Estimated 2,500 At 14th Annual Catfish Derby

Except for a few hot spots in the sun, there was "standing room only" yesterday afternoon in Tou Velle state park at the 14th annual National Catfish derby. The crowd was estimated at more than 2,500.

The grand sweepstakes award winner at this yearly, non-profit venture sponsored by the Medford 20-30 club, was Clifton Lee Kent, Medford. Since his 12 catfish weighed-in with the most pounds, young Kent took home the sweepstakes trophy and a table model radio as well.

Other awards won in the catfish derby division were presented to Loren Gehart, whose 21 catfish proved to be the day's biggest catch and also brought him "best catfisherman" honors. George Flury, Eagle Point, had the largest catfish (1 pound, 2 ounces) while Lanny Brenner with an albino catfish took the derby's "special" award.

Other Awards

In the other featured events during the afternoon's program, Charlean Schrader took first place in the freckled face girl's contest for the third straight year. Her sister, Donna, captured the girl's pie eating "splash" for her second win in a row.

The results in other contests were as follows: most freckled boy, J. C. Rutherford; youngest twins, Robert and Roberta Bernard; youngest child, Donnanne Gish; boy with the shortest hair, Douglas Bewley; girl with the longest hair, Avalie Eihendorf; most recently married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Norris; boys' pie eating, Larry Peterson; largest family present, the K. V. Marney family (10); girls' pie eating, Donna Schrader; oldest car present, Adolf Schultz with a 1928 Chrysler; bubble gum contest, Murphy Clark; baldest headed man, M. A. Toay.

Schuchard Emcee

Dick Schuchard, master of ceremonies for the past three years, kept the program moving at a fast pace. He was assisted by Movie Actress June Storey and Kingfish Frank Perl. Kingfish Perl passed up the current Shrine convention in Los Angeles to make it to his 14th consecutive derby. The other derby founder, Kingfish Frank DeSouza, was unable to attend this year's function.

The crowd warmly received the entertainment provided at intervals throughout the day by Jeanne and Abby Green, and songs by Dick Spain. Edith Woodridge and Spain's five-year-old protege, Jackie Woodridge.

Prizes were donated by Medford merchants.
