Gold Hill Council Sets Budget Vote

Gold Hill, June 7—An amendment to Ordinance 245 was adopted by the city council at the meeting Monday night to change the name of the occupational tax to business tax. The several businesses were named and amounts of the tax remained the same as in the previous years. Any business not listed will be taxed at a rate not less than $10 per year.

The special election for the city budget was set for June 26, from 12 to 8 p.m. at the city hall. Mrs. John Frost was appointed chairman and judge, Mrs. William Ferguson judge, and Mrs. Bob Kies clerk for the board.

To Raise $11,015

Amount to be raised to exceed the six per cent limitation will be $8,635 for the general fund and amount to be raised for the bond and interest fund will be $2,050, making a total of $11,015 to be raised by taxation. Amount of the budget this year is about $3,000 less than last year.

Paul Wright was granted an extension of the lease for part of Lot 9 for a period of five years. Mrs. Lillie MacKay and Mrs. Charles Askin were granted permission of the council to use the council room twice a month for the meeting place for the American Pension club No. 1.
