DEFEATED IN THE HOUSE.

Ohio Soldier Remembered Kindly by the Author of Civil Pension Bill.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The bill for the relief of the Ohio Soldiers' Orphans Home was defeated in the House of Representatives today by a vote of 104 yeas to 107 nays. The House then took up and passed a bill for the relief of Mrs. Mary Lincoln, the widow of the author of the Civil Pension Bill, which was defeated by the House. The bill was passed by a vote of 104 yeas to 107 nays. The House then took up and passed a bill for the relief of