their manifesting a disposition to camp within the city limits, Marshal Munkeas instructed them to move on, which they did, camping for the night on the Crabtree. They were a bad looking lot of people and are probably as evil in actions as looks. As they began to arrive in this city the question was asked by several "if they were not some of R. Shelton's colonists." But as Mr. Shelton confined his attention particularly closely to P. O. matters while the outfit was in town and when it left the city going towards Lebanon, it was needless for him to say "no."

The tariff bill passed the senate Wednesday night. It now goes to the House for concurrence, in which event, prosperity will commence at once. That is what our republican friends have been telling us. So we in common are expecting gobs of prosperity to be wandering about soon for any or every body to adopt.
