COURT ASSERTS SULZER UNABLE TO GRANT PARDON

KINGSTON, N. Y., Sept. 11.—The exact status of Governor William Sulzer of New York, impeached by the state legislature on charges of malfeasance in office, was definitely determined here today when Justice Hasbrouck ruled that Sulzer is powerless to pardon Joseph G. Robin, former New York banker, convicted of misappropriating bank deposits, pending the result of his trial before the impeachment court which assembles in Albany soon.

Governor Sulzer recently pardoned Robin upon recommendations from District Attorney Whitman's office in New York. Evidence uncovered since conviction, it was said, showed Robin innocent. The penitentiary warden, however, refused to release Robin, contending that Sulzer had been automatically removed from office by his impeachment by the legislature. Robin's attorneys then sought his release by habeas corpus proceedings, but Justice Hasbrouck denied the application.

Justice Hasbrouck held the assembly was properly in session when it impeached Sulzer.

EXCELLENT FRUIT AT THE COUNTY FAIR

The exhibits of fruit, grains and vegetables at the fair this year are not as large as they should be, but the quality is first class and cannot be excelled anywhere.

O. J. Ames who lives near the Bybee bridge on Rogue river makes a wonderful display of eighty varieties of garden and farm products that would be a credit to any state fair. They were all grown by himself. Last year he made a display of 48 varieties

Another very creditable display of garden and farm produce is made by the Table Rock neighborhood consisting of 50 or more varieties. This display was gathered and arranged by Mr. Pendleton. In the display is some corn that would make middle west farmers sit up and take notice.

S. Pennison of Ashland who is a lover of flowers makes a display of 41 varieties of dahlias, 10 varieties of asters and nine varieties of geraniums. The Medford Greenhouse, the Eden Valley Nursery and others display flowers.

There are some of the largest and finest pumpkins, squash, watermelons cantaloupes, potatoes on display that were ever seen anywhere. One school boy exhibits a squash that weighs over 100 pounds.

The children's department is a new feature this year and is a very creditable one, showing vegetables, flowers, painting, drawing, fancy work and articles made in the manual training department of the Medford schools. The exhibits from Phoenix in this department are unusually good.

Displays are made by the Korineck Veterinary Remedy company, Oregon Central Cigar factory, Pacific Furniture and Fixture company, Medford Candy company, Fisher Flouring mills, Medford Cement and Brick Works, Medford Concrete Construction company, Jacksonville Brick and Tile company, Hubbard brothers, Valley Motor and Tractor company, Rogue River Fruit and Produce company, Medford Sash and Door company, Gerkin and Harmon, photographers, Whiteman Carburetor Adjustor company, Eden Valley Nurseries.

The ladies' department under the grandstand is an excellent one and shows products of kitchen and pantry, art and needle work, canned fruit, paintings, etc., and must be seen to be appreciated.

The poultry pens are filled with fancy stock the best ever shown and the stock display is splendid. Premium tags have been attached to everything showing the prize winners.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

By A. C. Howlett.

Mrs. J. F. Cartsen of Butte Falls has been visiting Miss Gernell Jackson.

Miss Ethel Siglinger who has charge of the intermediate department of our school arrived in town last week and took charge of her classes Monday morning.

Died, Wednesday, Sept. 3, 1913, the infant son of Charles and Lillie Cincade, aged six weeks and three days, the interment took place in the Central Point cemetery on the 4th, religious service were conducted by Rev. A. C. Howlett.

T. A. Betty and wife accompanied by Rev. L. L. Simmons, wife and daughter, Miss Bertha, autoed to Crater Lake last week.

Last Friday Mr. W. A. Kenney of Portland, traveling in the interest of Sellers & Co., was a pleasant caller at the Sunny Side, also Mr. H. M. Coss and Harry C. Johnson of Medford. And while they were here Dr. W. W. Holt our physician, and a friend of his, Prof. Harry Means Crooks, president of the Albany college, also called for dinner. The professor was out in this section looking after the interest of the college.

The street work is progressing under the supervision of Chris Natwick they have the rock crusher running night and day and a force of ten or twelve teams hauling.

Mrs. Howlett and the three young ladies who accompanied her to Fort Klamath, and daughter, Hattie, Miss Loretta Childreth and Miss Mabel Wamsley, returned last Thursday evening, the girls report that they had more fun than they ever had in all their lives, it was a continuous round of pleasure from the time they started, but they were interrupted occasionally by coming in contact with a broken down auto, they say that they will always take the good old fashioned mode of traveling, a good span of horses and a covered hack.

Charles Gay and George Porter, one of the city dads of Medford, passed through here last Saturday on their way to Crater Lake and got about two miles out of town, with their auto and broke a spring so had to return and have the damaged spring repaired. Geo. Fisher did the work.

In the proper place I omitted to state that last Thursday Attorneys Mulkey and Colvig and Mr. Gore were out trying to persuade the citizens of our town that it was to their interest to bond the county for money to make good roads, but as that has already been reported over the wire it is unnecessary for me to take up space for further notice.

Mrs. W. W. P. Holt and daughter, Miss Helen, started for Berkeley Saturday to attend the wedding of her sister.

Married, on Sunday, Sept. 7, 1913, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. L. L. Simmons, L. Frank Abbott and Miss Fay Nichols. The bride and groom are well and favorably known in our town and their many friends wish them a smooth and happy journey over life's sea.

Our school was opened this Monday morning and a further notice will be given next time I write.
