Local and Personal

Mrs. Floyd Cook, of Portland, accompanied by her daughter and son, Miss Rowena Gale and Windsor Gale, arrived in Medford Sunday to spend the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Wagner. Windsor is a student at the Annapolis naval academy and is now on furlough. Mr. Cook will join the party in a few days.

Alta Vista packing house will start packing Tuesday morning, Sept. 10th. All interested please be on hand. 170*

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include W. Ed Williams of Hartford, Conn.; Horace Addie of Boise, Idaho; K. Ekelson of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Alma Clase of McCall, Ida.; Robert & Dewey Davis of Nampa, Ida.; Walter Granlin of Victoria, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Peterson and Henry and James Peterson of Kewanee, Ill.; A. S. Stacey of Lewiston, Ida. and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Thompson of Billings, Mont.

Card party at Parish Hall Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. All are invited. Refreshments served. Bridge and 500. 170*

Frank DeSouza and F. W. Kelly spent yesterday in the Applegate district, looking over the mining situation there and on Sterling creek.

St. Ann's Altar society will give a card party at the Parish Hall Tuesday evening. Public invited. 170*

Miss Elizabeth Putnam and Mrs. Bruce Howe, former well known residents here, and sister and niece respectively of George Putnam, newspaper publisher of Salem, are spending a short vacation at Kelly Island on the Rogue river. Mrs. Howe will return soon to her home in Chicago, having spent the past two months with the Putnams at Salem.

Runners removed and S.H.R.'S worked back in hose, silk underwear, golf sox, sweaters, etc. Handicraft Shop. 137tf*

Mr. and Mrs. J. McBurney of Klamath spent Sunday in Medford.

Rev. L. L. Mulholland of Klamath Falls has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist church at Springfield. He has been pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church at Klamath Falls for several years and is planning to take advanced work at the University of Oregon this fall in addition to his duties as pastor of the Springfield church.

For a smart pair of ladies shoes, properly fitted, at a very modest price, try the New Shoe Box, 223 East 6th street. U. J. Carpenter, Prop. 173*

Jake Fox who last Friday fell from a ladder while picking fruit at his home on the Pacific highway and suffered broken ribs and minor injuries, is said to be improving rapidly.

Fisher's Blend Scone booth will be in the old location in the fruit building this year. We plan to have the finest display we have ever had so far. 170*

Mrs. Elizabeth Simonsville of Butte Falls left yesterday for Eugene for a two weeks' visit after which she will return with her daughter, Ruth, who is there at this time.

Hemstitching, pleating, sheating, button making and hose mending. Handicraft Shop. 137tf*

Diamond Lake was a popular attraction for fishermen yesterday, according to Al Piche, who accompanied by T. Jones and Ed Smith, who were among the few local fishermen there. He reported that there were only two bass on the water for the greater part of the day and that he was unable to catch the limit, although his two fellow anglers had caught the limit of five fish long before evening.

The Older Tire Service, Inc., are now in their new location at 8th and Riverside where they will conduct their tire business. 172*

With the exception of seven all rural schools in Jackson county were in session this week and the remaining seven will open next week, according to the county school superintendent's office today. This number is made up of the Rich Some Valley, Applegate, Trail, Dodrill's Ely Creek, Lost Creek and Cove districts.

We'll Be Seeing You

at the Jackson County Fair. Four days of instructive entertainment which you can't afford to miss

Fluhrer's

V. Verne Shangle was among the local people who made the trip to Crater lake Sunday in the Curtiss plane. Mr. Shangle took a number of air views of the lake which he will have on display at his booth at the county fair this week.

A smart school oxford for girls, $2.50 to $5.00. The Shoe Box, 223 East 6th St. 173*

A building permit was issued by the city today to Mrs. Helen Toney to reshingle a dwelling at 232 South Grape street at a cost of $50.

Mr. and Mrs. William Musser were among the visitors in Medford today from the Glendale district.

Medford Typewriter Exchange—Rentals $3.00 per mo., 3 mos. $7.50. 146tf*

Among the many Californians registered at Medford hotels are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson of Red Bluff, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cornell of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Allen, Mrs. B. S. Macdonald of Oakland, M. M. Fullerton of Gustine, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Aedson, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Barrett of Glendale, Mrs. V. H. Allen of Montecello, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Herbert of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Fore, Ralph and Lena Hamer Welch of Sacramento, Mrs. E. Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gard, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dumbron, A. Baum and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Donn of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Thomson of Yosemite, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fraser of Altadena, Kiva Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Morrison and Mrs. E. K. French of San Francisco.

