Whitney's Mare Withdrawn From Brooklyn Handicap.

MERRY LARK IS FAVORITE

Dandelion Has Shown Good Speed and Is Being Well Played Against the Field of Eighteen Entries.

NEW YORK, May 20.-The racing scene shifts tomorrow from the Belmont track to Gravesend, for tomorrow is Brooklyn handicap day. Thousands will journey Coney Islandwards, for no matter the size or quality of the entry list, the Brooklyn invariably furnishes a good contest. This year it is an open event, for many of the greatest of the racers, including Sysonby and Artful, have been declared out, and of the 18 that remain there is ittle to choose among at least half that withdrawal of Harry Payne Whitney's great more Artful at almost the last moment has proved a decided disappointnent to racegoers, and incidentally has and a marked effect on the betting Artful was highly favored in the Winter books, and Merry Lark, Dandelion and one or two others will have to carry the money of those that wish to bedge, as well as that of the thousands who will do their first betting after they reach the

The Brooklyn should be run under fa-The Brooklyn should be run under favorable conditions, as the weather prom-less fair, and the track is fast. The stake is $20.000 and among those that will face the starter are two former Brook-lyn winners—the Picket, who captured the great stake two years ago from such horses as tristi Lad, and Hermis and Delhi, who divided in front of a good Delhi, who finished in front of a good field in 1905. But neither of these thor-oughbreds is looked upon with much general favor for this running.

Tonight the popular choice is between Merry Lark and Dandellon, because both have accomplished something in actual racing this year. Merry Lark on his first appearance won the Excelsion handleap at a mile and a sixteenth from Roseben, Concentral Rich Engants Burch Color Ormondes' Right, Eugenia Burch, Colo-nial Girl and other fast horses in 1:47-1-5, with 106 pounds up. Dundellon was beaten only a neck by the better-seasoned Grapple in the Metropolitan at Bolmont Park, and a day or two later captured an over-night handicap at a mile and a sixteenth in 1:46 3-5, carrying 119 pounds.

The distance is believed to be too far for Roseben, who, however, in his last two races had come back to form. He will be lightly weighted if he runs tomorrow, which may make considerable dif-ference. Go Between, A. Shields' 5-year-old, will have some followers. He is game, and has run two games this sea-son. Oxford must also be taken into con-sideration, and it is not outside the range of consistency that he will be within the money when the race is finished. In speaking of the aftuation at Los Angeles, the former Seraph said: "Portland will have to be the mainstay of the league at least for a time, for the Los Angeles team goes on the road for about six weeks. The dropping of Morley, who has not been in popular favor with the fans at Los Angeles for some time, will prove the best thing that has happened to the league, for some popular men down there have agreed to take the team, and have been assured that they will be down there have agreed to take the team, and have been assured that they will be granted a renewal of the lesse on Chutes Park. Morley's treatment of some of his players, like the case of Baum, for instance, has not made him any teo popular there, and when he quit cold after the San Francisco disaster, it settled him with the patrolls of the game, as was shown by the attendance during the last month. I have been at Murtetta Springs for a week or so, doing a little preliminary work, but the witnessing of three games at Los Angeles is about the extent of the playing I have done so far this season. In spite of this, I expect to play with Portland this week and am glad to be a member of such a good club as McCredie has this season. Credie has this season.

CHAMPIONSHIP NOT DECIDED

Colts and Glants End Game With a Disagreement.

Disagreement.

Eleven to seven and 18 mud-bespattered ballplayers tells the tale of the fical game on Multnomah field yesterday morning between the Colts and the Irish Giants for the baseball championship of the club. The Colts had II and the Irish Giants the rest, but at that neither side knows which is champion, or even whether there was a game or not.

The Colts and Giants had fought their way to the finals, each with a record of four games won and one lost. The two nines came on the field yesterday prepared to fight it out, but when about the fourth inning a drenching rainatourn occurred, the determination to play a nine-imning contest began to weaken. At the end of the fight the Giants were leading, seves to five, and they were strong for quitting.

"Nine innings," said the Colts, while the rain came harder. At the end of another session the Colts were four runs to the good, and they wanted to quit.

"Nine innings," said the Giants, but somebody looked at a watch and noted that the game had already progressed three hours. Then everybody got hungry, and the game broke up.

The Colts say they won legitimately, but the Giants do not concede the championship since the contest was to have lasted nine innings. Another game will
