New Today

Any young man, with brain or brawn can buy a 160 acre ranch near Ruch, and can easily make it worth four times the money asked. It is in a locality that is rapidly coming to the front. This opportunity won't last long, but I would like to show it to parties interested, as I believe that the price and terms would suit.

Who has five acres of good garden land, near some good town here to exchange for a cozy little home, close in on pavement?

Five lots on the west side, fine location, that are offered for much less than their real value. Good homes surround them, and $1000.00 takes the five.

A 160 acre timber relinquishment beyond Brownsboro and not far from the P. & E. railroad, can be bought very cheap. Lots of good timber, and some good land when cleared of brush.
