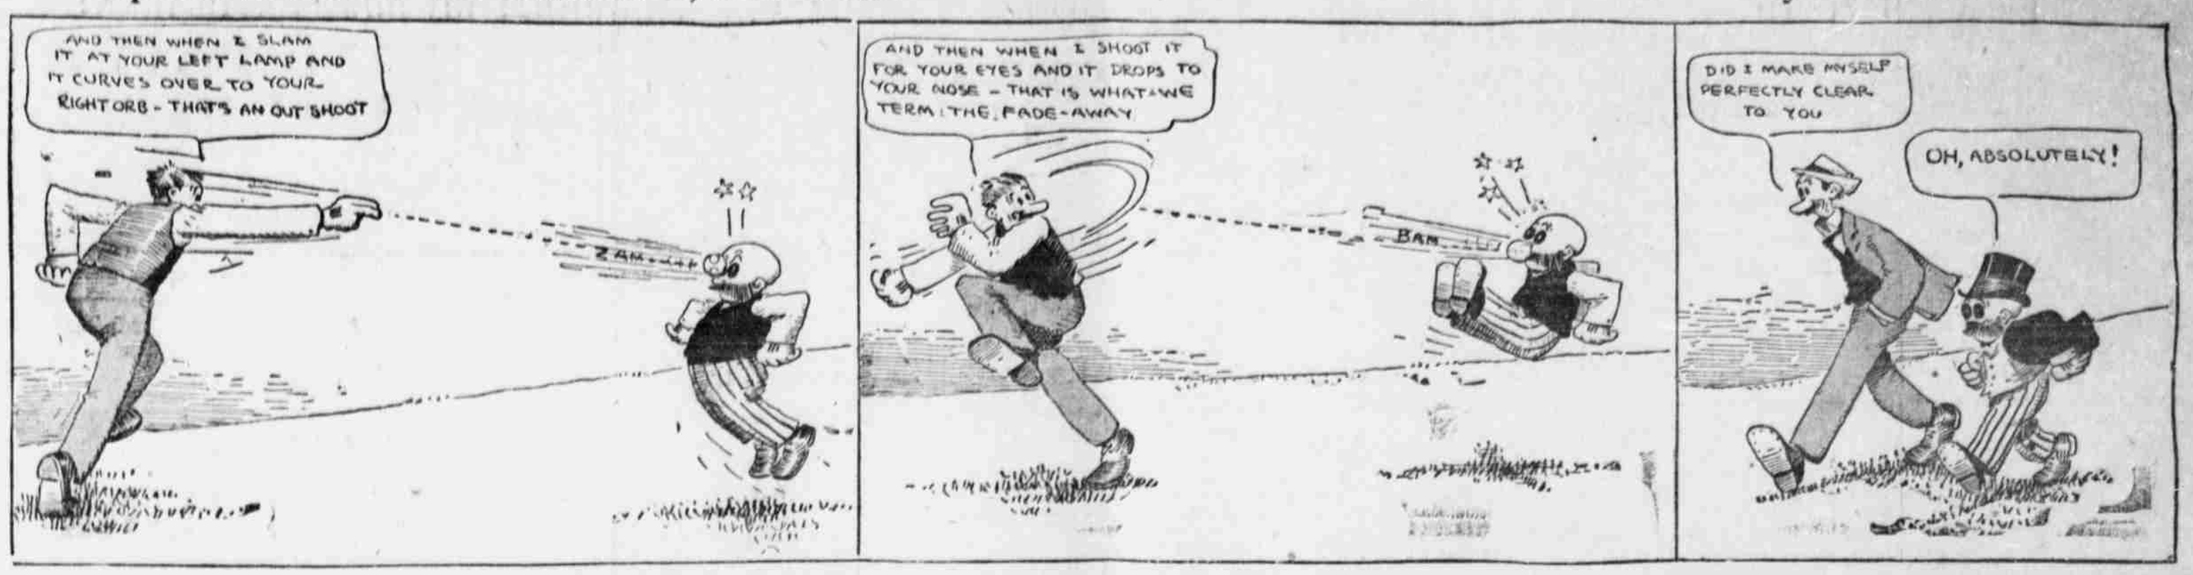
Inquisitive About the Guillotine, and Then ——— "By Bud Fisher"



TELEGRAPHIC TABLOIDS.

SEATTLE, Wn.—The receivership of the Western Steel corporation will be terminated and the works at Irondale, Wn., will soon be running, according to James A. Moore, president of the company, who has returned from the east. Mr. Moore states that he has received financial backing under a plan of re-organization which will enable the company to go forward.

SEATTLE, Wn.—By arranging with a railroad clerk to have bills made out for shipments which were never received, B. J. Cooper is alleged to have swindled the Seattle Brewing company, of which he was traffic manager, to the extent of thousands of dollars. Beer shipments were supposed to have been made, but investigation showed that the beer was not on hand, although paid for. Cooper is in jail.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wn.—James Graham, a timber cruiser, owes his life to his dogs. While on the side hill at Port Disery Bay four bears appeared. When the bears had about overtaken Graham, the dogs appeared and the bears fled.

OLYMPIA Wn.—Whether the states under the new workingman's compensation act, must pay damages to a man who got off a train contrary to orders to get a drink, is to be decided in the case of a workman of Snohomish county, who asked the conductor for permission to jump off the front end of the train, get a drink at a nearby saloon and get on the rear end. He was badly injured getting on.

