

SAILORS REVOLVED AT SEVASTOPOL.

Avenge Schmidt by Capturing Officers and Burning City.

FORTS FIRE ON GREAT PORT

Execution of Leader in Mutiny Brings Terrible Retribution—Daring Robbery of Immense Sum From Bank.

PETERSBURG, March 20.—Most sensational reports are current tonight that the execution of ex-Lieutenant Schmidt, which has made a deep impression throughout Russia, has been followed by an extensive mutiny among the sailors at Sevastopol, the massacre of their officers and firing by the fortress upon the city.

Whole City in Flames.

The alleged news came in the form of two cipher telegrams to a prominent member of the Social Revolutionary party, such as the revolutionaries have sometimes been able to transmit through accomplices in the telegraph offices when the public and even the government have been unable to communicate.

As translated and displayed at the offices of the newspaper here, the telegrams say briefly that the sailors, infuriated by the refusal of Emperor Nicholas to pardon Lieutenant Schmidt and their fellow-sailors, rose in their barracks and seized and imprisoned the majority of their officers. The dispatches added that the city of Sevastopol is almost entirely in flames.

Afraid to Publish News.

The admiral affected ignorance as to the occurrence of any such affair. The papers, in view of the menace of the new press law, which provides that they may be closed up for spreading false news affecting the army or navy, are afraid to take chances by publishing the story tomorrow.

BANK ROBBED OF $432,500

Daring Crime of Band of Experts in Moscow.

MOSCOW, March 20.—The Credit Mutual, one of the largest banks in Moscow, was mysteriously robbed by masked men at dusk tonight, the robbers securing $432,500. It was an unusually daring job. The facts already known are that the question whether the robbery was committed by or under the direction of some one at present or previously employed in the institution. The bank is situated in Hlinka street, in the heart of the city.

The last of the clerks had just departed, leaving an inside guard of three men, while under the portico on the side were a policeman and the house porter. The street was crowded with people hurrying homeward. According to the story of the guards, in the twinkling of an eye they were confronted with revolvers in the hands of 20 masked men who had entered silently by the main door, which had been locked when the office forces left. Except a command to the guard to hold up their hands, not a word was spoken.

The guards were quickly bound and gagged and thrown into a dark corner. The robbers then took up positions at all the entrances, and the curtains of all the windows were lowered. The chief of the robbers, who directed the operations of his associates by gestures and without speaking, showed thorough familiarity with the location of the vaults. When all was ready he went to the heavy burglar-proof safe and with a few twists of the knob threw the combination out of the lock, the heavy door swung open, and the treasure of the bank was revealed. The plunder, consisting of gold, silver and notes, was speedily thrust into sacks. When a clean hand of the money had been made, not a keop being left, the robbers departed as silently as they came, making their exit through the main entrance and leaving no trace behind them. They had been in the bank less than half an hour.

Twenty minutes later one of the guards succeeded in releasing himself and gave the alarm. The dumb-founded policeman and house porter, who had been standing in front of the bank throughout, claim they had seen no one enter or leave it. An immense crowd was attracted to the scene by the news of the robbery.

Blames Defeat on System

Kuropatkin Says That Bureaucrats Ruined Army of Manchuria.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 20.—General Kuropatkin's last order of the day to the First Manchurian Army, printed in the Russian Invalid (the military organ) today, is a remarkable exposure of the causes of the Russian defeat, showing that they were due to lack of preparation and equipment, and to the fact that there were no explosives held for the mountain artillery, etc., in the early stages of the war. He does not shirk his own responsibility as Minister of War before the war broke out, but points out that the causes of the defeat are deeper, namely the morale of the troops, and of the officers, who did not display initiative, independence or enthusiasm.

Anti-Hazing Bill in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., March 20.—The Senate today passed the House anti-hazing bill, and it now goes to the Governor. The bill provides that any student of any university or school, public or private, found guilty of hazing, shall be fined not more than $200 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both. The heads or instructors of schools who knowingly permit hazing are amenable to a fine of not exceeding $50.

WILL TOUR WEST INDIES

Mrs. Roosevelt Will Take Her Youngsters on Yacht.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by her sons Archie and Quentin and her daughter, Miss Ethel, and possibly by her son Kermil, who is at school at Groton, Mass., will leave Washington, the latter part of next week for Florida. They will go aboard the converted yacht Mayflower and make a cruise to the West Indies. They will visit Cuba and Porto Rico, stopping at both Havana and San Juan. It is expected the party will be absent ten days or two weeks. The Mayflower left Washington yesterday for Ferdinand.

