BY THE EDITOR

Messrs. Boardman and Hopper, two of the promoters of the flax industry in this city, were here on Thursday of last week and inspected the work under construction. They expressed themselves as well pleased with the progress made, as well as the outlook for the future. The company is doing a good deal of work in getting buildings ready for the recepton of machinery, and as a result have paid out quite a sum of money for labor and material. They have satisfied themselves that there is a good opening here for the industry, and will lend every effort in their power to make it a success. They hope to be able to contract for the raising of sufficient flax to keep the machinery going next season, and to do this they intend to pay the producer a good round price for raising the straw. The company is amply backed with capital to carry out every detail of the work of manufacturing the lint, and by the time another crop is harvested they will have everything in working order and sufficient machinery installed to handle all the straw the farmers will raise.

C. C. Doughty has again entered the journalistic field in Polk county having assumed editorial management of the Independence West Side. The paper has been changed from an all home print to a patent outside. Mr. Doughty has been in the newspaper work in Polk county for a good many years, and is capable of making the West Side one of the best papers in the valley.

Edwin L. Godkin, the dean of New York journalism, retired from active editorial service last week. He and the late Charles A. Dana were journalistic and political opponents and their great editorial battles for the profound ability, ferocity and consummate skill are historic. Mr. Dana's death made Godkin the dean of N. Y. journalism.

"If you have a flag, honor it; if you have a government, support it; if you have troops at the front, uphold them; and if you have traitors damn them eternally." These are sentiments taken from a Manila newspaper. Can a better rebuke be given to those who would tie the hands of our government in the critical moment of rebellion?

Mr. Brown, one of the publishers of the Brownsville Times, has in company with another gentleman, purchased a large printing office in Seattle, and will move to that city and take charge of the same. Mr Cavendar will have full charge of The Times, and we trust that the boys will both succeed in their new field of work.

Vice-President Hobart did not make himself conspicious either by fervid oratory in legislative halls or by reckless daring on the field of battle. But that which came to his hand for him to do he did faithfully quietly and well, and he died the calm, brave death of one who knew no cause for fear.

The county court has appointed new managers for the county poor farm. This does not seem to be a situation sought after to any great extent.

Circuit Court.

Department No. 1 of the Circuit court convened at Albany Monday afternoon pursuant to adjournment with Judge Burnett in charge.

In Pope Anderson & Co. agt S R Templeton for recovery of money, judgment was rendered for the plaintiff.

In John Meinert agt Keber, for recovery of personal property the defendant gave oral notice of appeal.

In the case of Linn county agt P G Morris for the hearing of which the court was adjourned until this time as an amended complaint had been filed and a demurrer to the same was disposed of when the defendant by his attorney moved to continue the case on the ground that the criminal cases against the defendant should be heard first.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and preyent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. For sale by Peery and Peery.

Ensilage should not cost the farmer over $1 a ton, and fifty pounds a day is a large ration for a cow. This is forty rations per ton, at 5½c per ration, and hence will provide for one cow forty days. There is no food that can be produced at a lower cost. The ensilage is not of itself a complete food, as the best results are derived when grain and hay are also allowed, but it cheapens the cost of the whole and provides succulent food in winter, when there is a change from grass to the regulation dry ration of winter.

The I. W. Veterans

At the meeting of Camp No. 17, Indian War Veterans Friday afternoon the following officers were reelected to serve for the ensuing year:

Jason Wheeler, captain; J. B. McFarland, 1st Lieutenant; Sylvester Cannon, 2nd lieutenant; C. H. Walker, orderly sergeant; W. J. Smith, commissionary sergeant; Dr. S. A. Smith, musician, A. B. Morris, Corporal guard; F. M. Westfall, messenger.

It was voted that a committee of four be appointed to draft a set of resolutions for transmittal to members of congress regarding the matter of pensions for Indian war veterans. Committee, A. Blevins, T. A. Riggs, A. B. Morris and C. H. Walker.

