CALIFORNIA OBSERVES BURBANK'S BIRTHDAY

SANTA ROSA, Cal., March 7.—Arbor day and the sixty-first birthday of Luther Burbank, the plant wizard, is being ceelbrated today throughout California.

In honor of the famous horticulturist, children in the public schools of California planted trees, flowers, shrubs, while the man so honored, passed most of the day in his office, attending to routine business preparatory to ris departure tomororw for Fresno where he will deliver several lectures.

oFr the past two days Burbank has received hundreds of congratulatory telegrams and letters from all parts of the world.

Burbank is in the best of health, and expects to continue his work creating new species of plants for a number of years to come.

He is experimenting with large numbers of plants with the view of originating new species, which he said today would take several years before many of them would be completed.

Couldn't Call the Chink.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 7.—Judicial procedure in the hall of justice was interrupted today when court bailiff Sullivan was ordered by Judge Shortall to call a Chinese witness, Ah Ha, into court.

The custom of the bailiffs is to call aloud the name of the witness three times. When Bailiff Sullivan advanced to the door and yelled through the crowded corridors, "Ah Ha, Ah Ha, Ah Ha," smiles became chuckles, chuckles bubbled into laughter and laughter broke into guffaws which filled the corridors.

None knew the cause of Sullivan's hearty "Ah Ha", but all responded irresistibly and waves of infectious laughter swept through the building, destroying courtroom decorum for a time.

JUDGE HANFORD'S SON GOES SUDDENLY INSANE

SEATTLE, Wash., March 7.—Harry B. Hanford, youngest son of Federal Judge C. H. Hanford, occupies a padded cell at the city jail today and his father is prostrated at his home following the sudden giving away of young Hanford's mind yesterday and a desperate struggle in which he engaged wtih an older brother at the Hanford home. The judge himself fell heavily during the struggle to overpower the insane man and is today suffering severely from nervous shock.

Young Hanford, whose mind is fired with the delusion that he has committed a crime of some sort, was overpowered and arersted by two policemen who found him rushing wildly upand down the street near the Hanford home. Edwin C. Hanford, an older brother, received a cut on his hand during the struggle in the residence to subdue Harry.

Young Hanford, more than six feet in height and athletic, was nearly a match for the two policemen and they had much difficulty in getting him into the police automobile.

Harry Hanford's condition is said by a relative to be due to extreme nervousness superinduced by an affliction from which he has been suffering for years.

CHICKEN THIEVES ARE IN ACTION

Seven Fowls Taken From One Coop —Necks Are Wrung—Owner Will Be Glad to Meet Them.

E. Shafner of 323 Knight street is looking for the sneakthief who lifted seven laying hens from his chicken house Saturday night.

Incidentally, he offers a reward, not for the arrest of the thief, but just for his identification. Mr. Shafner says that he will do the rest and that after he gets through the street department may clean up the mess.

The chickens were taken Saturday night, and the artist who did the work was no amateur, as not a sound was heard. In the morning Mr. Shafner found he was seven hens shy. A short distance from the coop he found the heads of the lost seven, where the thieves had coolly wrung the necks of the fowl. The hens were all layers and were on the job every day.

"I can't get the chickens," said Mr. Shafner, "but I would like to meet up with the fellow that stole them."

EIGHT HUNDRED MEN AT WORK

of Seattle, who was in charge of the train. The body fount last week was not that of Fox and is now in the unidentified list. The second body was that of Charles Ladue, a mail clerk.

The smoker, containing 30 Italians, has been located and one unidentified corpse taken out. More will probably be uncovered before night.

For the first time since the slide, the Wellington depot contains no dead. The body of Engineer Osborne has been taken east to Leavenworth. The body of C. W. Beagle, an express messenger, and an unidentified victim are being hauled to Scenic.

Today there is a warm chinook wind blowing and the snow is melting. The dead rotaries east of Wellington will be fired up before night. The rotaries working on the east side of the divide should reach the east portal of the tunnel by sundown.

People have to be told as well as "shown." That special sale at your store must be advertised in direct proportion to its importance.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply at the meeting of the city council March 15, 1910, for a retail liquor license at his place of business, lots 12 and 13, block 20, city of Medford.

PORK GOING UP SPUDS GOING DOWN

A Cent to Two Cents Rise in Price of Cattle and Hogs in Local Market —Muttons Takes a Drop.

Prime beef cows bring 4 to 4½ cents in the local market and steers 5 to 5½ cents.

Hogs bring 8 to 8½, an advance of a cent a pound over former quotations.

Mutton, however, and potatoes are a shade lower, mutton going at 5 to 5½ cents and spuds at $1 a hundred. So that one can have mutton stew, and if the Southern Oregon hen continues to act properly, an egg occasionally, on something less than a millionaire's income.

One reason why the most desirable houses, apartments and rooms are always advertised is that the most desirable tenants never take the trouble to hunt up places that are not advertised.

MAYOR DELIVERS ROAST.

Speaking of the "poisoned press" he said:

"A great and influential magazine of the east has sent a writer to this city to gather material for a story called 'The Poisoned Press.'

"The writer, I understand, is Will Irwin of Stanford—a skilled and seasoned newspaper man, a gifted magazine writer, and one of the young men of the present time who have added luster to California's fame in the world of letters.

Scurrying for Cover.

"I am amused to see what Irwin is going to write, for I know him to be truthful and one who knows a spade for a spade It occurs to me that there may be a scurying for cover on the part of a few wealthy owners, and that the east will gasp anew as the latest scandal involving San Francisco is presented for their consideration.

"The poisoned press will never stop me, however, in my efforts to help these schools, and put them upon a proper basis. I know I am right and justified, and I am going to win this fight for you, fathers and mothers."

The mayor flayed members of the Taylor board of education who, by obtaining a perpetual injunction, have restrained him from seating his own appointees.

He also designated certain officials in the city government as "reptiles" when the question of forming a new street railway employes' union was broached. The mayor said it would be too hazardous while "reptiles" were in office.

COLONISTS RATES TO OREGON AND THE GREAT NORTHWEST

The management of the Southern Pacific Co. (Lines in Oregon) takes great pleasure in announcing that the low rates from Eastern cities, which have done so much in past seasons to stimulate travel to and settlement in Oregon, will prevail again this Spring DAILY from March 1 to April 15, inclusive.

PEOPLE OF OREGON

The railroads have done their part; now it's up to you. The colonist rate is the greatest of all home-builders. Do all you can to let eastern people know about it, and encourage them to come here, where land is cheap and home-building easy and attractive.

FARES CAN BE PREPAID at home if desired. Any agent of the road named is authorized to receive the required deposit and telegraph ticket to any point in the East.

REMEMBER THE RATES—From Chicago, $33; from St. Louis, $32; from Omaha and Kansas City, 25. This reduction is proportionate from all other cities.

WM. McMURRAY,
General Passenger Agent — Portland, Oregon