Buy them now. Medford factory blocks, $3.00 per load.—Med. Fuel Co., Tel. 631. tf*

Salem and Medford are the only points in the state where labor is needed, according to report by the seasonal employment commission, C. H. Gram, chairman, last Friday.

Mrs. James C. Hayes returned on the Southern Pacific this morning from Portland where she has spent the past week on business and pleasure.

We buy, sell or trade. The Real Estate Exchange, 28 N. Riverside. 172*

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fitzer of Klamath Falls were among the people from Klamath Falls spending Sunday in Medford.

A marriage license was issued at the county clerk's office this forenoon to Nels Nelson, 35, and Ella Anderson, 22, both of San Francisco.

You will be delighted with Primrose House chiffon face powder, $1.00 a box, including a dainty yellow puff, at Colvig Drug, next to Rialto. 168*

Miss Constance Andrews of this city is reported to be improving in San Francisco, where she underwent a minor operation last week.

For Marcelle Miracle Mineral Remedy Phone 248-W. 171

Mrs. Harry A. and Miss Edith Lachscher, C. Marie Wright, John Willis Wright, Mrs. M. O. Reale and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Craig of Seattle were visitors in Medford yesterday.

Special price $3.00 per load, Medford made factory blocks. Med. Fuel Co. Tel 631. tf*

If plans of A. J. Stump are the same this evening as they were this forenoon, he plans to leave tonight for Kansas City and St. Louis, Mo., for a business trip of five weeks. It will be his second visit there this year, having spent four months in Missouri and other middlewestern points this spring.

Buy them now, fcry blocks, $3.00 per load. Med. Fuel Co., Tel. 631. tf*

Chief Justice Coshow of the supreme court, as chairman of the state judicial council, is calling upon all circuit and supreme judges of the state to meet with the judicial council in Medford Friday, September 27. The meeting will be held in connection with the convention of the State Bar association, which will meet September 27 and 28.

Mrs. Ida Wood and Florence Graves, piano teachers, High school credits given. Phone 1042-W. 170*

Ralph Denman and Lowell Denney, local Boy Scouts, who recently received a 12 year scholarship to St. Joseph's college at Mountain View, California, left this morning for the south to take up their studies. They were the objects of an impressive farewell demonstration on the part of their large circle of young friends, including members of the Medford Mail Tribune carriers and fellow Scouts. Both boys are graduates of St. Mary's Academy grammar school and received the scholarship through Father Frederic W. Black and the California college as the result of outstanding academic accomplishments. Ralph has been a carrier for the Mail Tribune for the past year and a half.

Let us write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengwald, Hotel Holland. Phone 613. tf*

S. L. Dunn, local manager of the Southern Oregon Gas corporation is spending a few days in San Francisco on business, having left for the south the last of the week.

J. H. Culp of Albany, Ore., is a business visitor in Medford who arrived yesterday.

Fifty blocks now $3.00 per load. Med. Fuel Co., Tel. 631. tf*

Elevator Gene Detwiler, Cal. "Cowpuncher" is resuming duties as a faculty member in the Oregon Agricultural college. Miss Lucy Moore was a visitor over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Richmond at Willow Springs. While here she was a visitor at Crater Lake, where she also spent a week with Miss Willie Richmond a student of Miss Moore at college.

Hawaiian guitar, ukulele, Tahitian Spanish guitar and S.A.N.L. classes will reopen at Palmer's Music House Saturday, August 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Courtright of the Butte Falls district spent yesterday in the city on business and pleasure.

$3.00 per load summer price on fifty blocks. Med. Fuel Co., Tel. 631. tf*

The police department today was still continuing its efforts to locate Hershan McFarland, 14-year-old local boy, who is believed to have left home Saturday morning. The boy has red hair and has freckles.

Guardianship papers for Elsie Marjorie French of near Central Point were filed this forenoon at the county clerk's office by Attorney Frank DeSouza. The girl's step-mother, Mrs. Laura French, was appointed guardian.

