MABEL A. NELSON TAKEN BY DEATH

Mabel Aileen Nelson, 51, a resident of Southern Oregon for the past six years, passed away at a local hospital, this morning at 8:30 after a brief illness.

Mrs. Nelson was born at Logan, Iowa, Feb. 17, 1889. She spent her early life in Iowa, and came to Oregon in 1925. Her husband passed away in June, 1938.

She is survived by three sons, M. E. Nelson, of North Bend, Wash., R. A. and H. P. Nelson, of Jacksonville, Ore., one brother, R. L. Copeland, of Associated Calif., one half-sister, Mrs. Al Fisher of Saskatchewan, Canada.

Funeral services will be conducted from Perl Funeral home at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Rev. H. H. Young officiating. Interment will be in the Phoenix cemetery.

BURGLAR TAKES $1.45 AT BAKERY

About $1.45 was stolen from the cash register at Beck's bakery Saturday night or early Sunday morning by a burglar who entered the building through a window of the dough room, city police reported.

Dick Witt, driver for the bakery, discovered the burglary about 8 o'clock Sunday morning. He told police that apparently nothing else was taken.

The burglar tore the screen off the window in order to get in, and left the building via the back loading-platform door, police said.

DICK METZ WINS CHICAGO TOURNEY

Chicago, July 22—(U.P.)—Dick Metz, the handsome Oak Park, Ill., golf pro, today pocketed $1,500 for winning the third Chicago open tournament and took first honors as the luckiest player in the meet.

Metz played top-notch golf during the three-day tournament, posting a 10-under-par 278 over the Tam O'Shanter club course. But he needed every fine shot at his command, and then some, for he finished only two strokes better than the fourth place man.

Little Benny Hogan of Texas and New York and Johnny Revolta of Evanston, who finished in a tie for second money with 279's, and the giant Jim Ferrier, Australian open and amateur titlist who shot 280 for fourth place, also played fine golf and were hot on Metz' heels all the way. Hogan shot a 66 on his last round, and Revolta and Ferrier turned in 69's.

WORK AT C. M. T. C. SERIOUS MATTER SAYS LOCAL BOY

The citizens military training camp at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., is more serious this year than ever before, presumably because of war in many parts of the world and preparations for defense in this country, Stanley C. Jones, Jr., of 512 Pennsylvania avenue, wrote to a friend here today. Jones is one of the group of Jackson county youths chosen for the camp this year.

With many high school soloists attending camp, Jones has formed a band of 25 pieces, he said in his letter. He, himself, has been a prominent musician at Medford high school.

Richard Milestone, another Medford youth at camp, was on one of the camp's boxing cards recently and won his bout so decisively that his opponent was taken to the hospital with a broken nose and wrenched arm, Jones said.

Because of the seriousness of the general situation, there is little or no horse play among the youths in camp, Jones wrote.

Lieut. William Bowerman, Medford high school coach and reserve officer, returned home Saturday night after being on active duty at Vancouver Barracks for three weeks. He declared that the camp this year attracted an unusually fine lot of boys.

G. PASS WALLOPS ROSEBURG, 18-3

Grants Pass, July 22.—(AP)—Nine would-be pitchers—maybe more—had their innings here Sunday as Grants Pass Merchants walloped Roseburg in a Southern Oregon league game, 18 to 3. Ahead 14 to 0 in five innings, the Merchants gave everyone a chance to fling the horsehide pellet, and the Indians soon followed suit.

Gordon Howerton hit two home runs, a double and two singles, and Nig Di Sordi also homed for the victors.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Roseburg	3	7	6
Grants Pass	18	20	3

Romantic Role

Charles Coburn stars opposite Beulah Bondi in "The Captain Is a Lady," a story of the grandest pair of old love birds since the hilarious "Min and Bill" days. The film comes to the New Rialto Theater for tomorrow and Wednesday only as the companion laugh feature with "Dr. Christian Meets the Women."

Irene Dunne With Cary Grant, Gail Patrick in Comedy

"My Favorite Wife," which opened yesterday at the Craterian theater, brings back Irene Dunne and Cary Grant to the screen in a gay, sophisticated romantic comedy in which these Hollywood luminaries hit a stride which should carry them to top comedy awards for the year.

A large share of their success in this breezy film is due to the hilarious story. Miss Dunne is cast as a wife presumably lost at sea whose husband, Cary Grant, has her declared legally dead after seven years' absence and then marries Gail Patrick. The newlyweds no sooner depart on their honeymoon than the first wife returns, very much alive. She was rescued from an uncharted Pacific island on which she had been marooned all these years with Randolph Scott, a handsome scientist.

She overtakes the honeymooners at a Yosemite hotel, and presents herself to her startled husband. Unable to blurt out the truth to his bride, Grant tries to keep his first wife hidden—with some hilarious and disastrous complications. Now starts a mad pace which is heightened until the uproarious climax. The kissless bride and her distraught husband flee home only to find Miss Dunne awaiting them and posing as an old friend of the family. And soon after the double-groom learns that his first wife and the virile explorer were alone on that island for seven years!

Unalaska Shakes

Ketchikan, Alaska, July 22.—(AP)—Buildings rocked but no damage was reported as Unalaska and other sections of the Aleutian islands experienced a sharp earthquake at 9:30 p.m. (PST) yesterday. The shock was of 11 seconds duration.

Talisman Lodge No. 31, Knights of Pythias, will convene Monday, July 22nd at 8:30 p. m. All members are requested to attend as plans for annual picnic on August 4th will be discussed. Visiting members welcome.
