LOST.

On Saturday, January 22nd, a scarf pin, with opal setting. A reward will be paid for its return to the Bulletin office.

J. W. Palmer and wife, of Hood River, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCargar the first part of the week.

Misses Leta, Ora and Georgia Waite came up last Saturday from Eugene, where they are in school, to be present at their father's wedding. They returned home on Sunday afternoon.

We received an interesting account of the closing exercises of the school in District No. 76, which took place last Wednesday night. It was impossible to publish it this week but it will appear in our next issue.

Woodmen to the Fore.

A number of young members of the local Camp of Woodmen of the World spent two days this week helping their brother Woodman, E. J. Bailey, raise the frame work of his mother's new house which is to replace the one recently burned. The boys all worked with a will and accomplished a great deal, which was much appreciated by the family.

Fruit Growers Meet.

The Mosier Horticultural Society held a most interesting meeting in Lamb's Hall last Monday, the principal subject under discussion being "Spraying," which was handled by J. P. Carroll in an intelligent and instructive manner and listened to by about twenty persons who are engaged in fruit raising.

Another meeting will be held at the same place on February 7th, at 1 o'clock, p. m. The following subjects will be discussed:

Pruning, J. P. Carroll and others.

Preparing Ground for Setting Out Young Orchards, C. A. McCargar.

What Trees to Set—Grafted before or After Setting, A. P. Bateham.

On a Long Hike.

Tramping on a $5000 wager from New York City to Portland, Or., and return via New Orleans, Norman R. Grantham, who hails from New York, arrived in town en route for Portland at 4:30 Monday afternoon.

Mr. Grantham states that he is a wireless telegraph operator in the employ of the Cunard Steamship Co., plying out of New York to Europe. He was at work one day in his cabin when A. P. Harrigan, a grain dealer of London, England, came in and the conversation drifted to the walk of O. P. Myers, who hiked from New York to Portland, Me., thence to Chicago, in 30 days. Grantham said it was not good time. Harrigan said it was, and before the argument was over, Harrigan posted $5000 against $2500 of Grantham's money, as a wager that he could not walk 10,000 miles in one year. The start was made August 22nd, 1909, and the hiker, the time he struck Mosier, was, he told the Bulletin man, 5 days ahead of schedule, despite his statement that sickness on the way delayed him several days.

One feature of the contract is that Grantham must enter every town "broke," make his expenses while there and leave "broke." He makes both ends meet by giving lectures. He has averaged about 36 miles per day since the start and from his appearance, looks his ability to finish his long walk ahead of time and take down the wager.

After resting up here half a day Grantham "hit the grit" for Hood River.

Waite--Booth Nuptials.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the bride's home in Mosier on Sunday last, at high noon, when Rev. W. A. Stark united in marriage Mrs. Isabella Booth and Harry E. Waite, of Portland, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. They were attended by Mr. J. K. McGregor and Mrs. Hattie McGregor. After congratulations were over a buffet luncheon was served by Miss Booth, Miss Jennie Booth and Miss Waite.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Waite are well and favorably known here, the latter having lived in Mosier a number of years, being in business here until about a year ago. She will be greatly missed as she was very popular in the social circle.

Mr. Waite was also a resident of Mosier for several years, being the popular and obliging agent for the O. R. & N. Co. at this place, but at the present time he is holding a very responsible position in the Claim Department at the Union Depot in Portland, for the same company.

The bride was beautifully gowned in a London Smoke travelling suit, the groom wearing conventional black. They left on the afternoon train for Portland, where Mr. Waite has recently purchased and furnished a beautiful new bungalow. A large crowd of friends were at the depot to bid them goodbye and to see that they started on life's journey with a good supply of rice and old shoes. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McGregor, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mosier, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Akers, Misses Bertha and Jennie Booth, Misses Leta, Ora and Georgie Waite, Marian Wood, Mr. Hannum, Masters Billy Booth, Stark and Estel Akers and Teddy Young.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Alford Parrish is not in school this week.

Alice Shogren is registered in Miss Booth's room.

The third and fourth grades are taking their mid-year examinations this week.

Next week the names of those who have been neither absent nor tardy during the month of January will be printed.

We all feel that the good work of the librarian deserves honorable mention. Miss Alefora has been most faithful with this work. There are over two hundred books in the library and they have been kept in a most satisfactory condition. Alefora is at her post every Friday at the morning and afternoon intermissions, when books are brought back and others taken out.

POULTRY HILL BOOMLETS.

Cackle! Cackle!! Cackle!!! Eggs for Breakfast every morning now.

As the snow melts away the Poultry Hill people don their working clothes.

W. H. Cook has received a letter from Mr. London, stating that he has purchased 1200 fruit trees for Spring planting. Mr. Cook will do the work and oversee the planting.

Mrs. Bailey has the lumber and material on the ground for the new residence. Building will proceed as fast as the weather permits. The fire seemed almost a disaster, but true American pluck and energy, with aid from neighbors, will soon make all as good or better than before the fire.

Mrs. Myra Winegar has John Burlingame at work clearing off a piece of ground which she expects to plant to orchard this Spring.

During the snow period Mr. W. Winegar was sledding lumber to the northwestern part of his homestead, for the purpose of building a house. Mr. Winegar will be Wasco county's extreme northwestern resident.

The Cosy Home folks have a full-blood fifteen months' old Jerses heifer that had the mishap of losing a calf. Taking up the New Thought idea of turning seeming defeat into victory, they set about milking her. As a result they have a fifteen months' old milch cow. For a young milk producer this certainly breaks the world's record, or gives it a very close rub.

Death of Miss Evans.

Miss Agnes Evans, who for the past nine months has been living in the vicinity of Mosier in the hope of recuperating her failing health, died Sunday, Jan. 23rd, after an illness of about one year.

For some time after coming to Mosier Miss Evans seemed to gain, but with the advent of Winter her strength again failed.

She was born and lived all her life near Corbett and at the time of her death was 18 years, 7 months and 17 days old.

She was ever patient and cheerful through all her sufferings, and her untimely end is mourned by a host of friends. Especial sympathy is felt for the sorrowing mother, who has been a most faithful companion and attendant during the long illness of deceased.

The remains were shipped to Corbett for interment. Funeral services were conducted by Columbia Grange No. 267, of which deceased was a member.

C. L. McKenna, of Portland, was a business visitor in town Wednesday night.

Big social dance in Stroup's Hall Saturday night, February 5th. C. Newman, of Hood River, will furnish fine music and the floor will be in excellent condition. Local train service will make it convenient for out-of-town parties to attend. Everybody invited.

There was a terrible accident in school Monday—one of the teachers fell over the earth, which was sitting on the floor in the school room.

Mrs. M. A. Mosier came up from Portland last Saturday and visited her husband over Sunday.
