BY THE EDITOR

Vice President Hobert died at his home in Patterson, N. J., Tuesday morning. He had been ill for several months.

The assessment rolls of Multnomah county show eleven million dollars less property this year than they did last year, a fact that gives the Albany Democrat a chance to get in a shot at Governor Geer's Thanksgiving proclamation.

Scio now has a full fledged telephone exchange, with connection at West Scio and Munkers station, as well as with the long distance line. Scio is the smallest city in Oregon with an exchange, and the establishment of the system in this city speaks much for the enterprise and progressiveness of its business men and citizens.

Notices have been posted notifying our people of the city election which takes place on the first Monday in next month. As yet no candidates for the several positions have shown themselves, and we presume that not one will be known until the day of election. THE NEWS would like to have seen a meeting of the citizens held for the purpose of nominating a ticket that all could have voted for, and thus do away with so much ticket making on election day.

At the special meeting of the city council held on Friday evening a general health and quarentine ordinance was passed, authorizing the board of health to establish and maintain a strict quarentine against all sections where smallpox was known to exist. This step was taken to guard against the introduction of the disease in the city, as there is no cases in the city at the present time, and it is far better to prevent the introduction of it than to care for it after it gets a hold here.

From New Zealand.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896.

I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

E. J. SCANTLEBURY.

For sale by Peery & Peery.

Unwashed Shropshire wool sold at 21 cents per pound in Wisconsin this year.

A Tasmanian-bred Merino ram was sold at the last sheep show at Melbourne, Australia, for $9,500.

The value of hogs and hog products exported from the United States in 1898 amounted to $110,811,-658.

The Dallas, Or., Itemizer reports that Gardner Bros. have sold 50 bales of hops at 9 cents. John Munson, 100 bales at 8 cents and H. L. Fenton, 25 bales at 9 cents.

The North Yamhill Record says 2600 bales of hops have been stored in the S. P. warehouse at that place and there are enough yet to come in to make the aggregate 2800 bales, or about 530,000 pounds.

In Australia an elevating apron is used to carry bundles onto a stack in the operation stacking. Those who have had experience in throwing bundles to the top of a big stack will appreciate the fact that the Australian system saves some pretty hardwork.

There is no kick coming at the work done by the Salem Steam Laundry. You can send your laundry every Monday by taking it to the express office.

Arrested for Bigamy.

From Corvallis comes the news that a warrant has been issued from Justice Bryson's court for the arrest of Dr. T. K. Chapman and Jane King, alias Jane Chapman, both of Monroe, Benton county.

The complaint was lodged by T. W. Cavender, and it charges Dr. Chapman with illicit cohabitation and bigamy, and charges Jane King alias Jane Chapman, with the former offense. The complaint alleges that T. K. Chapman has a wife living in Georgia. Cavender is a son-in-law of Chapman, having married the daughter of Chapman by the first wife. He came to Oregon from Georgia last March. He says that Chapman left his Georgia wife in 1892, to take a post-graduate course in medicine in New York city; that subsequent letters of his purported to come from Kalama, Wash., where Chapman described himself as surgeon on a ship. Chapman has been for several years a practicing physician at Monroe, having served some time as county physician. He is a member and a deacon in the Baptist church.

The Rev Irl R Hicks Almanac

There is no comparison between former editions, and this splendid Almanac for 1900, now ready. Printed in beautiful colors, on much finer paper, its 196 pages are packed with invaluable information on storms, astronomy and meteorology. It is illustrated with nearly 200 finest half tones and other engravings. This superb book would sell anywhere for fifty cents, but it costs only 25c a copy, and every subscriber to Rev. Irl R. Hicks now famous paper, Word and Works, at $1.00 a year, receives this elegant Almanac as a preminm. Word and Works is a recogonized leader among the best family and scientific journals while nothing of its kind can compare with the Hicks Almanac. One dollar a year is a nominal price for such unique and useful publications. Professor Hicks has justly, and of necessity, withdrawn his storm and weather forecasts from all free almanacs, having generously given his time and labor free for nearly twenty years. Word and Works Pub. Co., 2201 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo.

