$300 SUBSCRIBED FOR CANNERY AT LAST NIGHT'S SHOW

The Commercial club's entertainment at the Page last night did more than entertain. The committees of the Commercial club and Merchants' association made good use of the occasion to solicit subscriptions to complete the small amount needed to start the Hoke canning factory here. President Gates fairly outdid himself as an exhorter, and over $300 was added to the lists, thus insuring the success of the enterprise.

The following took shares in the Hoke Cannery project Friday night: J. A. Westerlund, Col. H. H. Sargent, F. Y. Medynski, N. S. Bennett, Frank Glidden, Ralph Cowgill, John Summerville, Jake Klippell, F. W. Carnahan, Will G. Steel, E. D. Weston, L. Bundy, O. M. Selsby, Roy G. Smith, E. E. Kelly, Gus Samuels, E. M. McKeany, Carpenter Bros., Mrs. B. G. Worthington, T. J. Williamson, F. O. Gattwinkle and I. J. Dodge.

IS THERE MONEY IN HOGS? READ THIS AND SEE

D. A. Wood of the Applegate, has a consignment of 87 hogs at the stock yards ready for shipment to the Portland market tonight, that illustrates the possibilities of hog raising in the Rogue river valley. The hogs will bring $1650. The same group consist of 70 more at home and Mr. Wood will clear in the neighborhood of $1000 on this lot for the year. The shipment will average 230 pounds, and are a fine, fat lot. Mr. Wood has a 200 acre stock ranch ,and came here two years ago from Iowa, and saw at once the rich possibilities of this section as a hog raising district.

CONSUL INVESTIGATING DEATH OF BENTON

Arthur Charles Percival, British consul, who has charge of that government's investigation in Texas and Mexico into the death of William S. Benton, who was believed to have been shot in the office of General Villa, has found it impossible to go on with the work. The commission of British and American representatives who had decided to go to Chihuahua to see the body of the murdered man, learned that little attention would be paid to them, so they called of the trip.

ENGLAND'S CELEBRATED PRIZE WINNER COMING TO AMERICA.

WHITE MARQUIS

Aristocratic bulldogs and others on the fringe of the aristocracy will meet in the annual open show to be held in New York Saturday, May 9. It is probable that White Marquis, the celebrated British prize winner, will make his first bench appearance at this show. The troubles which for a while threatened to keep this fine specimen from ever getting to America have been overcome and he will be shipped over at an early date.

White Marquis won his championship honors at the Crufts Show in England, a week before our Westminster exhibition was held, and since then has won whenever shown, including at the Palacy, at Leeds and at Dublin.

MRS. GERLINGER SUES ATTORNEYS $50,000 DAMAGES

PORTLAND, Ore., April 4.—The outcome of the use of a detectaphone by which evidence introduced at her cent breach of promise suit against Lloyd Frank, a prominent merchant, at the conclusion of which she was awarded one dollar, Mrs. Gertrude Gerlinger, a pretty divorcee, today filed suit against Frank's attorneys, Charles H. Carey, Bert Haney and George Joseph, the William J. Burns National Detective Agency, J. H. Huddleston, proprietor of the Buena Vista apartments and F. E. Glenn, janitor of the apartments, for $50,000 damages on the grounds of trespassing.

Mrs. Gerlinger alleges that the attorneys maliciously employed the agency to place the detectaphone in her room with the assistance of Huddleson and Glen. She alleges that through the machine conversation of a private nature were recorded and later published to the community when introduced at the trial.

All Go to Church

Even if we do feel inclined to go fishing, or to go out by auto into the sunshine, it will do us good to go against our inclinations for once and go to church tomorrow. Once more estimate the value of the work done in the churches and the possible influence on character of the ideals and sentiments expressed in service and message. Action and conduct in all life's relations are the most important of all that we might name as essential to right living, but right action and right conduct are impossible without right ideals. A welcome will await each one at the church of his choice. It may be the most enjoyable day of the week to you. WESTON F. SHIELDS.

"GENERAL" KELLY GETS SIX MONTHS IN COUNTY JAIL

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 4.—"General" Charles Kelley, leader of the unemployed "army" recently routed out of Sacramento, was sentenced today by Justice Clarken to six months in the county jail after Kelley had been found guilt yof vagrancy by a jury.

Kelley made an impassioned plea for clemency, asking the court to remember the stigma about to be placed upon his innocent wife and two boys.

"The jury was prejudiced against me," Kelley said. "I am not guilty of the charge of vagrancy. I own two lots and a home in Oakland and draw a salary from two periodicals. It was not our intention to stop in Sacramento. I started out with the understanding from a railroad man, whose name I refuse to divulge, that the 'army' was to be taken over the Southern Pacific lines to Ogden, Utah."

DURAZZZO, Albania, April 4.—King William, Albania's new ruler, announced today he would take the field personally against the Greek insurgents in the southern part of his realm.

PREACHER TEARS DOWN SPITE FENCE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 4.—After demolishing a spite fence built in front of their place of worship by Robert Stoll, who claims ownership of a strip of ground two feet wide in front of the edifice, Rev. W. L. Williams of the First Cumberland Presbyterian church and members of his congregation were guarding the place today to prevent the reconstruction of the offending fence.

Rev. Williams yesterday led a party of raiders, equipped with axes and picks, against the offending barricade. Stoll held out against the raiders as long as he could, but when they had torn down two-thirds of the structure he fled.

Offers to purchase the disputed property from Stoll failed, so Williams gathered his flock together and took the law in his own hands. No legal steps have yet been taken against the militants.

INJUNCTION STOPS FEDERAL LEAGUE'S OFFERS TO PIRATES

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., April 4.—Chancellor Henderson issued today a permanent injunction against Howard Camnitz, a Federal League scout, preventing him from dickering with baseball players now under contract with the Pittsburg National League club.

In rendering his decision, Judge Henderson said that had any member of the Pirates requested the local chancery court to decide the validity of the contracts he would have declared them void because they lacked mutuality. He denied, however, that Camnitz had the right to raise the question.

The injunction prevents Camnitz from conversing with any of the Pirates.

Judge Henderson said the contracts were not mutual because they allowed the club to discharge players with only ten days notice, but did not allow the players to quit the club. He condemned Camnitz for his efforts to induce Pittsburg players to jump to the outlaw league. Camnitz considered the dicision a victory for the Federal League because of its remarks regarding organized baseball contracts.

WHY SHOULD I GO TO CHURCH?

As a citizen, for the sake of my country in whose laws and institutions and liberties religion has played such an important part.

For the sake of my children and the moral well being of my neighbors' children.

For the sake of the debt my age owes to the emancipation of body, mind and soul of the men of yesterday, who made today what it is.

For my own sake, to keep the ideals and principles of life clear in my sight, to keep me in sympathetic touch with my fellow men, and to put me in touch with God, in whom we live and move and have our being.

For the sake of the world, which is looking to America for leadership in thinking and material progress and morals.

For the sake of tomorrow and the generations to come, who will bless or curse us according to the heritage we leave them.

I find life and the world full of good reasons why I should identify myself with the church, and only a few flimsy excuses for remaining outside.

Imaginary Heart Trouble

Do you have pains in the region of the heart? Does your heart thump? Its terrible pounding greatly alarms you? What is wrong? Do you believe these symptoms mean heart trouble? Organic diseases of the heart very seldom occasion much pain, but are stealthy and deadly. Nine-tenths of the pains supposed to be in the heart, are either in, or caused by some derangement of the stomach. Often a dyspeptic imagines he has heart disease.