Priscilla Meisinger, instructor. C. B. 788 for appointments. 158tf*

Oregonians registered at local hotels Sunday included Mrs. C. A. Bell, Mrs. C. E. Paddock of Hood River, Mrs. Geo. Messenger of Milwaukie, Emma K. Haley of Salem, M. H. Chadwick, Mildred Coleman of Eugene; Grace E. Landers, Marguerite Horney, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wheeler of Portland.

Get your Firestone tires and repair work done at the Older Tire Service, Inc. Now located 9th and Riverside. 172*

Mrs. Edith Stench was among the Yreka residents spending Sunday in Medford.

Ben Harrell writes from West Point that he has made the football squad but does not know what his chances are for the team. There are 80 on the squad, of which 15 are old college players.

Dynges dance Nat. Wed. & Sat. Good music. 170

Mrs. Charles Monroe and baby daughter, Mary Alice, of Glendale, California, have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bray for the past month. Mrs. Monroe will return home tomorrow, after having spent a very pleasant vacation in Medford, visiting Crater Lake and other points of interest in the valley. Mrs. Monroe and Mrs. Bray are girlhood friends, having known each other in Los Angeles before either was married. Mrs. Monroe is charmed with Medford and hopes to visit here again soon.

List your property with the Real Estate Exchange, 28 N. Riv. 172*

Roland G. Beards, assistant postmaster of Medford, sets in under the wire for the $5 subscription by sending his from Lincoln, Nebr. Roland says they expect to start home soon.

Typewriter cleaning and repairing. Medford Typewriter Exchange. 146tf*

Mrs. T. Shaw of Portland and Mrs. P. K. Hoyt of Klamath Falls, accompanied by Mr. Hoyt, are guests of their mother, Mrs. A. C. Howlett at Eagle Point. The Howlett home is still a very popular place for those who enjoy good home-cooked meals and Mrs. Howlett will does a big share of the work as she has for 79 years, despite the fact she is 82 years old. Last Sunday they fed everforty people for dinner and the Sunday before, sixty-five.

Free shampoo and marcel or finger wave: $1.00. Bowman's Barber and Beauty Shoppe. 188

C. M. English returned Sunday from an extended trip to Niagara, North Dakota. While there Mr. English had an accident which laid him up for some time. He has recovered sufficiently to be around.

Joseph Harrell of the Marine Aviation school at San Diego, is visiting in Eugene and will be in Medford the last of the week to visit relatives.

For work of all kinds: cleaning, tailor, remodeling, furs, gloves, jackets. Taxidermy. Hodges Fur shop, 42 South Central. Phone 762. 172

The Sacra Valley Grange booth at the county air promises to be especially interesting in its specialty department, according to preparations being made by Max Schmitz of the grange committee. He has made arrangements for the exhibition of a large collection of Indian relics unearthed at the William Little ranch near Gold Hill. The relics, including a large variety of pipes and earthen vessels, have attracted considerable attention for several months and have been the cause for many motorists to drive to the Little ranch to see them.

Medford made factory blocks now $3.00 per load. Med. Fuel Co. Tel. 631. tf*

William Prekshot, who has been critically ill at the Sacred Heart hospital, suffering from heart trouble, was reported today to be showing marked improvement. He has been employed as night watchman in the mill district, and resides in Central Point.

Funeral sprays and cut flowers. Sensenbrenner's Flower Garden, 704 Civic St. Phone 714-X. 157tf*

In addition to being successful on a fishing trip last week, Robert Reed, local representative for a wholesale milk concern, also captured a spotted skunk, and today was still finding painfully about the city, with the aid of a cane. He expects improvement to disperse with the aid of the cane in a short time.

Get Tucker fenders and auto bodies straightened at Britt's Sheet Metal Works, opposite Lewis Super Service Station. Phone 418. tf*

Mrs. O. C. Goss and son of Corvallis were among the residents of the state of Washington spending yesterday in this city.

$3.00 per load summer price on Medford made factory blocks. Med. Fuel Co. Tel. 631. tf*

The California Oregon Power company has applied to the federal power commission at Washington, D. C., for a license covering its contructed transmission line about 17 miles long, extending from its Fall Creek power plant in Siskiyou county, California, to the Gold Ray power plant in Jackson county, Oregon. The line is operated at 66,000 volts and supplies power for industrial, domestic, commercial and agricultural purposes in Jackson county.

