A motion to continue the present scale for two years, made by the operators, was defeated by the solid vote of the ulners. An amendment to President Mitchell's motion to restore the scale of 196, offered by F. L. Robbins, of the Pennsylvania operators that it be made effective for two years, was accepted by Mr. Mitchell, subject to ratification by the United Mineworkers' convention, which will meet tomorrow morning to consider the question.

This was the only action taken during the day. The rest was argument, during the course of which great earnestness apon the part of the miners and both factions of the operators was shown. Mr Mitchell said that many coal com-

Robbins Offers Advance.

Mr. Robbins offered to pay the advance asked, not only in the mines of the Pitts-burg Coal Company, but in his own mines in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois, and urged the miners to sign the scale when-ever it was offered, even though the mines of the other operators should lie

There were a number of suggestions and hints at an arbitration commission dur-ing the day. W. Kulin, of the independ-ent operators, made reference to a pos-sible commission to be appointed by the President. Mr. Mitchell said in one of his speeches:

Answering the arguments made during the day against an advance, Mr. Mitchell closed the debate for the afternoon with the following statement:

The miners, so far as we are or am of a strike, will have no riots and no bloodshed. We may, if a prolonged strike takes place, have hunger and we may wear out-sur clothes. We may endure greater hardening but the miners are just as lawabilding and just

A. J. Moorehead, of Illinois, spoke first for the operators. He said the operators would be pleased to pay the miners an increase in wages, but it was absolutely impossible at this time. He continued:

Not Allowed to Combine.

You miners have the advantage over us. You can combine and centralize your voting power upon a fixed object or desired action. But if the operators combine we are threatened with the penitentiars. We could control the tunately for you and us we have not the money to do it. It may be true that in some purts of the country, Western Pennsylvania, for instance, they may be able to pay an advance, but I do not know that in Illinois it He said miners in the thick vein in

R. R. Hammond, of the Illinois operators, was unwilling to leave the differences to a commission.

"If Mr. Hammond wishes to close his coal mines forever, he will find us walting when he wants to open them again."

This statement was loudly applauded by the miners. Mr. Mitchell proceeded: The American people are going to ask and that the upon knowing why the operators cannot pay an advance of 5 cents a ton. And we are going to ask you why you can charge the American people an advance of $1 per ton and not be able to pay us an advance of 3 cents a ton. During the past two weeks the American people cand I do not mean the rall-roads) have been compelled to pay at the mes more than $1 a ton more for coal. Small Bill for Immunity of Labor Unions Does Not Satisfy Labor or Irish Party.

> LONDON, March 28.-The trade disputes bill, which is a direct outcome of the Taffvale decision, which held that tradesunion funds are liable for the illegal acts of individual members of a union, was in-troduced in the House of Commons today by the Attorney-General, Sir J. Lawson Walton. In explaining the features of the measure he said that the recent court decisions had seriously curtailed the use-fulness of trades-unions. Their undoubted rights of peaceful persuasion could be cut down to the point of extinction and funds contributed to provide against sickness and lack of employment had been held liable to meet claims based on the repudiated acts of unauthorized officials.

> Immunity for Labor Unions. The present bill provides that no ac of a trades-union shall be held to be un lawful if such act is lawful when con mitted by an individual. It sets forth in express terms the right of peaceful picketing, which the Attorney-General de-clared was an essential part of the right to strike, and defines the law of agency as applied to trades-union funds for any act, unless it is perfectly clear that the act was authorized by the governing body

In regard to the demands for the com-plete immunity of trades-union funds from attack, the Attorney-General declares that he did not think it right to create a special privilege for the prole-tariat. The "Favorite Prescription" cures all woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and draging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakening and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms.

It speedily became evident that the government's measure was not at all to the liking of the Labor members, who before its intro-duction declared their connection to any duction declared their opposition to anyunion funds.

In their opposition to the bill the Labor members are supported by the Irish and many ministerial members, and unless the government measure is extended so as to give union funds complete immunity from claims for damages arising from strikes, the Labor members will test the opinion of the House with a bill which they have prepared.

The Irish will ask to have the bill extended to include Irish farmers and others who are open to unfair treatment.

The trades disputes bill, which was read for the first time today, will be fought on its second reading in committee.
