If you want any fruit trees, call on J. S. Morris.

Wm. Brenner is stall feeding a car load of large beef cattle.

A. J. Johnson made a business trip to Portland on Monday.

Geo. Phillips was over to Albany again this week looking after—business.

A new roof is being put on the warehouse belonging to R. E. Hibler.

Ross E. Hibler shipped a car load of potatoes to California last Wednesday.

A. G. Prill, Physican and Surgeon, Scio, Oregon. Office next door to drugstore.

Save the wrappers of Hoe Cake soap. They are worth a cent apiece. —S. M. Daniel.

The open season for killing China pheasants is past, but ducks and snipe are here to take their place.

Mrs. J. S. Morris returned last Friday from an extended visit to Eastern Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

Dr. R. H. Curl will visit Scio on Thursday, Dec. 1, 1897, and remain 10 days. Painless extraction of teeth a specialty—come early if you would avoid the rush.

Local Brevities.

Mr. Bickly shipped 25 boxes of apples to Portland the first of the week.

The work on the bank building is completed, giving it a very much improved appearance.

Little Lionel Hibler who has been quite sick for some weeks past with a disease closely allied to diptheria, is improving and will soon be well again.

Red Seal lye is absolutely pure granulated potash in sifting top cans. There is more clothes destroyed by poor soap than by actual wear, as the free alkali rots them, Hoe Cake is pure.—S. M. Daniel.

Do you smoke? If so I can fit you out. I have just recieved a fine line of pipes. Prices ranging from 25c to $3.25. Also have a fresh line of good cigars, fine candies, tobacco, etc., etc. Next door to R. E. Hibler.

Calavan Bros., stock men of this place are intending to ship a train load of steers East next Spring. They have now over 400 head of one, two and three year old steers, and expect to double this number by Spring.

Ross E. H. will have a shipment of dry goods & shoes from the East soon, having sold an unprecedented lot of goods during the past two months he is forced to re-stock in so short a time.

Lon. Young and family went up to Lyons last Saturday on a visit to relatives near that place. Later on they will visit at Mehama, and Stayton before returning to this place, after which they will return to their home at Elkton.

Chas. Chwse, living near Providence Church, this week sold to R. E. Hibler 10,000 lbs. of dried apples, for which he recieved 5½c per pound. The farmers of this community have dried a large quantity of their fruit this year, and are selling at a fair figure, beside finding a ready market with their home merchants, R. E. Hibler alone having bought over 30,000 lbs of dried apples this year.

Wm. Brenner lost some nice mutton sheep this week by miserable cur dogs. They killed 9 outright, and crippled probably twice as many more. T. J. Munkers also lost some sheep by dogs this week, four killed and three crippled. Other losses are reported from all over this section. One authority claims that damage by worthless dogs in the United States amounts to as much as the whole cost of feeding hogs in the United States.

Albany is to have one of the finest church organs in the state. The Catholic church is being greatly enlarged and wonderfully improved. A feature is a large place for a pipe organ. The organ has already been ordered and will be placed in position as soon as the building is ready for it. It will be 24 feet high and will cost $2050. On the opening day an artist from San Francisco will give the first exhibition of its powers.

Have you tried Hoe Cake? Ask for premium book.—S. M. Daniel.

The World's first figures of Cuba's starvation were timidly moderate. They showed the death of only 200,000 persons; but every painful fact unearthed tends to prove them nearly double that number. When the grim returns are all in it is now almost certain that this massacre of the Cuban innocents will reach 400,000. And this number does not include those killed in battle or the thousands of women and children who died of exposure, disease and massacre in the swamps.

A misfortune to overtake E. M. Lindsey of Scio Ferry, was to have his team drowned in the Santiam river last week. He had taken them to the river bank to water them, riding one of the animals when they became frightened and plunged into the water in spite of his efforts to dissuade them. Both horses were carried under a big drift and drowned. Mr. Lindsey had a narrow escape and the loss of his team is keenly felt.—Stayton Mail.

The owner has been looking in the river bottom for his horses this week in the hopes of finding them, for some people claimed they could easily get out, as they were swimming nicely when last seen and did not go under the drift as stated above.

Mrs. Theresa Cardosa, a well known resident of San Francisco, who died recently, weighed over 600 pounds. The undertakers had to break down the stairs of her late residence in order to lower the body into the hall. A special casket, bound with iron, was constructed for the remains, and, since it was too large for the hearse, it was taken to the cemetry in a heavy express wagon.

Mrs. Cardosa has been married twice and leaves five children.

Thorn Found Guilty.

