McKibbins of Portland Honored at Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. McKibbin of Portland, who stopped here for a several days' visit on their return from San Francisco to be guests of Mrs. McKibbin's sister, Mrs. Lloyd Williamson, were honored at a no-host party at the Colonial club Tuesday evening, attended by many local society folk. Dinner and dancing were enjoyed.

Invited to the pleasant affair were: Mr. and Mrs. McKibbin, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Deuel, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lageson, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Strang, Miss Fern Hutchison, Herbert Strang, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bardwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lee Barnes, Miss Frances Kenney, Wm. F. Isaacs, Dr. and Mrs. A. F. W. Kresse, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Max Peirce, Mrs. Hazel Stoner, Jack Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. Helen Conroy, Seth Bullis, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Quisenberry, Mrs. Lola Day, Harry Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. David Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Vilas, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brayton, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Nye, Miss Orbie Natwick, Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Williamson.

Preceding the party Mr. and Mrs. Barnes entertained at open house.

Varied Evening Enjoyed By Elks and Ladies.

The party at the Elks' club last night, which came under the heading of "something decidedly different" for that organization, was one of the most successful of the season.

Covers were laid for 175 guests at the covered dish supper, with which the evening's entertainment opened. Pool, bridge and dancing were then enjoyed with music played by Reginald Fifer's orchestra. Open house was in order and a number of additional guests dropped in for dancing.

The committee, responsible for variety of entertainment, was headed by Ralph Koozer, who was assisted by Robert Norris and C. C. Lemmon.

Scott-Dressler Marriage Announced

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit C. Combes, 629 Pine street, Wednesday evening at 9:30 o'clock, Miss Elizabeth Ellyn Scott and Harley Virgil Dressler were married, the Rev. J. M. Johnson of Central Point reading the service in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Dressler left for a honeymoon trip, which will include San Francisco and other California cities.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scott of Central Point. Mr. Dressler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dressler of Medford.

Little Miss Jerome Celebrates Birthday

Little Miss Geraldine Jerome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jerome, who will be six years old tomorrow, celebrated her birthday today at the Williamson kindergarten, where she is a pupil. All other children of the school and a number of outside guests enjoyed the jolly affair. Games were played and the birthday cake served at a colorful table crowded with novelties and favors for all.

Mrs. Wilshire, Hostess At Dinner Party

Complimenting Miss Arlene Butler of this city, whose marriage to Claude Thompson of Portland and Medford has been announced for this spring, Mrs. Kenneth Wilshire of Ashland entertained at a small dinner party last evening at her home on Granite street.

Guests were former schoolmates of Miss Butler's at the University of Oregon.

Scriven-McIntyre Betrothal Told

Announcement was made today of the engagement of Miss Florence Scriven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Scriven, to Allen McIntyre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McIntyre, all of this city. The marriage will be an event of March 17.

FRIDAY SOC— Barnums Entertain At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. George Barnum entertained at dinner at their home on Bellview Heights Wednesday evening, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elliott, Miss Lena Heath and Gene Narregan.

Young Musicians Give Program at S. O. N. S.

Misses Dorothy Gore and Helen Evanson of this city presented a program this morning at the Southern Oregon Normal school during the assembly hour.

Miss Gore opened the program with two piano numbers, "Witches' Dance" and "March Wind." Miss Evanson then played as piano selections, Chaminades' "Autome" and Beethoven's "Funeral March, Opus 26."

Miss Gore then turned to the violin, playing "The Swan" by Saint-Saens, and "Spanish Dance" by Rehfeld. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman of this city.

Miss Evanson closed the program with another group of piano numbers, two waltzes by Chopin and "To Spring", by Grieg.

Mrs. E. E. Gore and Mrs. E. A. Evanson accompanied the musicians to Ashland.

Supper and Program Planned at Church

A missionary play, entitled "Pill Bottle," will be given at the First Baptist church on Wednesday evening, February 28. The chast of characters will include over 20 people and the play will describe some of the medical mission work in India. Preceding the play will be a covered dish supper at 6:30, for which the members are asked to bring a covered dish and sandwiches.

Following the missionary play there will be a Bible conference in the auditorium of the church led by Dr. Page, a noted Bible student.

Armstrongs Expected Here Tomorrow

Major Clare H. Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong are expected here tomorrow on their return from a several months' stay in San Francisco, where he was on temporary duty at the Presidio, following his release from the southern hospital. They will be accompanied by their two children and will take the TouVelle house again for the season.

Their arrival is anticipated by many society folk and considerable entertaining will follow their return to the city.

Many Enjoy Open House At Colonial Club

Open house will be observed again tomorrow night at the Colonial club with music by Sebastian Apollo's orchestra, and a number of local society folk are planning to gather there, no-host parties being the popular order of the day.

Thirty three guests enjoyed dinner there last Saturday preceding dancing and many others dropped in for dancing. Among those entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Degerness.

Lady Kiwanians To Meet Monday

Lady Kiwanians will meet for business session Monday afternon at the home of Mrs. C. Y. Tengwald, 18 Elm street, a 2 o'clock.

