Official Paper for Morrow County

MEMBER OREGON STATE EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION

Election Post Mortem.

IN THIS short summation of the causes of death of many issues of the campaign which were buried by the deluge of ballots Tuesday, there shall be no alibis, no crocodile tears.

The will of the electorate was preponderantly expressed, and the American form of government proved successful in allaying the lost issues, bloodlessly and with no aftermath of carnage. That in itself was a victory for democracy.

The stronger side won, and we in America are pledged to bow to that decision. But in the process of winning, the course of the future has been altered to some extent by the combat. We may have confidence that the government leaders have hearkened to some helpful light shed by the opposition, and thereby may be reflected some whit of benefit toward better government.

This newspaper congratulates President Roosevelt on his victory, and in the future as in the past will support him in all measures which we believe to be for the general good. We still retain the privilege of criticizing when criticism seems justified.

Probably the biggest news break for Morrow county this week was provided by Jupiter Pluvius. He apparently was awakened by the election returns and became so excited that he upset his sprinkler. Anyway, we received a good soaking rain last night that will go a long way as balm for bruised spirits.

Heppner high school's Fighting Irish are to be congratulated on their victory over the strong Arlington team last Friday. It came as the result of good headwork and hard fighting—the requisites for all success in life. The boys have another hard game coming up next Wednesday when they play a strong Hermiston team in the west-end Umatilla city. They expect to hand the Hermiston boys some more of the same dish given Arlington, and they should have the generous support of townspeople.

Then there is the wag that said President Roosevelt should demand a recount in Maine and Vermont. As the only states giving their electoral votes to Landon, they couldn't have been the only ones in step. "Must have been something wrong there," declares the wag.