Speeches were made to the effect that if the present members of congress did not secure favorable action in the matter of pensions the Indian War Veterans to the number of about 1400 and several thousand others in sympathy with them, propose to unite to put men in congress that will push the pension to a successful result.—Albany Herald.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlains Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon, They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlains Cough Remedy. For Sale by Peery & Peery.

The Companions New Calendar.

The Youth's Companion Calendar for 1900 is unique in form and beautiful in design. The oval counterpiece, in high colors and enclosed in a border of flowers represents „A Dream of Summer" and is supported on either side by an admirably executed figure piece in delicate tints. The whole is delighted in sentiment and in general effect. Larger than any of The Companions previous Calendars it is equally acceptable as a work of art. As an ornament to the home it will take a preeminent place.

The Calendar is published exclusively The Companion. It cannot be obtained elsewhere. It will be given to all new subscribers for 1900 who will also receive, in addition to the fifty-two issues of the volume, all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1899, free from the time of subscription. Illustrated Announcement Number, containing a full prospectus of the volume for 1900, will be sent free to any address.

W. L. Coon, a pioneer citizen of Peoria, who was in Albany Monday says that the first term of circuit court ever held in Albany was in the spring of 1852. It was held in the east wing of the Albany Hotel, a building located at the foot of Ferry street. Mr. Coon was one of the jurymen for that term. Judge O. C. Pratt was on the bench and Dr. Miller was clerk. There has been discussion as to the time and place of the first court ever held in Linn county, and the statement of Mr. Coon who was a juryman at the time will settle the controversy.—Herald.

BY THE SCISSORS

The O. R. & N. Co. will soon begin building two fine stern wheel boats to run on the route between Portland and The Dalles.

A committee appointed to examine the books of Lane county finds Deputy Sheriff Day's shortage to be nearly $2,300. The committee also reports the county's indebtedness at over $94,000.

After hearing considerable testimony and arguments by attorneys in the Chapman bigamy case Judge Bryson dismissed the case. Upon what grounds his decision was founded he failed to state.

A Manila dispatch says that in the late capture of Buencamino the Filipino leader, our troops have secured "the brains of the insurrection." Aguinaldo seems to have the the heels of it, however.

Most men think they have done pretty well to get married once. Peter West, of Pendleton, has been married twelve times and had ten different wives, being married over again twice in order to keep in practice.

New York deer hunters apperr to have been unusally successful in the Adirondacks during the season just ended. An authentic report sets forth that they succeeded in accidently killing no less than twenty three persons.

The Browasville Times says a peculiar disease is working sad havoc with the horses north of that city. W. D. Washburn has lost six valuable animals, and H. R. Powell has lost two. They do not live long after being affected.

It is reported that the Boers have been warned by the British not to use dumdum bullets. They were not accused of doing anything of the kind until after their reported capture of a lot that General Yule is said to have left behind in Dundee.

The local lecturer who says that the "woman with the hoe" is entitled to mans sympathy is undoubtedly right. Just as surely the woman with the broom handle it she is athletic and looks warlike is deserving of mankinds most respectful consideration.

Aguinaldo sneaked through the lines of course he is slippery enough for anything but the report that he took his army of 20,000 men with him was of course absurd. Most of whatever soldiers he had are probably now posing as amigos and sparring for whatever camp rations our boys can spare.

The British war in South Africa has been compared with ours in the Philippines. In some respects such differences as exist are not in our favor. For instance, when our men want to fight the enemy they have first to hunt him up and run him down trouble of which no complaint has thus far been made by our British cousins.

Mrs. Gertrude Cox, of Gates, was arrested at Brownsville last week on the charge of petit larceny. When the case came up for trial it was dismissed on the ground of insufficient evidence. Mrs. Cox went to Brownsville and stopped at the Arlington hotel, and during her stay the rooms of a coupie of young ladies were entered and $7.75 stolen.
