Former Pastor Will Preach At Phoenix Church

PHOENIX, July 8—(Special)—Rev. Roy W. Nelson, former pastor of the Presbyteria nchurch here, and now pastor of the Presbyterian church at McMinnville, will preach at the Presbyterian church here this morning, commencing at 11 o'clock.

Following the service, a covered dish dinner will be enjoyed in order that all friends may have an opportunity to visit with Rev. Nelson and family. Those desiring to remain for the dinner are urged to bring their donation.

Special service also is planned for the church hour at 8 p. m., in charge of instructors of the Daily Vacation Bible school. Pupils of the school will display handwork that has been made during the study hour, will recite their memory work and will have several special songs, which Mrs. V. R. Bonham has drilled them in.

All in the community are invited to attend and especially the parents of the pupils of the school.

Other services of the Presbyterian church for Sunday, is Sunday school at 10 o'clock with J. O. N. Poling superintendent, and Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock.

TRUCK OWNERS MEET TUESDAY, COURTHOUSE

Word has been received in Medford from A. C. Anderson of Salem, chairman of the Truck Owners and Farmers' association, stating that a temporary injunction has been filed which, until the constitutionality of the law is settled, will allow truck owners to buy the ordinary license, it was explained in a letter, according to George S. Barton.

A meeting of the local branch of the organizations is to be held at the courthouse Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, at which time information concerning the legality of the measure will be discussed.

Adrienne's Offers Chance for Saving

Response to Adrienne's semi-annual clearance sale which started Friday morning, indicates that women of the Rogue River valley are taking seriously the advice to "buy now and save," C. T. Steward said yesterday. This important selling event will continue until next week to give everyone a chance to take advantage of the attractive bargains.

Dresses, coats, hats and accessories have been marked down for clearance in order to make room for early fall merchandise which has already been selected by Adrienne.

NEW YORK, July 8.—(AP)—Financial markets breasted sizeable profit taking waves today and emerged a trifle wet in spots but with little use for a pulmotor. It was a brief session of minor ups and downs in stocks and only few specialties showed an inclination to race for higher levels. The close was somewhat irregular. Transfers approximated 2,600,000 shares.
