Smile as Production Nears Million Mark

EDSEL FORD — W. C. COWLING

Mr. Ford, left, president of the Ford Motor Company, and W. C. Cowling, general sales manager, at the speakers' table of the luncheon meeting in the Cafe of the World, America's Exposition, Balboa Park, San Diego. One thousand Ford and Lincoln dealers and salesmen and Service Merit Club members gathered in San Diego for a program that included a tour through the Exposition grounds, deep-sea fishing, etc. Saturday, as guests of the company, the members of the Ford organization toured the studios of Hollywood. Ford V-8 production for this year is nearing the million mark forecast as the goal for the year.

Business Women Meeting Tuesday Evening at 6:30

A business meeting of special importance to the Business and Professional Women of Medford is scheduled at the Jackson Hotel Tuesday evening at 6:30. Future plans will be discussed during the dinner, and every one interested is urged to attend.

Those wishing to join the club are also invited, and all who plan to be present are asked to call Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann at 82 during business hours or 1091Y during evenings.

St. Mark's Guild
Makes Future Plans

At the first business meeting of the season, held Friday, members of the St. Mark's Guild made plans for a number of affairs for the coming season.

First on the calendar is a silver tea, to be given at the lovely country home of Mrs. H. C. McCaskey on Friday, Sept. 20, from three to six o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended the public.

On Sept. 21, the Guild will hold a rummage sale. The committee in charge consists of Mesdames M. M. Helman, L. C. Taylor, A. F. Stennett, and D. Marti.

Officers will sponsor a card party at the Guild Hall Friday, Sept. 27, at two o'clock.

Mears' Honored At Central Point

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mears of Central Point, who are leaving this week to make their home near Spokane, were honorees at a farewell party this week at the home of Mrs. Dean, on the Old Stage road, which included a handkerchief shower for Mrs. Mears.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Ethel Freeman and Mrs. L. C. Scott, and guests were members of Nevita chapter, O. E. S., of which both Mr. and Mrs. Mears are members.

Club-Lodge Announcements

Adarel No. 3

On September 19, Adarel Chapter No. 3 will hold a stated meeting at eight o'clock. All members are urged to be present. Three candidates are to receive the degrees of the order. A cordial invitation is extended visiting members.

Christian C. E.

The senior Intermediate C. E. of the First Christian church will meet tonight at 6:45 o'clock, with Dorothy Nyberg as leader. All young people of high school age are asked to attend.

Lady Elks

Mrs. W. A. Young will be hostess Tuesday during the regular weekly ladies' day at the Elks temple. Lady Elks' will meet at two o'clock for an afternoon of pool and bridge.

Wenonah Club

The regular social card party of the Wenonah club will be held at the home of Esther Deoms, 409 Columbus avenue, on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

Olive Rebekah Lodge

Olive Rebekah lodge will not hold a social hour Sept. 16, but instead will combine social hour with that of the Oddfellows on Tuesday night, Sept. 17. Regular lodge meeting will be held as usual. All members are urged to attend.

D. A. R.

First meeting of the D. A. R. will be held on Sept. 21 with Mrs. M. J. Norris as hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. E. Armstrong, Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown and Mrs. Helen Snodgrass. On the program Mrs. B. G. Harding will give a talk on the constitution, and Mrs. E. A. Moore will review the article "America Remembers."

Book Club

The Book club will meet this Tuesday, and on every other Tuesday hereafter for luncheon at the Town Club and a program following at the home of a hostess. For their meeting this week, members will gather at the Town Club at 1 o'clock for luncheon, and the program will be given at the home of Mrs. S. K. Deusl.

Loyal Women's Class

Loyal Women's Class of the First Christian church will meet in the recreational hall of the church Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 17, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Minnie Dodge and her committee will have charge of the refreshments and a program will be given. All members and friends of the class are urged to attend.

Fidelity Circle

Fidelity Circle of the First M. E. church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hitzler of Holly street. A good attendance is urged.

Washington P.-T. A.

The Parent-Teacher association of the Washington school will meet Friday, Sept. 20 at 2 o'clock in the school auditorium. In the interesting program that is planned, Mrs. Canode will speak on "How the Home Prepares the Child for School Socially and Mentally," and Miss Mildred Carlton will speak on "How the Home Prepares the Child for School Physically." Mrs. Gertrude Warnick will present several vocal numbers and refreshments will be served. All mothers whose children are attending the school are urged to attend.

Girls' Community Club

There will be a board meeting of the Girls' Community club Monday at 12 o'clock noon at the clubrooms. As this will be the first meeting of the year, important business matters will be discussed. Members are asked to bring sandwiches.

Pythian Club

Pythian club will meet with Mrs. Elizabeth A. Temple and Mrs. Chester Baker at 48½ North Orange street Tuesday Sept. 17.

Building Bridge Club

Building Bridge club will meet Thursday in the parish hall, with Mesdames Rose Schleffelin and A. Duff in charge of the entertainment. Dessert will be served at 1:30 followed by a regular session of bridge.

Study Club

The Thursday Morning Study club, formerly the Post-Delphian society, will resume its course of study October 10 at its usual place of meeting, the Girls' Community clubhouse.

