WATERFRONT STRIKE THREATENS NEW YORK

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Threat to spread the waterfront strike here to the port of New York and eventually to all Atlantic coast points were voiced here today by leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World. More than 3000 men, who demand thirty-five cents an hour for ten hours work, time and a half for work after six p. m., double time for work on Sundays and holidays and recognition of the union, are out here.

ASHLAND NOTES

Mrs. Jessie Stannard has returned home from teaching a successful nine months term of school at Tolo.

Mr. Stevens of Idaho, who has been visiting his nephew, J. L. Greenwood, and wife, left for his home last week. The old gentleman, who is 77 years old, is quite a traveler. He left Florida, where he, together with his family, had spent the winter, last March, visiting Cuba and several eastern states, and intends visiting from here all along the way, expecting to arrive home in June or July.

Mrs. J. L. Greenwood, who has been quite ill with muscular rheumatism, is slowly improving. Drs. Swedenburg and Parsons were the attending physicians and Mrs. Chamberlain was the nurse.

Mother's day was observed in the Congregational church May 18, on account of Dr. Fenny, the African missionary, occupying the pulpit on May 11. All the other churches of the city observed it May 11.

Union services will be held at the Chatauqua building next Sunday, May 25, and in the evening the Baccalaureate sermon will be preached at the Methodist church.

Mr. Welch of the boulevard, having disposed of his property to an eastern man, is preparing to give possession, as the new owner is now on the road to this city.

Doris Loomis, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loomis, proprietors of the Boulevard store, was taken to the Granite City hospital one day last week where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. Her many friends are glad to know that she is convalescing.

Mrs. Blaine Klum, of Medford, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Loomis.

L. O. Van Wegen spent Sunday with his family on Liberty street.

Thomas Culbertson has gone to Klamath county to look after his ranch.

Fay Launspach and Hazel Norling of Jacksonville spent Sunday in Ashland.

Mrs. Dr. Swedenburg was a northbound passenger Sunday evening.

Rev. Schwimley, pastor of the Congregational church, returned Friday from a few days visit at Hubbard and Portland.

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS.

Robert Moore of Gold Hill spent Monday morning here visiting relatives.

Jacob Stone returned the first of the week from a lengthy visit with his daughter, Mrs. O. Shields, and family, in Portland.

Mr. Nealon and daughter, Miss Katherine of Table Rock visited friends in this city recently.

Miss Leata Aydlott of Medford was in this city Sunday visiting friends and former acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Herd of Washington state are here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Smith in the suburbs.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Grieve and son, Master Hestin, former residents of this city, but now proprietor of the Prospect hotel, are in the city now for a few days visit with relatives and friends.

J. O. Isaacson, Mrs. H. Price, Mrs. J. C. Herring, Mrs. Ager and son, Mrs. and Miss Norwood were among the people from this vicinity in Medford Monday.

KANE CREEK ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Householder spent Thursday on Sardine creek the guest of their daughter, Mrs. Duesenberry, and family.

Mr. Leslie of Medford, who has been the guest of Cass Higinbotham and family since Tuesday, returned home.

Mrs. Mardon spent a day recently with Gold Hill friends.

Word received by private correspondence from Alhambra, Cal., states that the weather is "some hot" and rain is greatly needed.

Quite a few Kanes Creekers were in Gold Hill Saturday night to attend the play which was given by local talent and pronounced it a success. This troupe is fast climbing the ladder to success and in a few years time will be touring the state.

John Chandler and wife of Merlin, Ore., have moved to the Braden mine where Mr. Chandler has secured employment.

Kanes Creek business visitors to Gold Hill this week: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Mardon, Bert Coffman, Mrs. Boggis, Pearl Higinbotham, Mike Foley, Fred Brown, Mr. Barker, Mr. Norris and son Walter, Mrs. Higinbotham, Art Boggis, Mr. Knotts and son Eckell and Ralph Householder and Weather Prophet Foster.

Byrley and Lewis were Hub City business visitors on Saturday.

Miss Mary Boggis of the Braden spent a day recently the guest of Mrs. Higinbotham.

Prophet Foster forecasts fine weather with an occasional shower.

Mrs. Higinbotham and daughter Pearl spent Sunday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Lyman near town.

John Maron and wife were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Kinney's of Sams Valley.

Professor Jasper Miller of Medford was a recent Kanes Creek business visitor.

The Dardanells school will close Friday, May 23, with appropriate exercises. Much credit is due the teacher, Professor Johnson, for his untiring efforts in behalf of the school, of which he has been teacher for the past nine months.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council of the city of Medford, Oregon, at its regular meeting on June 3, 1913, for a license to sell spirituous, vinous and malt liquors in quantities less than a gallon, at his place of business at No. 2 N. Front st., in said city, for a period of six months.

E. G. BROWN.

ORDINANCE NO. 747.

An ordinance cancelling and repealing Ordinance No. 721, being an ordinance granting certain franchises and privileges unto M. T. Minney, his heirs and assigns, for the construction, operation and maintenance of a railway in the city of Medford.

Whereas, heretofore and on the 13th day of January, 1913, the Common Council of the City of Medford granted certain franchises, rights and privileges unto M. T. Minney, his heirs and assigns, by Ordinance No. 721, and

Whereas, said ordinance was amended by Ordinance No. 738 on the 10th day of April, 1913; and

Whereas, by sundry assignments now presented to the said Common Council of the City of Medford, and filed herewith, the said franchise rights and privileges are vested in Spencer S. Bullis, and he appearing herein and consenting to the repeal thereof upon consideration of the granting by this Common Council of new franchises, privileges and rights to him by Ordinance No. 748.

The City of Medford doth ordain as follows:

Section 1. That Ordinance No. 721 amended by Ordinance No. 738 be, and the same hereby is, repealed, annulled, revoked and cancelled, and the City Treasurer of the City of Medford is hereby authorized and instructed to deliver back to M. T. Minney, his heirs and assigns, the certain certified check in the amount of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2500.00) deposited upon acceptance of said franchise and that all rights and privileges, franchise rights, duties and obligations, granted or imposed by Ordinance No. 721, as amended by Ordinance No. 738, be cancelled, revoked, annulled and discharged.

The foregoing ordinance was passed by the City Council of the City of Medford, Oregon, the 16th day of May, 1913, by the following vote: Mitchell, aye; Campbell, aye; Summerville, aye; Porter, aye; Stewart, aye, and Millar, aye.

Approved May 17, 1913.

W. W. EIFERT, Mayor.
