Rebekahs celebrate Christmas

By Delpha Jones

Holly Rebekah Lodge and Lexington Oddfellow Lodge held a joint Christmas meeting on Thursday evening for members and their families. Dinner and a gift exchange were enjoyed.

The tables were decorated in the Christmas theme and items for the Neighborhood Center were placed under the Christmas tree. Members have brought articles the last three meetings.

Following a meeting of visiting the group adjourned.

Morrow County employees Shirley McCarl (l) and Denise Betsinger put toys under the Christmas tree at the courthouse. Toys were brought by county employees and were equally distributed recently between the Irrigon-Boardman Emergency Assistance Center and the Neighborhood Center in Heppner. The toys are to be given to low income families for Christmas.