Dynges dance Nat. Wed. & Sat. Good music. 170

Federal Agent Terry Talent left this forenoon by motor for a short business trip to Portland. He was accompanied by J. L. Hill, night clerk at the Hotel Holland, who plans to spend a vacation of a week in the state metropolis.

Extra special values all this week at the Emmy Lou Hat Shop in the M. M. Store. Real money savers. Hats marked $2.98-$2.98 go on to $7.50. Kiddie hats $1.50. Green stamps given. 176*

Of interest to her local friends is the recent marriage in Los Angeles of a former Medford and Central Point girl, Miss Ruth Sebrean, who was married to Kenneth Caldwell, a former Grants Pass resident. Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell are making their home in Los Angeles but have plans of leaving for Vancouver, B. C., to spend the winter. Mrs. Caldwell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sebrean, former proprietors of the F. & H. theatre, destroyed by fire in Central Point two years ago.

Smart Felts at the Band Box, 223 East 6th street. Exclusive but not expensive, $4.95 and up. Green stamps given. 176*

Frank Pettygrew of the Eagle Point district was a business visitor in the city today.

Temporary auto licenses were issued at the sheriff's office this forenoon to Fred Lester and R. H. Cox of Medford and Chris Keegan of Jacksonville.

Imogene Wallace, accredited teacher of piano. Studio, 235 East Main St. 176*

Four deer, one of which was a large buck, were seen near Butte Falls this morning by Melvin Grigsby while en route to Medford from the Owen-Oregon lumber camps. The deer were leisurely browsing along the roadside, and would have made easy hunting had the season been open, he said. He is of the opinion that deer are more numerous there than in past years.

Watch fancy Elberta peaches. Public Market, Tuesday. 170*

Attorney Harry Skyrman was expected to return today from a short business trip to Portland.

State Traffic Lieutenant O. O. Nichols plans to leave tomorrow for Salem for a short conference with state traffic officials in connection with the action to be taken by the traffic department in taking charge of state public service commission work. He will be gone for several days.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Medford will have a banquet dinner at Jackson Hot Springs Wednesday evening at 6:30. The lodges will furnish ice cream, coffee and watermelon. This is the first outing for this year and a large turnout is expected. All Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their families are privileged to this festivity.

Several parties of local people attended the last day of the Josephine county fair at Grants Pass Saturday, declaring it to be the best fair ever put on in the neighboring county.

Some interesting movies of the Sourdough Gulch pioneer mining show at the Josephine county fair were taken Saturday by H. L. Bromley, camera man and Copco advertising manager.

The West Wind, big tri-motor Ford plane, made famous by Nick Mamer, left the local port after a Sunday visit here. George Gates, representative of the Ford Agency here, accompanied the crew on for its flying on business.

Langell Valley—New Langell Valley cheese factory dedicated.

Beaverton local school building completely remodeled.

Regular Communication, Table Rock Council R. and S. Masters, Tuesday, Sept. 10, 8 p. m.
By order Illustrious Master.
H. E. SWEENEY, Recorder. 171*

Regular communication of Eastern Chapter O. E. S. Wed. evening, Sept. 11th.
HATTIE M. ALDEN, Sec. 171*

SCOTTISH RITE—Special meeting Salem Lodge of Perfection, Sept. 9th, 1:30 P. M. Fourth and Oak streets.
L. E. WILLIAMS, Secy. 171*

ASHLAND

ASHLAND — Standing bed

ASHLAND, Ore., Sept. 9.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Forsythe and their children, Rachel and Jack, returned late in the week from Sheridan, Wyoming, where they made an extended visit to Mrs. Forsythe's parents.

Miss Irene Clark, dean of girls of the Ashland high school, arrived in Ashland Thursday evening from Portland to take up her duties on Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Turner has arrived home from San Francisco where she has spent the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stratton and son of Marshfield were visiting Ashland friends early in the week.

Vinton Hall of Lake county, a student at the University of Oregon, has been making a visit to Lawrence Wagner in Ashland. Mr. Hall has been chosen as the managing editor of the university student body paper, the Daily Emerald, for the coming year. During the vacation, Mr. Hall has been city editor of the Lakeview Examiner.

