EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

s of all parties to confer on the on resulting from the overthrow Zaimis cabinet, and it is ex the ministerial crisis will end twenty-four hours.

tons of the address of Former r Venizelos of Greece to the er of deputies just before the of the Zaimis ministry are as follows by the Havas cordent at Athens

On Saturday night the Eagle Point Entertainment company gave a masque ball that was well attended, and those who were in attendance report having had a fine time, the only trouble seeming to be that there was not room enough in the hall, so that the people, and especially the dancers, did not have the room that they needed. Those who masked seemed to take a great deal of pains to look neat, and while some of them had a grotesque appearance, there was nothing in the low or vulgar to mar the beauty of the occasion, and every one with whom I have talked expressed themselves as highly pleased. Sunday night the same company gave a moving picture show, but I have not heard any report from that, but do not think that they made a success out of it, as there had been two dances, one on Friday and the other on Saturday night.

And then to wind up the Hallowe'en festivities, the teachers in our school had a Hallowe'en party for the school children, as well as for the older ones. They had the parent-teachers' meeting in the first part of the evening and talked over the wants and needs of the school and how they could manage to beautify the school ground, and at the close of that part of the program the young folks came in for their share of the fun. They had a pole about six inches in diameter placed on two ladders about ten feet apart, and had the boys and in some instances young men sit straddle of the pole and battle with each other with feather pillows, and the fun was to sit on the pole and fight and keep the other fellow from knocking you off, for your feet could not touch the ground. In addition to that, they had been provided with a load of dry limbs and a lot of other combustibles to make a large bonfire, and to cap the climax there was provided something like five dozen pumpkin pies and all the sweet cider that all hands could drink, donated by L. K. Haak. This ended the festivities of our Hallowe'en.

There was but very little on the mischievous order, as I saw but very little that had been done that would particularly inconvenience anyone.

Word came to me Saturday afternoon that the store and residence of L. D. Swihart—they were together—were burned to the ground Friday night while Mr. and Mrs. Swihart were attending a social party at the home of John Allen, but I did not mention it in my last, as I wanted to learn the particulars before I reported of the case. I understand that he was not at that time carrying any insurance on the property, although he had had the property insured, but after the McLeod fire the company had notified Mr. S. that they would not insure where the store and residence were under the same roof. I have not learned the loss sustained, but it is very hard on Mr. and Mrs. Swihart to lose their all.

Leonard Deweese started for San Francisco, Cal., Saturday to try to find a position of some kind where he can make both ends meet. He has left his wife and child here temporarily while he is on the hunt.

Pete Young and his sister, Clara, were doing shopping in our town Saturday.

Mr. Stanley, Sr., and wife have moved to Butte Falls from their place on Salt creek to spend the winter.

W. E. Hammill has had shipped in from Seattle a lot of wire fencing.

Saturday evening Rev. M. C. Davis of Wolf creek came out to visit me, and after spending the night we went together to Tolo, reaching there in time to meet the Sunday school, and at the close I preached for them and in the afternoon Brother Davis preached to a very appreciative audience, judging from the way they paid attention and the greeting they gave him at the close of the services.

At the close of the services I took him in the buggy and drove as far as the "Scenic avenue," and there he left me for Central Point, so that he could catch No. 16 and go home that night, and I turned my course up or down "Scenic avenue," I hardly know which, and was naturally looking for something on the scenic order, and the first thing that particularly attracted my attention was an old moss-covered post and rail fence and on a little further I found an old-fashioned worm rail fence and they did surely look "scenic," but the most of the farms I passed were up to date, and after driving a few miles I came to the home of E. H. Davis, on the Dr. Ray ranch, where I spent the night, and in the morning he renewed his subscription to the D. M. T., sold me 25 pounds of grapes for 25 cents, and I started on my way for home and found about thirty persons at the Sunnyside waiting for dinner, and Mrs. H. reported that there were 43 guests there for dinner Sunday noon and 30 for supper Sunday night.

Tuesday Dr. J. L. Hill of Medford phoned out that he and his wife, Rev. J. C. Rollins and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison would be out for dinner, and in due time they arrived and we had a very pleasant time together. The doctor is a fine conversationalist and so is Rev. Rollins. He is the pastor of the M. E. church of Medford.

Herman Meyer and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Setzer, and her two daughters were here for dinner Saturday, and so was George Austin and his cousin, Miss Grace Austin of Climax, and Mr. Dristoll, the chief game warden, and his deputy, Ed Walker. Art Smith was also here. He arrived from Crater Lake on Sunday afternoon, and A. N. Mullen and E. L. Culbertson of Jacksonville. Also Mrs. Mary Beale and her two sons, Polk and Corbin, of Butte Falls. They were here Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Miller of Portland were here Tuesday night on their way to their homestead on Trail creek.

W. Hart Hamilton and son, Sherman, who have been boarding with us for the past three months, started for their home in San Jose, Cal., Monday morning. He has left Frank Abbott in charge of his place during his absence. Frank Abbott paid up a balance due on his subscription to the D. M. T. and had it discontinued and subscribed for the W. M. T., as he moves onto the old Ashpole place, now owned by Mr. Hamilton, so that he can't get his mail every day.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why it relieves sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for billiousness or constipation.

This city will have as many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach misery and indigestion in five minutes.
