RAILROAD UNDER THE DEAD

At two places on the Northwestern Pacific in northern California, railroad travelers actually pass under a cemetery. However, the tunnels were there first.

MORSE

Samuel F. B. Morse, inventor of the telegraph, was a successful portrait painter. He visited Paris in 1839 and met Daguerre, one of the inventors of a photographic process. Daguerre late sent Morse specifications which the American used in constructing a crude camera. In the summer of 1839 he took the first U. S. photograph—from a back window of New York University.