Improvements are being made on the property formerly owned by the late Dr. J. K. Bender home on Gresham street, and the home will be converted into a modern bungalow of eight rooms. A new garage is also being added to the property. The property is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wagner.

Dr. Mattie B. Shaw entertained on Friday evening at her home on Pioneer street, honoring Mrs. Frank Black, a musician and composer. Mrs. Black is the daughter of the late H. G. Gilmore, who was a resident of Ashland for many years previous to his death. The guest list included the honor guest Mrs. Frank Black, Ruth Sorrell, Mrs. T. L. Sorrell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yee, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller and Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Woods.

The first meeting of the Civic Improvement club for the fall season was held at the Civic Club house on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lillian Greer on Granite Drive was charming hostess at Sunday dinner honoring as guests Mrs. Harriet Fielding, Mrs. J. P. Dodge and Mrs. Lowe of California, who is a house guest of Mrs. Fielding.

Chapter A. N. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood held a delightful social session on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. McNair on Oak street, the hostess for the occasion being Mrs. McNair and Mrs. Louis Dodge. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Sam McNair who leaves soon for Chicago where she will be a delegate for Oregon at the national convention of the Sisterhood.

Kiwanians have planned to celebrate Constitution week by calling upon each member and the people of the community, to read and study the constitution of the United States. Rev. K. P. Hammond, a member of the Kiwanis club, who leaves Ashland soon to live in Oregon City, will be the speaker at the Kiwanis club for their discussion luncheon, which will be held on Tuesday noon.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—Cull Bartlett pears. Miller Orchard, Eagle Point. 172

FOR EXCHANGE—Salem home, bearing fruit trees, mod. large lot, good district for Medford property. 136 Portland Ave. 171

FOR RENT—4 room furnished apt. $25. 209 West Jackson. 172

FOR SALE—Two young cows, giving milk. T. J. Parsons, Phoenix. 172

MAN OR WOMAN WANTED with ambition and industry to introduce and supply the demand for Rawleigh's Household Products in steady users. Several live operators in Grants Pass, one-half of Klamath Falls and Medford. We train and help you. Rawleigh dealers can make up to $100 a week or more. No experience necessary. Pleasant, profitable dignified work. Write today. W. T. Rawleigh Co., Dept. OREZ-142, Oakland, Calif. 176

FOR SALE—Brand new 3-room modern in every respect. East side close school. Must be seen to appreciate. Very low price on account of going leaving Medford. $250 cash, balance like rent. Phone 1496 for appointment.

The Real Estate Exchange, 28 No. Riverside. Elmer Hurford, H. C. Dale. 179*

FOR SALE—Double bed, dresser, rug and desk for sale. Phone 1213. 172

LOST OR STOLEN—Fox terrier, black and white. Reward. Mac Jackson, Crater Paint. Box 5. 171

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Teale have arrived from Portland to make their home in Ashland during the school year. Mr. Teale is the teacher of manual training in the Ashland schools.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Merrill of Portland have been visiting for a few days at the home of Mrs. Frank Merrill on the Boulevard. They left on Saturday morning for Del Monte, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Hanson and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brower of Philadelphia, spent Saturday at the Oregon Caves.

Marion Hager, who has been confined at his home during the summer months, is making some improvement.

Miss Isabella Wattenburger, teacher at the Lincoln school, arrived home on Friday from Edmond, Oklahoma, where she spent her vacation. Miss Wattenburger attended the summer session of the Teachers college there.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Saunders and their little daughter made a trip to Crater Lake on Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Blake and their sons, David and Edwin, have returned home after spending three weeks at Portland and Albany and other northern points.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Hayden left on Wednesday for San Francisco to spend a two weeks vacation. They recently took their two young children to Portland to leave them with Mrs. Hagmeier, people during their absence.

Miss Lydia Smith, a June graduate from the Southern Oregon Normal school, has been elected to a teaching position at Burns, Oregon, and will leave soon to begin her work.

Mrs. Joe Page and Mrs. C. W. Winkle of Tonasquin, who were former Ashland residents, arrived in Ashland on Thursday to spend two days here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Simpson left on Sunday for Seattle and Bellingham, Washington, where they will spend their vacation.

The Misses Genevieve and Eleanor Fredenburg arrived in Ashland on Saturday for a visit with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Fredenburg, on the Boulevard.