Taft's Second Voyage

Philippine Party Gives Secretary Banquet in Original Style.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Secretary and Mrs. Taft were the guests tonight at a banquet given at the New Willard Hotel in the Secretary's honor by the members of the Congressional party which accompanied him to the Philippines last year. The menu cards termed the occasion the "Second Voyage of the Taft Philippine Party," and the affair was unique in many respects. The banquet hall presented a varicolored scene with snatches here and there of scenery from the Sandwich Islands, China, Japan and the Philippines.

WILL NOT FORTIFY ISLANDS

Senate Cuts Out Provision for Philippines—Pension Bill Passed.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—In less than 30 minutes the Senate voted away $100,000 of the Philippine funds. The sum is carried by the pension appropriation bill, which brief document was made the subject of very little discussion. The railroad rate bill was laid aside for the day, and the major portion of the time was devoted to the consideration of the fortification bill. In that connection the questions of the necessity for sea-coast fortifications in the Philippines were discussed at length, with the result that all provisions for such fortifications in these islands were eliminated. The consideration of the measure was not concluded. There was also a brief discussion of the power of the conference committee to amend the bill providing for punishment for premature divulgence of Government secrets so as to make the inhibition extended to Senators and members of the House of Representatives, but the subject was left undisposed of for the time.

Opportunity

An Electric Power Company developing 6000 horse power with water power owns 5000-acre Townsite on Railroad and River in the center of rich Farming, Fruit and Mining Country, wishes the aid of capital to properly place said Townsite on the market.

Owms some of the Richest Gold Mines in the state, both Quartz and Placer, will equip with machinery and furnish electric power for percentage of receipts.

Owms Marble, Granite, Limestone and Sandstone Quarries—wishes co-operation of capital to develop.

Owms and controls Logging Rights to large river with 6,000,000,000 feet of Sugar Pine, Yellow Pine and Fir to be floated out—wishes aid of capital to improve river.

Owner will be in city for three days only. Address, S. 58, Care Oregonian.

SAVING OF PENNIES

Business to Which House Devotes Whole Day.

CUTS IN SMALL SALARIES

Russian Students Demand Prayers for Soul of Schmidt.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 20.—Lieutenant Schmidt, leader of the naval revolt at Sevastopol in November last, who was tried by court-martial and shot near Otchakoff Fortress, with three sailors sentenced to death for mutiny, is being made a hero and a martyr by the revolutionists. The boys of the St. Petersburg Gymnasium struck today in order to compel the offering up of prayers in school for the repose of the soul of the Lieutenant.

Applies Knife of Economy to Its Own Employees—Members Take Revenge on Appropriation Committee for Sights.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The House of Representatives today did business with a microscope in one hand and the bill making appropriations for the salaries of its officers and employees in the other. The result was that the matter of hours was spent in reading the legislative appropriation bill for amendment, less than 25 pages were completed. The spirit of economy in little things was absorbing. Points of order were made and many of them were fatal to proposed increases in the salaries of officers, janitors, doorkeepers, messengers and laborers.

A point of order which made the engine-room of the House cost $29 instead of $20 a year, as proposed, caused a constitutional debate of more than an hour on the point as to whether the House could do as it saw fit in the matter of fixing the salaries of its employees. The conclusion seemed to be that it could, and that it prescribed its own action by its rules. However, these rules prohibited increasing a salary without provision of law.

The final round for the day was a debate as to whether the House could get good packing boxes as the Senate did for its members, and finally a move was made to eliminate packing boxes entirely from the perquisites of members, which failed.

Prince had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

Principle had stricken out on a point of order, a provision which gave the clerk of the House authority to discharge janitors. Some display of temper by members of the appropriations committee was shown when a point of order proved fatal not only to the proposed increases of the salaries of the sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper of the House, but to the entire salaries of those officers, as they remained for the pension appropriation bill. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House. It was a trick, he said, because made no effort to reinstate the regular salary, whereupon Fitzgerald of New York characterized this method of doing business as likely to lose prestige for the House.

