Weddings

Britt — Ober

Shelli Louise Ober, daughter of Richard and Wanda Ober of Pendleton became the bride of Rick Dean Britt, son of John and Nella Britt of Lexington, and Larry and Charlene Day of Pilot Rock on Nov. 10.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Arthur Baehman at Peace Lutheran Church in Pendleton. The church was decorated with burgundy and pink flowers on the altar, candelabras, piano, and guestbook table.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a full length white gown with lace and a full train, and a fingertip veil.

Maid of Honor was Vicki Ober, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Rondi Salva and Shari Ober also sister of the bride, and Mindy Britt, sister of the bridegroom.

Flower girl was Sarah Britt of Lexington. Ring bearers were Rebecca Salva and Ericka Salva both of Pendleton. Candle lighters were Karen Deborde of Hermiston and Becky Coffman of Portland.

The best man was Rusty Britt, of Heppner, brother of the groom. Ushers were Jerry Johnson, LaGrande; Rance Golden, North Powder; and Tim Smith, Pendleton.

A wedding reception was held at the Pendleton Elks Lodge. Serving refreshments were Josie Morton, Una Spencer, Wavalee Faircloth, Genevieve McCracken, and Margaret Green, all aunts of the bride.

Michelle Lusk attended the gift table and guest book.

Following a wedding cruise from Florida to Mexico, Grand Cayman Island and Jamaica, the couple will reside in Heppner.

Britt is a 1979 graduate of Pilot Rock High School. The new Mrs. Britt is a 1983 graduate of Pendleton High School. Both are employed with John Britt Logging.

Citrus sale success

The Heppner Lions Club Grapefruit and Orange sale appears to have been a success this year, said a spokesperson for the club, because the fruit was sold out before everyone could be contacted.

The Lions Club wishes to assure everyone that for next year they are planning to have a larger supply of fruit.

Ext. offers booklet on grazing costs

By STEVE CAMPBELL
OSU Extension Agent
Morrow County

The cost of grazing livestock on public lands is the subject of a publication just released by the Oregon State University Extension Service.

The publication is entitled "Costs Incurred by Permittees in Grazing Livestock on Public lands in Various Western States" EM 8283. This 74 page booklet reports the findings of several public land use cost surveys.

The booklet explains the reasons for conducting the surveys, and describes how the surveys were done. Several charts and graphs illustrate the findings of the surveys.

"Costs Incurred by Permittees—" was prepared by OSU Extension resource economist, Fred Obermiller, and public lands policy assistant, David Lambert. It is available at the Morrow County office of the OSU Extension Service.

Copies may also be obtained by mail from the Bulletin Mailing Service, Industrial Building, OSU, Corvallis, 97331 at a cost of $3. An additional charge of 25 cents is made on mail orders to cover the costs of postage and handling.

ASCS names committee posts

Results of the December 3 election of county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service committee persons for 1985 were announced recently by Judy Buschke.

Newly named to committee posts in the mail balloting were Steve Hill - three year term; Clint Carlson - first alternate; Joe Rietmann - second alternate.

The entire committee for 1985 is as follows: George Miller, chairman; Doug Drake, vice-chairman; Steve Hill, member; Clint Carlson, first alternate; Joe Rietmann, second alternate.

Judy Buschke said farmer committees are in charge of local administration of national farm programs. At least one committee member and two alternatives are elected each year. The farmer receiving the largest number of votes is elected to a three-year term; second largest, a two-year term, if the position is vacant; third largest, a one-year term if the position is vacant; and fourth and fifth largest, one-year terms as alternates.

Judy Buschke said that last year more than 480 farmers — about 85 percent of all farmers in the county, participated in one or more of the programs administered by the ASCS ASCS committee.
