Local Briefs

News of the death of Corporal Paul Robinson, a former well known young Medford man and member of company 7, who died in France of diphtheria, April 22d, has just been received by Mrs. A. H. Wissing from Mrs. H. D. Foster of Portland, former resident of Medford and a cousin of Mr. Robinson. He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Foster while living in Medford. Paul Robinson enlisted in the medical corps in North Dakota at the beginning of the war and had long served in France. He had just passed with high grade the examination for hospital sergeant a short time before he was taken ill. During most of his residence here he was a student at the O. A. C.

The fact that last night's Victory week celebration crowd was the largest in Medford since 1910 in the boom days and that there was not a single case of rowdyism, disturbance or accident of any kind is regarded by many people with wonder today. "I never saw anything like it," said Chief of Police Timothy. "We had not an extra policeman on, and all we had to do was to try and keep the little children out of the crowded Main street. We didn't have to do that even."

One of the most enjoyable features of the opening night of Victory week was the Victory ball at the Natatorium. The large hall was thronged with gay crowds of dancers until a late hour last night. They danced with more enthusiasm than has been seen since war was declared. Launspach's orchestra responded to encore after encore of the snappiest dance music. Another big Victory dance will be held Friday night, May 9, same place and same music.