Mrs. Marion Carter of Glendale, Oregon, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wilber on Liberty street.

Mrs. Berdie Deaton and her son, John, are spending the week at Crescent City.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Fredenburg and their daughters, Eleanor and Genevieve, left on Friday morning for Crescent City to spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Foley and daughter, Mary, have returned from the Lake of the Woods where they spent their vacation. While there at their lakeside cabin, Mrs. Grace Andrews of Ashland and Collins Hartley of Phoenix came in from the lake on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Winchand and Shirley Anderson made a week-end visit to their friend, Dr. Holbrook at the Modoc hotel in Alturas, California.

Mrs. Carl Gillis of Salem visited on Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. H. D. McNair and her mother, Mrs. Sayer.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Simpson, Miss Anna Hoxsroth and Mrs. B. P. Neil made a visit to Crater Lake on Monday.

Miss Juanita Ross left on Wednesday for Rogue Valley where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Lena Gubrem is expected home on Friday from Sherwood, North Dakota, where she has been visiting with relatives and friends.

Bates—Oregon Lumber company moving houses along railroad track west of Bates for construction of dry kilns.

NOW

MUNT'S GRATERIAN CENTRAL Just off MAIN

Four Shows Daily at 1:30, 3:15, 7 and 9 P. M.

IT'S DIFFERENT

AMAZINGLY DIFFERENT!

STARTLING DRAMA YOU'LL NEVER FORGET

You'll Shed a Tear—You'll Heave a Sigh—You'll Tell Your Friends to See It

ALL TALKING

PAUL MUNI

The Eminent N. Y. Yiddish Theatre Actor

With MARGUERITE CHURCHILL and John Mack Brown IN

Also MEXICANA

An array of Song and Color

At Wahlman in 2 acts

THE TALKING NEWS

COMING WED. Sept. 11

FOX FOLLIES 1929

ALL Singing Talking Dancing Musical Comedy

ON THE STAGE

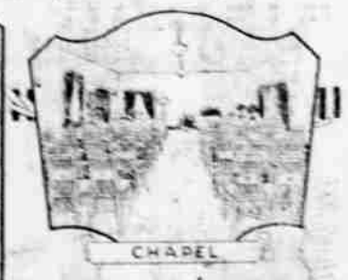
KIVA HOFFMAN

HOLLYWOOD MAKEUP ARTIST

Another Advantage

THE colonial location of our new funeral parlors certainly is an asset. We are situated where it is quiet and where there are no curious crowds. Auto parking space is always available.

Our ambulance service is kept for the sick and injured, this is another place from which to hold service.



CONGER FUNERAL PARLORS

Up-to-date service, moderately priced

W. MAIN AT NEWTOWN ST.

Phone 207

Obituary

MILLETT—Funeral services for John Millett, who passed away in this city Sunday, will be held at the Catholic church in Medford on Tuesday at 9 a. m., Rev. Father Meagher officiating.

Mr. Millett was well known in the Applegate district, where he had resided for a number of years. He was 75 years of age.

Seattle — New Associated Oil company service station at Seventh street and Olson way opened for business.

PHONE 51

Gold Seal WILL NEVER SPOIL MILK BUTTER ICE CREAM

PASTEURIZED - SAFE - PURE PRODUCED - PACKED - THE SANITARY WAY

JUST HELP YOURSELF

Cent a Pound

for big, ripe, smooth luscious canning and table

Tomatoes

All you want cent a pound.

Also Cucumbers for Pickling 20c to 30c Doz.

Bring boxes and drive right in. Midway and Sam's Valley road. Phone 258-R-2

12 to 1; 5 to 8 P. M.

F. E. STUMP

A BEVERAGE WITH INSTANT APPEAL

This High Grade Drink

Is Recommended and Sold by

BROWN'S

101 East Main St. Medford

The Best Suit Values In Town

ARE RIGHT HERE!

Come in and make me PROVE IT.

I'll show you SOME FABRICS, fabrics, pure wool or worsted, patterns that are choice, and TAILORING with a conscience.

YOU'RE RIGHT, I don't make much on these suits. I call them my "MISSIONARY" suits. They go out in town and MAKE FRIENDS FOR ME.

And I am SATISFIED.

KLEIN THE TAILOR

UPSTAIRS

128 East Main