AGATE ITEMS

The recent rain will be of much benefit to the spring crops and was much appreciated by most of the farmers.

Miss Pearl Timmons is visiting with her parents, having recently returned from the vicinity of Yoncella where she completed the teaching of a successful term of school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McCay went up to Prospect Saturday and returned Sunday accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Peyton, who will visit with home folks for a few days.

Miss Cosette Tetherow finished teaching a very satisfactory term of school at Agate last Tuesday. The next day the school children accompanied by Miss Tetherow and a few visitors went to Bybee bridge, where they enjoyed a fine picnic dinner.

Miss Irma Hamilton and Miss Ruby Timmons of this district finished their high school courses this year. Miss Hamilton graduated from the Medford school and Miss Timmons from the Central Point school.

Miss Fay Beebe is home now, having just returned from Ashland, where she has been staying with her sister Mrs. Head, and attending the Ashland high school.

Some of the first cutting of alfalfa was slightly damaged by the rain, but this will be probably more than offset by the increased second crop, because of the added moisture.

The Canal company is having a large modern hay barn built on the headquarters ranch. Ed Whiteside is doing the carpenter work.

WILLOW SPRINGS

R. W. Nichols is having the house on his home place painted. The new barn there has just been completed.

The Parent Teacher's circle will hold their last meeting, until fall, on Saturday, June 4, at the home of Mrs. W. K. Parker. It promises to be an interesting meeting, as Miss Van Sant, head of the Medford library, will be present and talk to the ladies on interesting and instructive books for children. It is hoped that every member will be able to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson and family of Central Point, were calling on Seven Oaks friends Monday evening.

Albert Forgey was down from Portland to make his parents a few day's visit and take his wife and daughter home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elden entertained a large party of friends at a Sunday night supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompkins, who leave for Dunsmuir soon and Mrs. R. C. Brophy and Miss Lucy Elden who leave Friday morning for a three month's visit in Rockford, Illinois.

There was a pleasant gathering of friends at the Hugh Porter home last Sunday afternoon. The event was in honor of Mr. Porter's birthday anniversary.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Finas Mayfield of the Meadows is at the Medford hospital very sick with appendicitis.

J. Myers was out to the Meadows with a truck to haul the Terrill Bros.' grain to town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius attended Chautauqua at Medford Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moore in the Meadows Saturday.

Several young folks of this neighborhood attended the barn dance at the Dodge ranch Saturday night.

Lester Rodgers and family of California are visiting his parents at Beagle.

Mr. Davis is hauling his farm implements from Willow Springs to his ranch in the Meadows.

Chas. Hockersmith was dragging the Meadows roads Tuesday.

B. C. Chapman is helping Mr. Frank Bybee with his haying this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones were out from Central Point Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Rodgers at the Beagle postoffice.

Charles Dearmond returned from the dance at the Dodge place by way of the Debenger Gap and got stuck in the stickey and had to walk a long way for help. Mr. Weiss helped him out.

Wm. Lewis is busy shearing his sheep at his Antioch ranch.

Mr. Gillette is hauling Theo. Glass' wheat to Central Point as he is shipping it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vincent were out from Jacksonville Sunday to visit friends.

EDEN PRECINCT

Although there are many tons of hay down in this part of the valley, yet the farmers are rejoicing over the heavy rains of last Friday night, as it will double the next crop of alfalfa, which will be free from weeds.

There are a number of strangers in this part of the valley looking for small tracts of land on which to build suburban homes. They want these tracts on the highway.

Our community was saddened by the death of one of our most respected neighbors, namely Mrs. James Allen, last Wednesday morning. Mrs. Allen had been a great sufferer for more than fifteen years, eight of which she had been perfectly helpless. The end came peacefully, after several days of gradual sinking. Mrs. Allen was a lady of unusual fortitude, always thinking of others instead of her own great sufferings. She was a woman of great charity, a true Christian, a devoted wife and mother. Our sympathy goes out to her devoted husband who tenderly cared for her though all these years of suffering.

Miss Liberta Gore was brought home last week and is able to be about in a wheel chair. Miss Gore has been in the hospital since March when she was injured in an auto accident on the highway. It will be some time yet before her limb can be set.

Mrs. Corless and Mrs. Fletcher Fish were in Medford Monday attending the sale at Mordoff and Woolf's.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw of North Talent were visiting Mr. Shaw's father in Ashland Sunday.

Guests at the pleasant home of J. E. Roberts Sunday were Mrs. Clair Spray of Roseburg and her two children, Mr. James Allen, Mrs. Macie Wright, Uncle George Roberts, Mr. A. H. Houston, besides the family of Mr. John Roberts, and Roy Coffman, who makes his home with Mr. Roberts. A most bounteous dinner was enjoyed by all.

Several relatives of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Watkins have paid them a visit while passing through the valley. Your correspondent has not obtained their names but have heard that they were in love with our valley, and one lady, a cousin of Mrs. Watkins, has been trying to find a location.