The Best Christmas Gift of All.

In choosing a Christmas gift for a friend what can afford more present or lasting pleasure than a subscription to The Youths Companion? The delight with which it is welcomed on Christmas morning is renewed every week in the year. The charm of it is disclosed little by little as the months run in their course. There is no household in which it will not prove an inspiration.

Those who wish to present a years subscription to a friend may also have the beautiful new Companion Calendar for 1900 sent with it. This Calendar is a reproduction in twelve color printings of three exqui ite designs by a celebrated American artist, a member of the American Water-Color Society. In addition to this all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1899 are sent free from the time subscription is received for the new volume.

Illustrated Announcement Number containing a full prospectus of the volume for 1900 sent free to any address.

The Youths Companion
203 Columbus Avenue. Boston Mass.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back, give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by Peery & Peery.

A special session of department two of the circuit court will be held at Albany December 7th.

BY THE SCISSORS

It is reported that three hundred houses are being erected in Sumpter, eastern Oregon's boom mining town. It takes a ladder to reach the top of rents.

The American troops came so close to Aguinaldo the other day that they captured twelve barrels filled with his wifes clothing. From now on the ladies court custome at the Filipino headquarters will probably be marked by an Eden-like simplicity.

A. T. Peterson loaded for shipment yesterday the last of his season's purchase of chittim bark. His purchases this year aggregate 200 tons, at an average of $55 per ton, or $11,000 an item which is certainly worthy of note when speaking of the industries of Lincoln county.—Toledo Leader.

State Treasurer Chas. S. Moore yesterday received a remittance from the treasurer of Linn county covering the balance still due on state taxes for the year 1898, amounting to $2,494.87, and interest on the same for $373.49. This pays the entire indebtedness of Linn county excepting a balance of $1.49 on interest.—Statesman.

A paper from Louisiana gives an interesting sketch of the life of the late Rev. T. B. White formerly of Albany. Among other things it tells about his Bible with its interesting memoranda made by him during many years showing that since 1848 he had read the new testament 152 times, an average of over three times a year, and the old testament about seventy times.

A man recently died at Echo, Umatilla county, Oregon, leaving an estate of $1000. This estate is to be divided among 21 heirs. The deceased seems to have been more fortunate in accumulating heirs than he was in hoarding money.—Walla Walla Statesman. Linn county can beat this. An estate, a little larger, now in the circuit court on a petition for partition has two hundred heirs.—Democrat.

Lawyer-Farmer Woodcock is feeding damaged wheat to about 60 head of porkers at his farm-place north of Eugene. Soon he will turn them off, and he has purchased 13 large steers from the Booth Kelly Lumber Co. to stall feed in their place. He expects these steers in March to weigh from 2,000 to 2,500 lbs each. He thinks that in this way he will make the damaged wheat, which is unfit for milling purposes, bring him at least 50 cents per bushel. This will be a good investment when No. 1 milling wheat is only worth 39 cents per bushel.—Guard.

E. F. Long had an exciting adventure with a beef the other day. He was returning home from Richardson gap, where he had brought the critter and tied the same to his saddle horn. It descended a hill about a mile south of town the animal became frightened and jumped from the road into a deep canon. "Butch" had no knife with him, but he had presence of mind, and in a jiffy had the saddle unsinched and the horse out of danger. It is said the saddle made a lively detour through the timber in that vicinity attached by a stout thong to the frightened critter's horns, but was finally rounded up.—Stayton Mail.

The Northern Pacific railroad has completed arrangements for the transportation of 9,000 horses from Central Washington points to St. Paul and Eeastern points. The first trainload will arrive in St. Paul within a day or two. The transportation of 9,000 horses will require 250 cars each containing 25 horses. These horses are a small fraction of the range horses in the West, which are a drug on the Western market. It is the intention of the movers in the enterprise to break the consignments into smaller lots and scatter them throughout the Eastern states.

The nurseries of Oregon and Washington are doing a good business this fall. There is not only a large home demand but the good features of nursery stock grown here are now known over a broad area and Oregon grown trees are in demand in a dozen states.