Martin Thorn was convicted last Tuesday of murder in the first degree for killing William Guldensuppe, his predecessor in the affections of Mrs. Augusta Nack, at Woodside, L. I. on June 25. At the request of Thorn's council, the passage of the sentence was deferred till next Friday. Thorn heard the jurymen poll on their verdict, but his face never changed during the ordeal. With lips firmly compressed and jaws firmly set, he faced the judge, jury and courtroom full of spectators with well feigned stoicism.

When taken back to the cell he confessed: "I am glad it is over. I am convicted and I am contented. It was I who killed Guldensuppe, and I believe every word that Mrs. Nack said on the stand was true. When I was on the stand, I lied when telling the story I did, but I lied to clear myself. It is no use carrying it any farther. I am guilty and am resigned. It is what I expected, and what I suppose people think I deserve."

What will now become of Mrs. Nack has not been made known by the authorities, but it it is thought the court will accept a plea from her which will not call for capital punishment.

Estray.

The writ of mandate applied for by the attorneys of Durrant to compell Judge Bahrs to set a date for the trial for the murder of Minnie Williams, was denied by the supreme court this evening. This means that there will be no interference with the decree in the Lamont case, and it now looks as if Durrant will have to expiate his crimes at a date sooner than his attorneys expected.

A Vienna dispatch says that disaster still reigns in the Austrian Reichsrath. Mark Twain who was kicked out, got a rap on the head that made him see stars and things. He will turn it to good account later on however, and make some money because of it WANTED—All girls to know that Hoe Cake will not make their hands red and rough like common soap as it contains no filling or free alkali.—S. M. Daniel.

A consignment of sixty-five tierces of corned horse meat has just been sent from Linton, Ore., to Rotterdam.

The uncollected accounts of L. E Blain, of Albany, amounting to $12,000, were sold at public auction in Albany last Saturday for $250.

BILYEU—PHILLIPS—At the Exchange hotel, Albany, by Rev. Ronald McKillop, on the eve of November 30th, Michael Bilyeu and Telitha Phillips, all of Linn county, Oregon. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

Died.

HUBER—At the Exchange Hotel in Albany, on Saturday, Nov. 27, 1897, from Bright's disease, Mr. Louis Huber, of Jordan Valley, aged about 40 years.

Lewis J. Huber was born in Franklin county, Indiana, on the 27th day of August 1861, died in Albany, Linn county, Oregon, on the the 27th day of November, 1897, from Bright's disease, aged 36 years and three months.

When 5 years old he moved with his parents to Pierce county, Wisconsin, and there resided until 1877, coming from there with his parents to Linn county, Oregon, arriving here on June 17th of that year. He located near Scio, and was married to Stacy A. Shelton, in the Fall of '87, residing on a farm in Jordan at the time of his death.

To them two children were born, a boy, now living, 9 years of age, and a girl, who died on Nov. 24th, 1896.

He leaves a wife and son, father and mother, three brothers and three sisters to mourn their loss.

He was a member of Dierdorff Lodge No. 54, I. O. O. F. of Scio, Oregon, joining that order in February of this year.

He was a loving and devoted husband, a kind father, loved and respected by all who knew him. He was laid to rest in the Jordan cemetery, Nov. 29, 1897, attended by a large number of relatives and neighbors. G. L. Sutherland made some appropriate remarks at the grave, after which the Odd Fellows of Scio held the usual burial ceremonies.

THE WONDERS OF SCIENCE.

Lung Troubles and Consumption Can be Cured.

An Eminent New York Chemist and Scientist Makes a Free Offer to Our Readers.

The distinguished New York chemist, T. A. Slocum, demonstrating his discover, of a reliable and absolute cure for consumption (Pulmonary Tuberculosis) and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest diseases, stubborn coughs, pulmonary affections, general debility and weakness, loss of flesh, and all conditions of wasting away, will send THREE FREE BOTTLES (all different) of his New Discoveries to any afflicted reader of the Scio Press writing for them.

His "New Scientific Treatment" has cured thousands permanently by its timely use, and he considers it a simple professional duty to suffering humanity to donate a trial of his infallible cure.

Science daily developes new Wonders, and this great chemist, patiently experimenting for years, has produced results as beneficial to humanity as can be claimed by any modern genius. His assertion that lung troubles and consumption are curable in any climate is proven by "heartfelt letters of gratitude," filed in his American and European laboratories in thousands from those cured in all parts of the world.

Medical experts concede that bronchial, chest and lung troubles lead to Consumption, which, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death.

Simply write to T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine street, New York, giving post-office and express address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Sufferers should take instant advantage of his generous proposition.

Please tell the Doctor that you saw his offer in the Scio Press.
