EDITORIAL HASH

While an official statement has been made, it is common gossip at the treasury department, that Secretary Gage and a number of the Treasury officials are opposed to the reenactment of the Geary law, or "Chinese Exclusion Act" as it is more commonly called. This subject is a very difficult one to handle. There is no question but that the law has proved a serious detriment to the expansion to the oriental trade of the United States. On the other hand all organized labor is opposed to the unrestricted admission of Chinese immigration, believing that such a course would result in the serious lowering of wages. The opposition is particularly earnest on the Pacific coast where the competition is already felt. It is further claimed that the law as it now stands, is ineffective and will require material revision before it can be properly re-enacted.

President Roosevelt has decided upon an innovation in his message that will materially lessen the length of the document, as well as add to its readableness. It has for years been the custom for each member of the cabinet to write that portion of the president's message dealing with affairs under them, consequently a large portion of the message was a duplication of the annual reports of the heads of the executive departments. President Roosevelt will change the rule and write his entire message himself, leaving out the department details which congress gets in the annual reports, and devote it only to such matters as he wishes particularly to call to the attention of congress. The innovation is likely to be popular.

The post-office department has decided to place the late President McKinley's picture on the new issue of postal cards which will appear shortly after December 1st. The design, as explained by Acting Postmaster General Madden, includes the year of birth and the year of death immediately at the left and right respectfully of the name McKinley which will be directly under the head. Above the head will be the words, "Series of 1901," and above that "One Cent." The description "United States of America" now appearing on the postal cards will be abandoned and replaced at a point lower down so as to leave the space at the upper part of the card, one-third of the width of the card, clear for postmarks.

An Indianapolis dentist has given up the use of forceps for pulling teeth and has adopted the primitive method of the Chinese, using nothing but his thumb and index finger. He considers that the sight of the forceps themselves is responsible for much of the harrowing part of tooth pulling and that many nervous persons are greatly shocked by the sight of these instruments. The pain is also said to be less. He can take out the most firmly rooted double tooth in a few seconds. He learned this art from a Chinese practitioner.

Physicians who attended the late president of the Mormon Church are unable to assign any particular cause for their patient's death. The public will be satisfied, however, it is thought with the information that he had 7 wives, 49 children and was aged 87 years.

Notice has been received at the State department that the French government proposes to establish in this country a school which shall be devoted to a study of American industrial methods. M. Millerand, the French Minister of Commerce, is the author of the proposed plan, which is a flattering tribute to American enterprise and commercial genius.

Pungent Paragraphs.

Before marriage a man considers his best girl a little dear; after marriage he usually considers her a little extravagant.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Peery & Peery.

Referee Sale

Ralph W. Fisher, referee of the Eagle Woolen Mills, of Brownsville, which went into bankruptcy several months ago, resold the property Saturday, the first sale not being confirmed. I. C. Pickey acted as auctioneer. The woolen mill was bid in by J. Bloomstein & Son for $3300 and the flour mill was sold to Crume & Thompson of Shedd, for $6300. A company will be organized to operate the woolen mill. It is understood that Otto Shultz of Jefferson, will furnish a portion of the capital necessary to start the mill.—Albany Herald.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, no Pay. Price 25 cents.

Knew a Good Thing.

A long suffering travelling man recently handed us the following poetical confession: "Backward turn backward, oh time in your flight, feed me on grool again, just for tonight; I am so weary of leather steak, petrified biscuits, and un-iced cake; oysters that sleep in a watery bath, and butter as strong as Goliah of Gath; weary of paying for what I can't eat, chewing up rubber and calling it meat. Backward, turn backward, how weary I am; give me a swipe at grandmother's hen, let me drink milk that has'nt been skimmed; let me eat butter whose whisker remained; let me once more have an old peninsular pie, and then I'll be ready to curl up and die."—Ex.

Upside Like Writers

When things are "the best" may become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist, of Bellefonte, Pa., writes: "Electric Bitters are the most selling bitters I have handled in 20 years." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters have power over stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, secures sound digestion of wholesome food, builds up the entire system. Putanow life and vigor into any weak sickly run down man or woman. Price 50 cents and $1 at Peery & Peery.

He Tried a Sample Bottle

Nearly every day people come into drug stores and ask the Druggists to recommend some medicine for their trouble. Very often they refuse to do so, because, as a rule, they do not believe it proper to advertise anyone to take a patent medicine of which they do not know the ingredients, it is the physician's province to prescribe. Some make an exception, however, when anyone has a cough, cold or throat and lung trouble. I always recommend Acker's English Remedy because I know just what it will do. It has cured every one where I have seen it tried. It is the best experience and tests I ever handled in my 14 years experience. I will give free one bottle of a gentleman who had been troubled for years with a nasty, hacking cough. I advised Acker's English Remedy. He took a sample bottle, and was cured before he had taken half of it, at no cost whatever. This is an exceptional case, however, as it usually takes two or three bottles.

(Signed) A. D. Cook, Bellefontaine, Ohio.

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle throughout the United States and Canada, and in England, at 1s 3d, 2s 3d, 4s 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above statement.
