C. E. CONVENTION OPEN TOMORROW AT GRANTS PASS

A large group of representatives of the local Christian Endeavor societies will tomorrow evening attend the opening session of the annual Christian Endeavor convention of Crater Lake union, to be conducted in the First Christian church at Grants Pass.

Lertis Ellett of Eugene will be the chief speaker, and Ross Gulley, field secretary of the Oregon Christian Endeavor union, will also attend. Miss Vera Wright, of Ashland, will conduct the third annual junior convention Saturday morning, Miss Nellie Priest of Grants Pass, union president announced.

Numerous awards will be given out during the convention sessions, and large delegations from Jackson and Josephine counties are expected to attend.

Officers of the union voted at the last executive meeting to adjourn the Saturday afternoon session, according to reports, in order that the delegates might attend the Medford-Grants Pass football game.

A banquet will be given in the First Christian church on Saturday evening. One of the sessions is to be held in the First Presbyterian church in that city, it has been announced.

Due to action taken at a recent rally, financial questions were settled for the year, making it unnecessary to present the budget at a convention session.

RANGERS AT PARK IN CAMERA'S EYE

CRATER LAKE NATIONAL PARK, Ore.—(Special.) Tourists arriving at Crater Lake during the summer season take back with them loads of souvenirs but to many there are no souvenirs as expressive as their own kodak pictures. Hundreds of rolls of camera films are taken of lake scenes, in addition to scores of poses by park rangers on duty at the rim.

"Would you mind if I took your picture?" is a familiar question heard by the rangers and they always oblige.

At times rangers are induced to pose while feeding chipmunks, some of which climb up into rangers' hands in quest of peanuts. Other times they are asked to pose with a tourist party to add "color" to the picture.

One woman in taking a picture of two rangers together explained she wanted a snap shot to send east to relatives to give them a pictorial record of the far west. Quite often pictures are snapped without the knowledge of the ranger subjects.

Visitors, having home moving picture outfits, also took hundreds of feet of lake scenes.

HINMAN DOG DIES RESULT OF POISON

No longer will Scraps, little bull terrier, run to meet his master in the evenings, for little Scraps is dead. The year-old terrier, belonging to Harry S. Hinman, who resides at 336 South Holly street died yesterday from quick-acting poison.

Mr. Hinman's dog is the third to be killed in this manner recently in the neighborhood of South Holly street. The owner, with the assistance of Charles W. Palm, started an investigation yesterday afternoon to trace the poison and determine, if possible, the person killing the pets.

ITALIAN PROTESTANTS RECALL PERSECUTION

TORRE PELLICE, Italy—(AP)—Valdesian pilgrims revived the history of centuries of religious persecution by a four-day journey to the valleys of San Martin and Angrogna, where the Protestant order, founded by Pierre Valdes in 1170, held services underground.

Valdes, a silk manufacturer of Lyons, based his creed on the sermon on the mount and gave his church laws of simplicity and poverty.

Persecution reached a point centuries ago where the Valdesians were forbidden to speak Italian and today they still use French among themselves.

TURNING TIME AHEAD

By Mary Graham Bonner.

"Oh, I just can't think of enough words when I see the trees in the fall," said Peggy. "You keep noticing one tree after another and each one you want to say is so beautiful and so lovely and you keep on using the same words over and over again."

"They are lovely this year, I think," said the Little Black Clock. "Does it surprise you at all?"

"No," said John. "It doesn't. I thought yesterday they couldn't be better, and today I seem to see others I missed yesterday. Of course you have brought us to a different part of the lake."

Suddenly he noticed a lot of hydroplanes.

"When did they come there?" he asked.

"Oh, how many planes are out today," Peggy remarked as she looked upward. "They must be having some big meeting somewhere."

"An aviation meeting," suggested John.

"I don't believe so," said the Little Black Clock. And then he leaned back and laughed and laughed.

"What is it?" John asked.

He laughed so hard that John and Peggy began to laugh too, although they had no idea why he was laughing.

