Irrigon Booth Takes Big Win At County Fair

IRRIGON — North Morrow County 4-H Leaders Council took Sweepstakes prize for booth entries at the Morrow County Fair, last week in Heppner.

"Build your nest in the west", was the theme, taken from the song popular in the early 1900's.

We'll build a sweet little nest
somewhere out in the West, and let the rest of the world go by.

following the theme of the fair, "typically western".

The focal point of the booth was a huge nest, with a paper mache egg, hatching a 4-H clover leaf emblem. There was a tree in the background shedding its leaves to the various 4-H projects, represented by their product or handwork.

Four-H leaders feel that this is what it is all about, to encourage youth to gain skills that will help them live the good life.

The committee who designed and worked on the booth included: Gladys Hobbs, Rose Wilson, Marge Shade, Francine Evans.

New Arrival

The Rev. and Mrs. Wesley Cronk are parents of a son born Monday, Aug. 23, weight 7 lb., 5½ oz. He joins a sister Janie and a brother Danny. He has been named Gordon Wesley.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James H. Cronk, of Mt. Angel, Ore., and maternal grandparents are Rev. and Mrs. Lynn Sparks of Santa Cruz, Calif.

Leaving for Hawaii

Mrs. Albert Partlow and her daughter Sheryl plan to leave this week for a 3 week vacation trip to Hawaii and the Orient. Mrs. Partlow is the Postmaster in Irrigon and during her absence Mrs. Harvey Warner will assume her duties.

Mrs. Partlow and Sheryl will travel with the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Benintendi, who are Assembly of God missionaries enroute to Taiwan. Their tour is scheduled to take them to Honolulu, Tokyo, Seoul, Hong Kong, and Taiwan.

Mrs. Benintendi, the former Linda Morse lived in Irrigon for several years when her father Leland Morse, was pastor of the Irrigon Assembly of God. Mr. Benintendi has spent most of his life in Taiwan (Formosa) where his parents the Rev. and Mrs. Garland Benintendi have served as missionaries for more than 20 years.

The Community Baptist Church in Irrigon has enjoyed a lively interest in their meetings lately, although they are without a pastor for the time being. The Good News Singers have conducted services several times. They are a group of young people from the local and the Kennewick Baptist Church. They will be singing in the Community Church in Boardman next Sunday evening. A Teen singing group from Washington were guests recently also.

The Rev. Orville Tadlock of Vida, Ore., ministered here on Sunday, Aug. 22, and was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Eppenbach. The Rev. W. F. Coy of Irrigon spoke last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams, Robert, Mark and Scott, vacationed at a park on the Deschutes River last week. They were joined by friends from Portland.

Edna Mulkins is in Dale, to care for her brother, Elmer Arbogast, who had surgery recently.

Authorities are investigating the looting of Irrigon Melon stands and State Police have been asked to keep a closer watch at night, as all of the stands have lost some of the largest and best melons. The thieves have gained entrance by prying off windows or doors.

Mrs. Earl Isom and Mrs. Perry Pummel attended a training meeting for school cooks in La Grande on Tuesday. Mrs. Isom is head cook for the Irrigon Elementary School, and Mrs. Pummel is the newly appointed head cook for Riverside High School in Boardman. The importance of good nutrition and eye appeal was stressed at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warner met their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Copeland and their 2 daughters at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pantelis Vrontakis in Salem, on Aug. 22. They spent the week vacationing at the beach near Lincoln City, with the Copeland family, returning home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henner and Jack visited at the E. A. Stephens and the Dave Graybeal homes recently.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rees Morgan, for 3 days, were his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Dyer and daughter Barbara from Riley, Kan. They also spent seveal days visiting in Portland.

Ross and Douglas Anker, grandsons of the Morgans, and a friend Monica Correa, all of Portland, visited from Monday to Thursday of last week.
