Mayor Dunne May Veto 85-Cent Gas Ordinance.

SIXTY CENTS SUITS HIM

Fate of Chicago Gas Movement in Doubt-He Would Give Longer Franchise for Lower Price, but Many Object.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.-(Special.)-The fate of the 85-cent gas ordinance is in Mayor Dunne's hands and it is believed that he will yeto it at the meet-ing of the Council Wednesday after-noon unless concessions are made in favor of the city. The Mayor is con-sidering a proposition submitted for 50-cent gas under a 50-year franchise. but he does not like a long-term grant, The Mayor is not at all satisfied with the 85-cent ordinance and he may have a message that will change the veto and bring about a reconsideration of the ordinance. He wants, first of all,

"I am not prepared to say what will be done regarding the several propositions advanced by the Mayor at the conference Saturday." The Mayor was optimistic about the ordinance, but he would not say whether he thought a veto of the 85-cent ordinance could be carried through the Council.

Wants Provisions Changed.

"I probably shall send a message on the gas ordinance," he said. "I do not like some of the provisions of the measure. I am expecting the representatives of the gas companies to call on me tomorrow. If they fall to appear. I shall go ahead with amend ments which I hope the Council will

CABINET WILL CONSIDER IN-TERNATIONAL RELIEF.

May Ask All Nations to Join in the Movement to Feed Million People Starving.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—The advisability of starting an international movement for the relief of distress and suffering in Japan will be discussed by the President and his advisers at the Cabinet meeting tomorrow. Recent advices have indicated that famine is prevalent in Japan and large numbers people are threatened with death-ese were supplemented today by information received at the State Department. The proposition will be advanced that this Government shall take the initiative in an international relief movement. Invitations for the other powers to co-op-orate will be sent out by the Secretary of State, if it is determined to make the plan effective, and the United States will be the intermediary through which of-fices of assistance are made.

It is believed the Cabinet will consider the suggestion favorably and that the President will ask Congress for a substantial appropriation with which to puraddition, it is likely popular aid will be required. the "observed of all observers," for they are both so well known that they cannot hope to escape detection, though they will be able to avoid publicity while traveling. Will Be Guests of Kings.

The trip to Europe will be an event of great social importance. Mr. and Mrs. Longworth will be received at the various courts of the old country, will be dined by the crowned heads and given the very best time the rulers can show them. Nowhere will they be more heartily welcomed than at the German court, for Emperor William, with all his bluster, is a great admirer of Mr. Roosevelt and is very anxious to entertain his daughter. Of course, her husband will go along. For some time after the wedding, but as now, interest will center in the President's daughter. It will be many months before Mr. Longworth comes into his share of recognition and is the acknowlalged head of the Longworth family. At the outset he will be the "husband of the President's daughter." It will be some time before the world speaks of his bride "wife of Representative Longworth," possibly not until the close of the present Administration The presents which were showered upon Miss Roosevelt during her trip to the Orient, when coupled with the wedding presents, will make a supply ample to stock an ordinary home for a decade or more. Many of the presents from the Orient were in the form of trinkets; most of the wedding presents will probably be by irrigation in South Dakota to a car-load of coal presented by the miners of $75,000, of a more useful character, ranging as Pennsylvania, and including all manner of wearing apparel, silverware, tableware and furniture, not to mention countless deces of jewelry sent by the closer friends of the bride. So numerous will be the presents as to meet the demands of the bride for many a season to come. This is all very fortunate for "Nick" Longsum for cigars and incidentals, even though he has a large enough allowance of the "necessary wherewithal" to provide for his family for a lifetime.

MISS ROOSEVELT'S BIRTHDAY

President Gives Party and Musicale to Celebrate Event.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.-President and Mrs. Rossevelt entertained a large party of friends at the White House tonight to celebrate Miss Alice Roosevelt's 22d birthday. Many of Miss Roosevelt's 20d birthday. Many of Miss Roosevelt's younger friends attended. Those present included Senator and Mrs. Newlands.

Following the dinner there was a musicale to which a large number of friends had been invited.

BRYAN WILL NOT SERVE WHERE CARNEGIE HELPS.

Resigns as Trustee of Illinois College Because Money Was Asked From Trust Magnate.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 12.-W. J Bryan, writing from Hong Kong, has sent his resignation as trustee of Illnois College, and at length declared that he would not serve a school where the board of trustees was in favor of accepting funds from Carnegie or other trust mag-nates, who are attempting to subsidize the colleges of America to prevent teachnic truths. The resignation was accepted tonight. Mr. Bryan writes:

The issue presented seems to me to be a vital one, and, even if Carnegie refuses, the same question will likely arise if some other trust magnate invites requests. Our college cannot serve God and Mammon. It cannot be a college for the people and at the same time commend itself to the commercial highwaymen who are now subsidizing the colleges to prevent the teaching of economic truths. It grieves me to have my alma mater converted into an ally of plutocracy, but, having done what I could to prevent it. I have no other recourse than so withdraw from its management. I regret that the action, if it was to be taken, was not taken before I gave my notes, for I regard the money given as worse than wasted if the college is to be under the shadow of a great monopoly.

When first approached on the sub-ject, he declined to discuss Mr. Dolan's action, but later in the day he dictated the following statement:

"I do not propose to be drawn into a newspaper controversy with Mr. Dolan or any one clse. At the proper time and in the proper way I shall make answer. At present I am too busily engaged to say anything that would assist him in his apparent efforts to destroy the hopes and to divide the strength of the miners."

LONDON, Feb. 12.-Great Britain today lemanded that China compensate the mis-sionaries for the destruction of their property at Changpu, near Amoy, and also asked for the punishment of those respon-sible for the disorders.

While Great Britain, with the other powers, agreed at Emperor William's sug-gestion, to withdraw her troops from Chill Province, it has now been decided to leave the question in the hands Ministers at Pekin. Possibly they will decide to maintain the troops stationed at Tien Tsin and withdraw those occupying outlying stations.

We do not seek your territory; we do seek your friendship. Other nations, perhaps, may cultivate your friendship that they may seek a portion of China for themselves, but we seek nothing but what we sought and you granted in the old days, permission to trade. We stand by you in your demand, "China for the Chinese, and peace for all the world."

The next speaker was Mr. Olney, who why should China and the United States be unfriendly? It is inferred from some things now going on that the Chinese people are developing a special hostility to Americans and American interests. The inference, in my judgment, is larger than the premises warrant. The inimical manifestations referred to, sofar as they affect America alone, will, I think, in the end be found to be local, transient and sporadic. They are anti-foreign, rather than anti-American.

The friendly disposition towards us by China as a, whole is not to be doubted. No more is it to be doubted that the disposition is fully reciprocated by the Government and the people of the United States.

Germany is given the credit for the fail-ure. In fact, it is believed here that Emperor William, realizing that there is no hope of Germany's demands being in-dersed by the powers, is now anxious that the conference shall fail. Great Britain maintains her position, supporting the French demands in regard to the police.

Should the conference break up, it is understood that France will continue her policy of policing the Algerian frontier, and, should serious troubles break out within the Sultan's dominion. France will undertake to suppress them, notifying the powers that she cannot allow the disorder to continue, as it threatens the peace of her colony. Germany then will be in the position, it is pointed out, of having either to concede the right of France to police Morocco or issue an ultimatum that France must not interfere in the affairs of the country.
