DISCUSS AID TO ASIA—Secretary of State Dean Acheson (left) appeals to a hostile House Foreign Affairs Committee hearing on economic aid to Korea and Formosa. Acheson explained that he feels the United States has a responsibility in Korea which it must fulfill. He is shown with committee chairman Rep. John Kee (D., W. Va.) and Rep. Charles A. Eaton (R., N. Radio Patter by Pat

In a moderate departure from its usual practice, "Author Meets The Critics," the erudite book discussion program on ABC will consider the merits of a magazine article on its next program scheduled for this evening at 9 o'clock over Station KYJC.

Pat Wilkinson

The article to come under the scrutiny of the visiting critics will be Al Capp's piece in the February issue of "The Atlantic Monthly," titled "The Comedy of Charlie Chaplin."

Private Nurse Myrtle Mae Andrews, 23, and Billy Edward Smith, 24, both of Belmont, Cal., tell of a first meeting at 2:30 a. m. and a proposal at the Policemen's ball on the "Bride and Groom" program on Station KYJC tomorrow at 3 p. m.

Rachel, who marries a medical student, almost betrays her trust as she faces the long years of waiting for her husband to become established. The trying times, common to many young married people, will be dramatized on the "My True Story" program tomorrow on KYJC at 10:30 a. m.

Many thanks to Mrs. Bess Herendeen for the wonderful collection of records—34 albums—sent to Station KYJC. We know the listeners will enjoy the wonderful arrangements.

Former KYJC personnel now with KRCO, Prineville, may be picked up at the 690 spot on your dial. Providing, of course, you have an "unusual" radio—an "unusual" location for your aerial—and a more than "unusual" bit of luck.

Dollars Attracting Trade Fair Patrons

Chicago, (U.P.) — The lure of American dollars is expected to attract manufacturers from all parts of the world to the first United States international trade fair, to be held here next August.

Fair officials report that they already are "deluged with requests" for applications from business men on every continent, who want to sell everything from plastic toys to heavy machinery.

Officials said Latin American and Asiatic nations will be well represented. Extensive European participation is assured with the support of the Office of European Economic Co-operation.

Great Britain has indicated an immediate recognition of the fair's importance, officials said, and has begun an aggressive campaign to interest its business men in the fair to establish dollar credits here.

Wire Tapping Cracked Fuchs Case, Is Claim

Washington, Feb. 9 — (U.P.)—The FBI cracked the Fuchs atomic spy case by wire tapping, congressional sources disclosed today.

No details are available. Members of congress who have received a full report from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover are pledged to secrecy.

But reliable congressional sources said the initial tip-off on Dr. K. E. J. Fuchs, the British scientist accused of giving atomic secrets to Russia, came from a tap of a telephone conversation.

Women Receive Credit For N.M. Paved Roads

Santa Fe, N. M. (U.P.)—An official of the federal government believes that women are responsible for the nation's paved roads.

Testifying here before a senate public roads sub-committee, L. I. Hughes, 11-state bureau of public roads director from San Francisco, said, "it's the women who kick about gravel roads.

"They don't like the dust in their headgear."

PRISONER HELPS SELF

Jonesville, Va. (U.P.) — Tommy Hartbarger, 20, being held for extradition to Georgia, broke the lock on his jail cell with a two-byfour and drove away in the automobile of the commonwealths' attorney, Glenn Williams.
