Dick Applegate Going To Manila For United Press

Richard Applegate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Applegate, 615 South Oakdale, has been promoted to foreign correspondent in the United Press service, according to word received Saturday by his parents. Applegate is to leave the last of January for Manila where he will serve for a time and later will be assigned at Singapore.

The former Medford man has been in the United Press service for several years, having joined that company while employed as sports writer for the Mail Tribune. He was discharged from the navy in October after 3½ years service and visited his parents last fall with his bride. Mrs. Applegate will remain in Los Angeles with friends until her husband is able to secure accommodations in Manila.
