Big Applegate

Big Applegate, Nov. 27—(Spl.) Miles Cantrall, well known resident of this community, is a patient at the Sacred Heart hospital, where he underwent an operation early last week.

A number of out of state residents came to this community to spend Thanksgiving and the following week-end with relatives, among whom was Mrs. Mary Bacon of St. Paul, Minn., who was a guest of her niece, Mrs. Louis Culy. Mrs. Culy entertained with a family dinner at her home on Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Barr and two young sons of Fullerton, Cal., also spent the holiday vacation here with Mr. Barr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barr. The Californian's were accompanied by Mrs. George Gavin of Palo Alto, a sister of the elder Mrs. Barr. Other Californians motoring here for Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McDaniel of Vacaville and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Luce of San Francisco, who were guests of Mrs. McDaniel's father, Wm. Buck.

Miss Louise Harr left early last week for Ashland, Alabama, where she will be a guest for an indefinite period of time of Mrs. M. L. Allen. Miss Harr was accompanied as far as Los Angeles by her cousin, Mrs. Melburn Atkins, who is teaching at Keno, and the two visited relatives in Los Angeles for a short time.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the Beaver creek Sunday school Nov. 30, when Rev. L. S. Lamkin of the Christian Center at Murphy will take charge of the Sunday school period, which will be followed by a short service. Mr. Lamkin will be accompanied by the lower Applegate Sunday school group, whom he serves as teacher of the Bible class. Sunday school convenes at 10:00 a.m. at Upper Applegate Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blanton and daughter of Little Applegate spent the holiday week-end at Brookings, where, with a party of sixteen, they enjoyed fishing and beach sports.

Mrs. Morris Byrne is enjoying a week's vacation trip to points in Southern California, where she is visiting relatives. Mrs. Byrne is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. T. J. Gifford, and others from Medford.

Mrs. Aralea Sager of Corvallis, state leader of home economics, will discuss the timely topic, "Keeping Your Balance in a World of Propaganda," at the meeting of the local extension unit Wednesday, December 3rd. The meeting concerns citizenship, and everyone interested in hearing the message of the state leader is invited to attend the meeting, which opens at 10:00 a. m. at the Applegate school building. Miss Marian Farrell, county demonstration agent, will accompany Mrs. Sager.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jones and son, Jack, of Vallejo expected to return to their home this week after spending a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Cantrall.

LINDY'S ADDRESS

London, Nov. 27—(AP)—British fuzziness about American history cropped up again today in a story of a Thanksgiving celebration by American technicians working for British forces. The story said "Lindbergh's Gettysburg Address" would be shown on a movie screen as a part of the observance.

Approximately 1,800 United States naval reserve midshipmen have been graduated from naval reserve schools within the last year.

Wall St. Report

New York, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Tardy bidding helped steady parts of today's stock market but many leaders continued well out on a shaky limb.

Steels drew some support, with Bethlehem especially favored, and tobaccos stiffened after an early relapse.

Tax selling remained as one of the important brakes on recovery, brokers said. This, despite exceptionally slow intervals, put the day's volume to around 800,000 shares.