"I've turned the time way, way ahead," the Little Black Clock said, "and when we came out to look at the leaves we hardly notice the time is turned forward.

"You see, even when I turn the time way ahead into the future, the leaves still turn color in the autumn and are so very, very lovely."

And John and Peggy thought it was one of th most surprising things that had happened—the time had been turned ahead and they had hardly realized it because the leaves just looked like the autumn, and years didn't matter at all!

LABOR CLASHES ON QUESTION OF JOB INSURANCE

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 15.—(AP) The question of unemployment insurance provoked a sharp clash in the American Federation of Labor convention here today, and shoved prohibition off the morning session.

Report of the resolutions committee commending the stand of the federation's executive council against unemployment insurance revealed the most violent differences of opinion expressed on the floor since the opening of the convention last week.

James Duncan, central labor council, Seattle, charged inaction by the federal government in the present unemployment situation constituted "wholesale murder by denying us the right to work."

Duncan, who advocated that the federation overrule its executive council's opposition to unemployment insurance, denounced the practice of the city of Seattle in offering work to unemployed on relief projects at $1.50 a day.

LINDBERGHS WANT PEACEFUL LANDING

SEATTLE, Oct. 15.—(AP) A message from Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, aboard the steamship President Jefferson, enroute to the United States from Japan, notified the American Mail line today the colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh had requested they be excused from photographs and interviews upon their arrival at quarantine next Monday.

The message said:

"We have requested to be excused from photographs and interviews due to circumstances of our return. We feel that interviews for articles would be extremely inappropriate. I am sure press organizations will understand our feeling at this time.

(Signed) "Charles Lindbergh."

PHRASEOLOGY OF BIBLE REVAMPED

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—(AP)—An insight to the kind of phraseology the new American Bible of Dr. J. M. Powis Smith and Dr. Edgar Goodspeed of the University of Chicago is to have, was made public today.

The Lord's Prayer for example will read as follows:

"Our Father in Heaven,
Your name be revered.
Your kingdom come!
Your will be done on earth as it is done in Heaven!
Give us today bread for the day.
And forgive us our debts as we have forgiven our debtors,
And do not suject us to temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one."

The new Bible is to make its appearance next November 10.

HOOVER TALKS OF SISKIYOU PLANTS IN YREKA GRANGE

C. C. Hoover, who addressed the Siskiyou county, Cal., Pomona Grange last Saturday drew the following comment in part, in the Yreka Daily News:

"C. C. Hoover of Medford, Ore., Grange, was the speaker of the lecture hour and gave an interesting talk on plant life, of which he states the Siskiyou range has the greatest variety of any range in the world.

"Mr. Hoover is an enthusiastic worker in the order in his state and has gained national recognition in his replanting and reforesting work and is well known as a poa bulbosa or mountain blue grass grower and distributor."

Lost Ugly Fat

Her Husband Says She Looks 5 Years Younger

There is a certain weight at which every woman looks her loveliest—not skinny underweight nor pendulous overweight, but normal weight. "My husband says I look five years younger," writes this lady of 29 who—thanks to her daily dose of Kruschen Salts—has unburdened her body of 18 pounds of ugly fat. Read her letter:

"Having heard from a friend of mine that she had lost considerable weight since taking Kruschen Salts, I started using them in July last, when I weighed 177 lbs. I have lost weight steadily since then, and am now 159 lbs. — my normal weight. Moreover, I feel brighter and more energetic in every way. I have inquired of my dressmaker my measurements, which in August last were: Bust 40, hips 43½, waist 33½. Last week they were: Bust 38, hips 40, waist 31 inches, which is normal for my height, which is 5 ft. 8 in. My age is 29. My husband is a very severe critic. He says I look five years younger. There is no other reason for my loss of weight except Kruschen, as I do not take any particular diet."

(Mrs.) S. R., London, England.

A bottle of Kruschen Salts that will last four weeks costs but 85 cents—Try one bottle—if not joyfully satisfied—money back. Jarmin & Woods, Heath's Drug Store.