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—From present indications Joe Rivers will enter the ring next Saturday afternoon an almost prohibitive favorite over George Kirkwood, of San Francisco. There is practically no Kirkwood money in sight.

EL CENTRO, Cal.—After the liveliest election ever held in the city, Imperial stands in favor of licensed saloons. The wets won by a majority of 60 out of a total of 290 votes. Anti-saloon people challenged many voters, but no arrests were made.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—When Mrs. Agnes L. Hughes filed suit for divorce yesterday charging her husband with having an affinity, she accompanied the complaint with an application specifically asking that he be restrained from selling the family automobile.

BOISE, Idaho.—A movement is afoot here today to call an indignation mass meeting here to organize a vigilance committee to run down thugs who for three weeks have been holding up citizens and who shot and probably fatally wounded John Millen, local agent of the American Express company because he was slow in obeying a command of "hands up."

PALO ALTO, Cal.—Registering at Stanford University as a socialist, Miss Anna P. Coggins is today the first co-ed to use the privilege of woman's enfranchisement on the campus of the university.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Governor Marshall of Indiana is considering today the offering of a state reward for the arrest of the murderer of Dr. Helen Knabe, former state bacteriologist and pathologist, who was found in her office with her throat cut.

SEATTLE, Wn.—W. H. Johnson bought furniture on the installment plan and lapsed in payments. One evening when his family returned the furniture was gone and the family's clothing, silverware and Johnson's glass eye were scattered about on the floor, the glass eye broken. Johnson brought suit and today got $25 for the glass optic.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Pauline Wayne, the White House cow, has returned from an extended western dairy show tour, on which she refused either to discuss the failure of reciprocity or the tariff issues.

BOSTON, Mass.—Mysterious circumstances have developed in connection with the death of Lowrie Good, aged 55, president of the Cairo & Norfolk railroad. The death was not reported to the police until yesterday, although the body was found the day before by Lowrie Good, Jr. Immediate cremation, requested in a paper found among the dead man's effects, will be delayed.

FRESNO, Cal.—J. K. Sheenan, a guard on the Southern Pacific railroad, was instantly killed here when an arclight in the stockade fell on his head. The lights were hastily installed when the shopmen's strike was called recently.

TACOMA, Wn.—Corrine Johnson, 30, of Seattle, started suit for $5000 damages for breach of promise today against Fred Grimme, 40, a well-to-do Puyallup rancher. They met last summer, he proxed in November, but by March of this year his love had cooled, the complaint alleges.

TACOMA, Wn.—Mary Bly, 18, buxom and pretty, was arrested today charged with stealing $200 from her 80-year-old grandmother at Milton. The money was kept in a trunk. The girl protested her innocence.

BERKELEY, Cal.—Athletic relations between the University of California and the University of Nevada are likely to be severed as a result of Nevada's action in calling off the annual Rugby game between the two colleges, according to statements made here today.

NEW YORK—Madame Marcella Sembrich's inevitable return to the operatic stage is declared today to be imminent as a result of a stock market speculation which cost her about $2,000,000, during the past two years.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—After floating for six years, a life preserver from the steamer Stanley Dollar, wrecked on the Japanese coast, was picked up at the Shetland Islands. The offices of the line here were notified by mail.

OLYMPIA, Wn.—Following statewide investigation of the books of of city and county offices by some 40 state accountants, something like 1000 suits will be started against present and past officials for overdrafts of salary and other money illegally drawn.

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Suit against two score individuals, prominent in various lumber corporations, was filed by the federal government under the Sherman anti-trust law. The suit is exactly similar to the four suits already filed against various other trusts.

TACOMA, Wn.—Because Al Hedge of Milton made alleged slanderous remarks against Miss Ethel Cuthbertson, he will have to pay her $1,000, according to a decision of Superior Judge Easterday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Reinforcements for the Chinese revolutionists are advancing into Hunan province today from Annam, Cochin China, say Shanghai dispatches to the "Young China" newspaper here.

NEW YORK.—In a will filed here today Mrs. Emma Tarok Woerishoffer, who died September 11, leaves $750,000 to the trustees of Bryn Mawr, the college for women near Philadelphia.

PORTLAND, Ore.—An investigation is being held by the authorities with a view of fixing the responsibility for the death of Thomas Gibbon, 35, owner of a dye works, who was killed when his automobile was struck at a crossing near St. Johns, a suburb, by a passenger train on the North Bank road.

NEW YORK—The directors of the United States Steel corporation have adopted a resolution recommending the cancellation of its lease of ore properties to the Great Northern Railway company, which would run to January 1, 1915.

APPLES FOR EUROPE

We are appointed agents for—

J. B. THOMAS, Covent Garden, London and Southampton, England, whose charges are 5 per cent and 6 cents per box.

JAS. LINDSAY & SON, Ltd., Glasgow and Edinburgh, Scotland, 5 per cent and 10 cents per box.

RAWSON ROBINSON, Hull, Englang, 5 per cent and 8 cents per box.

These are the oldest and largest firms in their respective towns, and their reference as to financial abilities can be had at Medford National Bank, Medford, Oregon.

Cash can be cabled day after sale if required, and highest market prices guaranteed.

Red Faced Men smoking BIG CIGARS talking "HOT AIR" don't always live on air, hence our remarks on charges.

The clap-trap about private sale does not prove remunerative, except for some curios of a small nature. All sellers by private sale have to wait until auctions are over so as to know what to ask, and in the case of large supplies they often get left.