An interesting year's program has been planned by the officers of the club, based on suggestions made by the members. Appreciation of literature, music, drama and poetry will form the stimulating background for the year's proposed program.

Job's Daughters

There will be a regular meeting of Job's Daughters Monday at 7:30 in the DeMolay hall of the Masonic temple.

P.-T. A.

The first fall meeting of the City Council for the Parents and Teachers association will be held Tuesday, Sept. 17th at the home of Mrs. Allen Smith, 906 W. 4th street. Luncheon will be served promptly at 1:00 and each member is asked to bring her own service. An interesting program has been prepared and plans for the state convention in October will be discussed. A large attendance is urged. Jackson School P.-T. A. acting as hostess.

Mary and Martha Circle

Mary and Martha Circle of the First M. E. church will meet for luncheon Tuesday at one o'clock in the church. Service and covered dish.

Women's Missionary Society

Regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the FirstP resbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. C. H. George, Fifth and Ivy streets, at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. I. H. Liggett will lead the devotionals, using Stewardship as her theme. In addition to the regular problems of Venezuela, city mission work in Indianapolis will be presented.

Plans will be made for the covered dish dinner to be held in the church Wednesday evening, honoring Rev. David Martin, formerly of Japan, who will speak, illustrating his lecture with interesting slides depicting the life of that country. A large attendance for both meetings is desired.

Week-ending At Diamond Lake Cabin

Taking advantage of the lingering summer weather, many Medford people are still making week-end trips to the various lakes and resorts which have been popular during the summer. A party driving to Diamond Lake this week end includes Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bauer and Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders, who will stay at the Hubbard summer home there.

Summer Visitor
Leaves for Kansas

Mrs. Bessie M. Flick of Goodland, Kas., who has spent the summer visiting her sister, Mrs. Earl D. Scripter, left Friday morning for Topeka, Kas. She received a wire from Washington, D. C., informing her that she had been given an appointment under the federal housing act. She will take up her official duties in the state house at Topeka about September 20.

Mrs. Gould Hostess
To Past Noble Grand Club

Past Noble Grand club met at the home of Mrs. Ella Gould Thursday evening. In the absence of the president, the business session was conducted by the vice-president, Lottie Howard.

Social hour was in charge of Dorothy Scripter, and was in the nature of an embroidering quilt block contest. First prize was awarded to Ethel Week, second to Florence LaTourette and third to Ethel Pease.

Refreshments were served to twenty-eight guests by Mrs. Ella Gould, Jessie Howard and Ella Rogers.

Next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Wall, on Oct. 10.

Carnation Members
Celebrate Birthdays

Carnation club members were entertained Thursday evening by Dorothea Burrows, assisted by Mrs. Matilda Dietrich. Following the business meeting, games constituted the diversion of the evening, prizes being awarded to winners.

Birthdays of Marie Sipes, Katharine Smith and Edith Elliott were observed by appropriate celebration. Among those enjoying the affair was Mrs. James Jorgensen, daughter of Mrs. Edith Elliott.

I.O.O.F. WILL HEAR SOVEREIGN GRAND OVER BROADCAST

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will meet at I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening, September 17, for the beginning of the general program of entertainment for the fall and winter season. The general committee, F. E. Redden, chairman, and A. J. Hanby and W. F. Rector, has prepared an entertaining program, which will be in addition to the one sent out from the sovereign grand lodge session at Atlantic City, N. J. The program from Atlantic City will be broadcast and through the courtesy of the Palmer Music company a radio will be installed, and the program will begin promptly at 7:30, local time. The broadcast will cover 95 stations and will consist of addresses by Sovereign Grand Sire William A. Pittinger of Duluth, Minn., and other officials.

All Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and wives and husbands of the valley are urgently requested to attend. Ashland, Central Point, Gold Hill, Jacksonville and Medford will send representatives, and a large crowd is anticipated.

Tuesday, the 17th being Constitution day, patriotic selections will have a part in the program. Also, the date will be the anniversary of the Rebekah lodge, and that will be included in the evening's doings.

The business meeting is set for 7:00 o'clock in order that the program may start on time.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

GIRL FRIEND AND BARRYMORE FUSS

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—John Barrymore, the middle aged stage and screen actor, has broken with his 19-year old protege, the pretty Elaine Barrie, and there is little chance of reconciliation, her lawyer said today.

Barrymore, who is being sued for divorce in California by the former Dolores Costello who quit the screen to become his wife, stormed out of the apartment building in which the Hunter college girl lives, Thursday night.

Aaron Sapiro, counsel for Miss Barrie who as recently as August went shopping with Barrymore for bedroom suites here—finally buying a Directorie set—said today:

"At present there is to my way of thinking no possibility that things will be patched up between Miss Barrie and Mr. Barrymore."

RENEW LEGAL WAR OVER MARTINS PAY

SALEM, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Appeal on the suit to determine the legality of the Governor's $7,500 annual salary was filed in the state supreme court here today.

The suit was originally brought by Ed Joy of Salem, who contended that the executive's annual salary was limited to $1,500 by the state constitution. Judge Lewelling in the Marion county circuit court ruled against the plaintiff, holding that such a limitation of the salary was not intended by the makers of the constitution.