A Mighty Congress of Surpassing Specialty Shops OLDS, WORTMAN & KING The "Different Store" 5th, 6th and Washington Streets

The Great Fashion Shows Open at 8 A. M. and Close at 6 P. M. Today

Grand Formal Openings Continue Here Today Springtime's Parade of Authoritative Fashions Again on Review

We believe it no mere idle boast to say that yesterday's great formal exposition of this store's most gorgeous and lavish collection of merchandise, embracing apparel--outer and under--for women and misses; fabrics for the making of garments for personal wear or household use; fine footwear and dress accessories; homefittings in the useful and decorative, etc.; was the most complete and marvelous convention of high-class goods in fashionably correct modes that has ever been congregated hereabouts.

Today's Peerless Attractions—Come: Don't Miss the Great French Court Scene (Grand Salons—Second Floor.)

The above is adapted from an incident at the court of the famous Josephine, the Queen and ladies-in-waiting being robed in beautiful costumes of the present day, but replicas of those worn by the ladies of the court circle in the time of Napoleon and Josephine.

Charming Orchestral Music, Chirp and Twitter of Nature's Songbirds and Beautiful Decorative Effects of Palms and Flowers

Magnificent and Lavish Displays of Splendid New Merchandise Will vie with Nature's palms and callas, and flowering trees, amid the branches of which hide feathered songsters that fill the air with melody from a hundred tuneful throats.

A Festival of Spring Fashions Professor Everest's Orchestra will discourse selections from 2 to 5 P. M. Today

See the magnificent French Court Scene—Second Floor Enjoy the peerless Merchandise Shows—On every floor

Feast the eye and ear on Nature's Contribution of Flowers, Palms and Trees from among which comes trilling the music of songbirds

The Window Displays beckon the visitor to a nearer and closer acquaintance with the wonders in the store—Come!

Canadian Miners Talk Dynamite. WINNIPEG, Man., March 20.—Mounted police are being held in readiness at Calgary, Macleod and Lethbridge to be safeguarded for any outbreak at the Lethbridge coal mines, where miners on strike are said to be going around with sticks of dynamite in their pockets, writing threatening letters to managers and acting in a threatening manner in other ways.

NEW HARD COAL CONFERENCE Baer Agrees to Meet Miners, but Holds Out No Hope. NEW YORK, March 20.—There will be a conference between the two committees of seven miners each, representing the anthracite coal operators and miners of the hard coal district. This was decided upon at a meeting in this city today, of the committee of operators. Later President George F. Baer, of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway, forwarded a letter to President Mitchell, of the United Mineworkers of America, notifying him that the operators' committee is willing to meet the miners' committee at any date Mr. Mitchell may select.

HAVE FLED WRATH TO COME Men Responsible for Abobe Wreck Cannot Be Found. PUEBLO, Colo., March 20.—A special to the Chieftain from Canon City says: After being out two hours, the Coroner's jury investigating the Abobe wreck disaster reported that it could not return a verdict until it had heard the testimony of Lively, the agent, and Van Druen, the operator of Swallows. As neither could be produced, the inquest was adjourned until 1:30 P. M. Monday. The officers of Pueblo, Denver and other cities have been asked to search for the missing men.

BRITISH FLEE FROM CHINA Steamers Crowded With Refugees Who Fear Early Rebellion. HONG KONG, March 20.—(Special.)—English merchants trading in Northern China say the Chinese everywhere anticipate a rising on a large scale in the immediate future. British families are leaving as fast as they can, and Chinese and Manchus are sending their wives and children away. Steamers at northern ports have all their accommodations taken for three months to come.

Battleship Oregon at Honolulu. HONOLULU, March 20.—The battleship Oregon, which is returning to San Francisco for repairs, has arrived here from the Orient. It is reported that a structural weakness has developed under the strain of her heavy guns. For some time, it is understood, there has been an order to not use the 12-inch guns except in case of necessity. The Oregon will sail on March 26 for San Francisco.

New Engineer for Puget Sound. SPOKANE, Idaho, March 20.—Major H. M. Chittenden, United States Engineer in charge of the Missouri River and Yellowstone National Park work, has received official notice of his transfer to Seattle to be in charge of river and harbor work at Seattle, Tacoma and Gray's Harbor.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. FLETCHER

The Genuine Pianola Pianos and Metrostyle Pianola Are sold only by EILERS PIANO HOUSE, Stores at Portland, Spokane, Boise, San Francisco, Stockton, Oakland and all other important points.

100 Doses $1 True only of Hood's Sarsaparilla, in the usual (liquid) form; or in the new and equally effective tablet form.

100 Doses $1