SHUTS OFF WATER AT ESTACADA.—Th owners of the water plant at Estacada have adopted a novel way to force the city to take the works off their hands, They have closed down the works. The pumps ceased to pump a week ago. Some time ago the Council made some sort of an agreement to take the plant at $7000, but the citizens sent in a remonstrance against paying that price. They even went so far as to intimate that it was exorbitant. In the face of this remonstrance, the Council besitated about constrance, the strance, the Council hesitated about con-summating the bargain. At a meeting of citizens last week, some warm words were used, and a committee was appoint-ed to investigate the cost of the present plant, and also to ascertain whether it would be feasible for the city to build its own plant. The owners of the plant were not bleased with his action, and have a own plant. The owners of the plant were not pleased with this action, and shut off the water just to show how they feit about the matter. Some people have been suffering great inconvenience by this pro-ceeding, and the company evidently has not improved its position in the minds of those who are left without water. The committee appointed to investigate condi-tions have until next Thursday, May 15. tions have until next Thursday, May 17 when it is expected some understanding

RELIEF CORPS BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT The benefit entertainment given last evening at the G. A. R. Hall, under the auspices of the George Wright Relief Corps, proved an entire success. The proceeds about $50, will be given to two. San Francisco refugees, members of the corps. The Veterans' Quartet contributed several selections, and the rest of the programme was filled by members of the Western Academy of Music. Every num-ber was enjoyed, and met by a hearty ap-plause from the audience, which filled the large hall. Mrs. Byron A. Downey espe-cially, with her humorous recital, kept the audience in a continuous laughter. Professor Goodnough gave a plane sole, which was brilliantly executed. The en-tertainment was well gotten up, and everybody went home pleased with the PIEDMONT WATER PLANT.-The Pied mont water plant supplies a considerable district, and the water committee may purchase the plant. Good water is sup-plied, but it has to be pumped into a bligh tower for distribution, which makes the cost to the consumer more than city rates. It is the pioneer waterworks for that section of the city. There is also a small waterworks plant at Woodlawn, but here the mains are wooden and small. When the large main now being laid from Mount Tabor is completed it will supply all the northeastern section of the city. It has been understood for some time that the owners of these plants would be glad to dispose of their works when the city undertakes to supply that district with Buil Rom water. Bull Run water.

CLEAN UP THE WHOLE CITY

Initiative One Hundred Issues Appeal to Citizens of Portland.

The Initiative One Hundred, through its president, Francis I, McKenna, has issued the following appeal to the residents of Portland to clean up the city: The subject of cleanliness is not susceptible of discussion. It has but one side. tible of discussion. It has but one side. That Portland is the most untidy city on the Pacific Coast is true beyond doubt. That Portland can be made the most beautiful city on this coast is also true. Whose fault is it that Portland does not enjoy the distinction for which Nature has fitted her? for which Nature has fitted her?

Cleanliness is enforced in the insane asylums and among the savages by law. Persons who are not cleanly are to that extent without the culture of civilization—the same may be said of cities. Is Portland retrograding from civilization? If so, we may look to the Mayor and other officials to keep us clean. If we try to maintain the standards of intelligence we must clean up our city and otherwise beautify it without the press-

The most valuable lesson we can teach our hildren is the one of cleanliness of person nd home. We know of no better way to mpress this leason on the minds of the chool children than to give them g halfschool children than to give them a half-holiday for the purpose of making an ex-traordinary effort in cleaning of the home surroundings. We do not ask this to be done on account of the saving to the city funds for the work done by the school chil-dren, but for the purpose of impressing on the children's minds the lesson necessary to make them clean sitisons.

We hope that the School Board will assist this worthy effort on the part of the Initiative One Hundred by giving the pupils a half-holiday in the afternoon of May 18, and by instructing the trachers in all the schools to use the time between 11 and 12 o'clock A. M. of that date in instructing their pupils how to proceed to make their home appropriations clean and heautiful. surroundings clean and benuitful. We would advise that the boys in each room be requested to elect a captain to lead the hosts against everything in the nature of rubbish their school district and that the girl in their school district and that the girls cleet a goddess of beauty who will lead the girls in making the lawns beautiful by planting flowers and vines.

Quarter-Million Is Assured by Today.

FUND FOR THE STRICKEN

Q. R. & N. Employes and Children of Montavilla School Send Cash Contributions to Be Used for San Francisco.

WILL BEACH MARK TODAY. Today will undoubtedly bring the general reiler fund to the quartermillion mark. With yesterday's contributions the fund now amounts to $249.716.71, less than $800 from the goal. The proceeds of the bene fit concert at The Heilig will, in all probability, be added today and this contribution alone will bring the fund past $250,000. Among yesterday's contributions was one from the emplayer of the O. R. & N. lines in Oregon and one from the children of Montavilla School

With nearly $500 added yesterday, which brings the general relief fund within less than $300 from the $250,000-mark, it is now certain that the $250,000 goal will be passed today. In a remarkably short time, a lit-tic over three weeks, this large amount was raised by voluntary contributions of Oregon citizens. Although the largest share was given by Portland, credit must be given to the whole state for its gen-erous response. With only one appeal erous response. With only one appea by the general relief committee, contribu-tions from all parts of the state were an are unceasingly forthcoming, and it is hard to predict when the noble work will stop. Although it was at first thought that $250,000 would be Oregon's contribution, it is plain now that more will have to be raised. After the first shock of the disaster it was impossible to judge its magnitude. Only now does the real question of relief and help come up, and it will be many months yet before the inhabitants of the afflicted city will be able to provide for themselves Portland Schools Help.

A noble example of the sympathy for the unfortunates was shown by the large contribution of the children of Portland public schools. In pennics, nickels and dimes, the large amount of over $500 was voluntarily contributed by the children. So far as known, this is one of the first contributions to the San Francisco fund, and the largest raised by echool

All the members of the relief committee with unselfish devotion have been working on the raising of this fund, and mem bers of both the general relief and Orego-nian-Telegram popular fund committees have been neglecting their other duties to be able to help the cause. Over three weeks' accumulated business of the Cham-ber of Commerce awaits Mr. Giltner's attention, who has been a moving spirit in the raising of this gigantic relief fund.

A GOOD little story is going the rounds in Oak-atreet circles concerning Mr. Charles Lewis, the genial and widelyknown young uncivil engineer. It seems that Mr. Lewis has been awakened nightly for some time past by a feline concert and yesterday morning at dawn he determined to put the quietus on his tortermined to put the quietus on his tormentors. When she heard the crash and saw the meteorite in yellow pajamas she gave a startled little exclamation.

Now according to all conventional rules of modern romance a marriage ceremony should have occurred before noon. But it was not to be so. Little dreaming that the apparation in yellow was Mr. Charles Lewis, Miss Farey thoughtlessly called for help and unfortunately for all concerned a horrid policeman answered the alarm and removed Mr. Lewis, much to his humiliation.

Later in the day the young people chanced to meet at the Cameron, where Mr. Lewis took the opportunity to explain that never before has be called unannounced and that his appearance was

"We are charging $10 a thousand for logs," said a prominent logger last night, "but simply because they are worth that to the millmen. We have been disposing of a large quantity at $9 a thousand dur-ing the past few weeks, but have con-cluded to hold out for $10 in the future as long as the demand warrants it. We have been unable to keep up our deliveries for some time at $9 a thousand, and so decided to charge $10. The millmen will say that they will lose money when paying $10 a thousand for logs, but we know that a great deal of the lumber brings as high as $35 a thousand, and that easily makes up for the poorer quality selling at $12 or even less."