JEALOUS WOMAN SHOOTS HERSELF

SEATTLE, Feb. 23.—(UP)—Jealous love for Patrolman Joseph E. Smith caused Mrs. Clara Johnson, 35-year-old widow, to shoot herself late yesterday in the breast with a revolver. She was in a serious condition at a local hospital today.

The shooting climaxed a quarrel with another woman over the policeman's affections, it was said.

The attempt at suicide occurred in the kitchen of the officer's apartment. Mrs. Johnson quarreled with Mrs. Jane Hansell, 35-year-old divorcee, over Smith.

"I couldn't stand to see another woman around him," she declared.

DESPONDENT YOUTH ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

LEWISTON, Ida., Feb. 23.—(UP)—William Irving, 27-year-old former normal school student here, was dangerously ill in a hospital, after firing a bullet into his brain last evening.

Despondency over a love affair and lack of funds with which to continue his schooling prompted Irving to shoot himself as he walked near St. Joseph's hospital with two young women, witnesses said.

WORK AT AIRPORT NEAR COMPLETION

The improvement of the Medford airport, made possible under projects so far approved by the Civil Works administration, is 90 per cent complete, Fred Scheffel, city superintendent, stated today.

This work consists of the construction of the cross runway, trenches, laying of drain pipes and the placing of gravel on the runway, which is now under way. The work will be completed in two weeks, according to present plans.

The city is now working under a new application, which consists of leveling an additional area on the east side of the airport. This project will continue with 112 men on the job, as long as CWA work continues.

DAIRYMEN NAME STATE OFFICERS

CORVALLIS, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Ralph Waggoner of Clatskanie was elected president of the Oregon Butter and Ice Cream Makers' association here last night at the concluding session of the annual meeting.

Percy Murray of Klamath Falls was elected vice-president; Dr. G. W. Wilster of Oregon State college, secretary, and Ed Conley of Portland, treasurer. Directors are A. B. Swan of Carlton, Carl Waltz of Baker, Frank Hettwer of Mount Angel, R. C. Raven of Portland and Frank Moser of Corvallis.

A marketing code for butter under the new state law was urged by resolution.

Central Point

CENTRAL POINT, Feb. 23.—(Spl.)—Meeting of W. R. C. was held Saturday with good attendance, following routine business. Announcement was made that another group of candidates will be initiated at the meeting March 3.

Another interesting feature planned for this occasion is the quarterly birthday party, for all members whose anniversaries occur during January, February and March. Refreshment committee will be Mesdames Wava Cummings, Floretta Anderson, Clara Earra, Clementine Gleason and Miss Lola Blackford.

There will also be a plant exchange at this time, and all members who have plants or seeds they would like to exchange for others are asked to be present.

Mrs. D. W. Beebe will be hostess to the H. E. club at her home near Agate February 28. All members are urged to attend, as this is an important meeting.

Mrs. Alice McKim, who underwent a minor operation at the Community hospital about 10 days ago, is recovering nicely at the home of her son, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Goldsberry.

Open house will be observed Sunday afternoon at Mrs. Mattie Parker's with assistant hostess, Mrs. Minnick, honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Parker. All friends are invited. Hours are from 2 to 5.

Notice to Creditors.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon in and for Jackson County. In the Matter of the Estate of George Smith Gordon, Deceased

Attempt of citizen to commit suicide in Front street rooming house fails, when police arrive in time.

State bankers' convention to be held here in June.

24-YEAR-OLD MULE HUNTS TO HOUNDS

LONDON (UP)—Warrior is a 23-year old war-horse. He still carries his master, Lord Mottistone, gallantly to hounds. Lord Mottistone thought this constituted a record.

But the record has been challenged by a lowly mule. Mr. Goffe Cave, its owner, says that he still rides to hounds astride a 24-year old mule that came back from France in 1918. He also rides it regularly around his farm.

NEW CHIEF GOING EUGENE CCC AREA

EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Major Casper B. Rucker of Vancouver Barracks will take command of the Eugene CCC district March 1.

Major Rucker will replace Major Charles H. Corlett, who is to leave soon for Washington, D. C., for four years' duty on the war department general staff.

Although Major Rucker will assume command upon his arrival March 1, Major Corlett plans to remain until March 15 to assist the new commander in orienting himself to the work.

The Eugene district includes 20 camps of 200 men each and extends from a point as far north as Corvallis to about 75 miles below Roseburg. It goes east to Bend and west to the coast.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Karl Zawistowski, 59, Prindle, Skamania county farmer, died in a hospital here Thursday from a bullet wound inflicted early Sunday morning by a chicken thief he surprised on his ranch.

Leaves for South—C. A. Barr left Thursday evening on the Shasta for San Francisco.

STENGEL NAMED DODGERS' PILOT

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Chas. D. (Casey) Stengel, former Brooklyn Dodgers' outfielder and a coach since 1932, today was named manager of the team for 1934 and 1935, succeeding Max Carey.

Stengel was present, smiling broadly, when General Manager J. R. Robert Quinn made the announcement of his appointment. The only surprise was the two-year contract, as Wilbert Robinson worked under only a one-year agreement preceding his dismissal in 1931, and Carey also was given only one-year contracts, the last of which the Dodgers broke day before yesterday.

Goes to Idaho—A. McCue left here Thursday on the Southern Pacific, en route to Blackfoot, Ida.
