Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The Outlook cannot help admiring the intelligent interest taken in educational matters and community affairs generally by G. N. Sager of Pleasant Valley, whose objections to H. B. 215 are recited in this issue. We are disappointed, however, over the fact that Mr. Sager raises strenuous objections to every plan proposed so far as we can recollect. Of course, there are good points in all bills and it is rare that there are not objectionable features. It is as hard to devise a perfect law as to find a perfect man. The important question is, with its apparent defects, is it an improvements over existing requirements. If so, it ought to be welcomed. The defects can be cured later. The proposed law comes the nearest to an acceptable administration of county school affairs of anything proposed to our knowledge and is so accepted and endorsed by leading educators who have no axes to grind except educational improvement. The proposed plan is said to be in effect in 15 states. It is somewhat new. We commend the plan to our readers. The bill was published in full in the Outlook. We fear objecting will get to be a habit with our correspondent.

The Outlook was in error in Friday's issue in stating that H. B. 215, relating to county school administration, had passed both house and senate. It had passed the house but ran onto a snag in the senate, was referred to a committee and an amendment proposed which amendment was at last report adopted by the senate but the bill had not passed as amended. What the amendment was or what is likely to be the fate of the bill is not known as the Outlook goes to press.

If it comes to giving up one or other of his positions Federal Judge Landis may not hesitate long. As federal judge his salary is around $10,000. As commissioner for the major baseball league his salary is around $42,500. With impeachment proceedings pending in congress, the sentiment seems to be that if he wants the $42,500 he would better forfeit the smaller amount.

It seems as if some men just have to have some fighting going on. In Spain it's bull fighting, in Canada it's cockfighting, in American it's pugilism, in Ireland it's civil war. Gambling is at the basis of most of it and "man's ingratitude to man" at the bottom of all of it.

Henry Ford is an example of the man who is a great success in his line but always gets his foot in bad when he dabbles in world affairs. His anti-semetic agitation is said to be in the interest of peace, but like his famous peace expedition will likely be a failure.

Speaking of "Our George," this is the day we celebrate in his honor. This isn't George Washington's country any longer, it's yours and mine, but we do well to honor "the father of his country" by emulating his example of sterling patriotism.

A Correction.

The attention of the Outlook has been called to an error in a news item published in the last Outlook concerning a spelling match said to have been planned between the pupils of Lusted and Victory schools. By referring to the original copy it has been found that the little imp who is responsible for errors in newspapers caused the name Victory to be substituted for Cedar in the article.
