Willett Students In Two Recitals

On Wednesday and Thursday evenings, May 1 and 2, the Beatrice Willett school of the Dance presented its annual recitals at the Armory. Willett, assisted by the German young dancer, Rosemarie Gerson and Marie Van Orden Folk, Portland, offered a lengthy entertainment, well worth the time and money. It was the first public appearance of many, as well as a number of children, and it is to their credit that in the last acts of both recitals they showed the results of training in a more advanced stage.

Miss Gerson, a young dancer of much promise, demonstrated a thorough knowledge of the dance in her numbers, "Dance of the Dryads" and "Dance of the Fairies." Her interpretations were well received. Miss Van Orden Folk, who will be a frequent visitor in Medford, is a dancer of much charm and ability. Her numbers, "Dance of the Spirit of Fire" and "Dance of the Spirit of Water" were very well received. Miss Van Orden Folk will be in Medford for a week beginning May 13 and will be in charge of the dance classes at the Armory. Her pupils will be in a recital June 7.

Willett herself danced "Dance of the Spirit of Wind" and "Dance of the Spirit of Earth" in her inimitable manner. Her pupils in the various classes showed much improvement over last year's performances. An advanced group of ballet dancers, Lorraine Bergman, Jane Gerlach, Virginia Bell, Patricia Gerlach, Jane Ann Gillard, Joyce Harrison and Barbara Preston, showed much improvement over last year's performance. Their ballet was well received.

Barbara Fish will have charge of the ballet classes in the Armory during the absence of Miss Willett.

Other numbers were by Mrs. Ruth Hoover Kelly, Mrs. Ruth Hoover Kelly, Jr., Mrs. Ruth Hoover Kelly, Sr., Mrs. Ruth Hoover Kelly, III, Mrs. Ruth Hoover Kelly, IV, Mrs. Ruth Hoover Kelly, V, Mrs. Ruth
